BARRETT HOSPITAL & HEALTHCARE AN- NOUNCES WALK-IN CLINIC

Barrett Hospital and HealthCare has started renovations in the Medical Office Building to transform the medical library into a Walk-in Clinic. Patients will be able to see a provider on a first-come, first serve basis for non-emergency care. This service is being offered as an alternative to the traditional practice of having a designated primary care provider and scheduling an appointment. The clinic is intended to make it easier and faster to see a provider for non-emergent conditions without having to go to the Emergency Department at the Hospital. This service has been requested by our patients for some time.

The walk-in clinic will treat non-emergent ailments, including colds, flu, infections, skin rashes, muscle strains or injuries and other less serious conditions. Providers at the walk-in clinic will have on-site access to prescribe medication, order lab and/or diagnostic imaging tests, or prescribe various therapies. Patients with traumatic injuries, including serious cuts that require significant stitches or any condition that may be life-threatening should continue to present to the Emergency Department at the hospital. Life-threatening symptoms may include: Difficulty breathing, Shortness of breath, Chest or upper abdominal pain or pressure, Fainting, Sudden dizziness or weakness, Sudden changes in vision, Sudden confusion or changes in mental status, Any sudden or severe pain, Uncontrolled bleeding, Severe or persistent vomiting or diarrhea, Coughing or vomiting blood, Suicidal feelings, Difficulty speaking, Sudden numbness or weakness of the face, arm or leg.

The clinic is expected to open in February, and will be open M - F from 7:30 AM until 4:00 PM and from 9:00 AM until 2:00 PM on Saturdays. For more information, please call Cynthia White, Director of Provider Services, at 683-3078.

Holidays with young children – does it have to be perfect?

By Linn Veen

For parents of young children, there's a lot that goes into getting ready for the holidays. In addition to work, there are extra errands, increased spending and more socializing. Making things "just right" for the family doesn't have to lead to stress for moms, dads and caregivers.

Parents and caregivers often strive to find the perfect gift for their child and hope Santa is sensitive to their budgets. The children we serve at Curious Minds Early Childhood Education Center at the University of Montana Western are certainly excited about what gifts they will receive, but the story doesn't end there.

The world outside may be busy with holiday preparations, but here at Curious Minds we are striving to stay calm and joyful. We have a daily simple practice in December. During meal time, we light a small candle and talk about what makes us feel happy. To our delight, toys rarely make the list. Instead, children talk about being happy to see grandma or excited to fly off to see cousins. They also talk about how much they enjoy sledding, and one child even mentioned how happy it made her to see a deer in a snowy field.

Happiness abounds at Curious Minds every evening around 5 p.m. when it's time to get a big hug from mom, dad and caregivers before heading home for dinner and quality time together.

Consider sharing happy holiday memories with your children. It helps them remember and focus upon happy feelings being with friends and family.

Do you remember much of what Santa brought you when you were a young child? I do not. A fond memory is of reading stories with my grandmother, enjoying an annual dinner with family friends and everyone crowding in for the Democrats choose illegals over American war vets...

Submitted by Chuck Dishno

Obama has every intention of giving amnesty to millions who are here illegally. America's economy is in shambles. Our health care system a wreck (thanks to Obama care). Unemployment is still sky-high. Yet Obama and his liberal army want to grant amnesty to millions of illegals who will collapse the system and create a new wave of poverty. Who's going to pay for all this?

If I was a democrat I would hang my head in shame. Thank God I am not.

God bless you and America... and a Merry Christmas from Chuck Dishno

BCHS seniors enter "What Patriotism Means to Me"

BCHS senior Josee Pendleton earned first place in a 500 word essay contest sponsored by the American Legion, VFW, White Hat Coalition and MT Patriot Guard Riders. The contest was the result of a special flag folding ceremony presented by the Coalition, Legion, VFW and PGR for the senior class in October. At that time the entire senior class was invited to write an essay on what each of them thought patriotism meant to them personally. Six seniors essay's submitted were selected and members of the sponsoring veterans groups voted on each entry. Josee Pendleton was selected as this years first place and the five remaining finalists were Gabe Chilson, Courtney Linder, Macey Matae, Darby Peterson and Ben Walde. High school officials enthusiastically support this important event and extra credit will be given to each entrant as well as recognition from the sponsors. The selection committee consisting of Al Lawson, Stan Smith, Skip Bybee and Billy Melton have announced that the Flag Folding Ceremony and essay contest will become an annual event for Veterans Day each year.

After the first rounds on Friday, only two wrestlers from Dillon were still in the championship bracket in the Holiday Wrestling Classic in Great Falls. At that point Dillon was tied for the 12th place spot in team standings with 57 points.

Kohltn Starkel at 106, got a pin to go on to the championship quarterfinal match. Donovan Hucke at 285 also had a pin to advance.

Other wrestlers who didn't fare as well were Chance Snellman who was pinned, Kwin Stoddard was pinned and Parker Tezak lost by a 11-4 decision in his quarterfinals.

Anaconda's Bryce Wigert came out the victor in the heavyweight title match over Donovan Hucke with a pin who ended the tournament in 4th place as well as his team mate Kohltn Starkel at 106. That dropped Dillon down to a 14th place finish as a team for the tournament this weekend.
