By: Lynn Westad

Monday at 1:00 pm Mayor Marty Malesich gave the oath to the newly elected Council members Dick Acher, Bill Forrester, Nels Troedsson and Lynn Westad. They were presented with a very nice Certificate signed by the Mayor, the County Commissioners, with Debra Scott signing making the action official. They will join the other four seated council members Bob Cottom, Derek Gore, Dan Nye, and David Spehar. It was only found out early Monday that newly elected Mayor Mike Klakken had been sworn in by Judge Loren Tucker last week. With the first Wednesday falling on January 1st, there will be no regular council meeting until January 15, 2014.

From all of us down here at Womack's Printing Place We would like to wish you a Happy and Prosperous New Years!

Billy Graham's Prayer For Our Nation

Submitted by Chuck Dishno

THIS MAN SURE HAS A GOOD VIEW OF WHAT'S HAPPENING TO OUR COUNTRY!

'Heavenly Father, we come before you today to ask your forgiveness and to seek your direction and guidance. We know Your Word says, 'Woe to those who call evil good,' but that is exactly what we have done.

We have lost our spiritual equilibrium and reversed our values. We have exploited the poor and called it the lottery.

We have rewarded laziness and called it welfare.

We have killed our unborn and called it choice. We have shot abortionists and called it justifiable...
We have neglected to discipline our children and called it building self esteem.

We have abused power and called it politics.
We have coveted our neighbor's possessions and called it ambition.
We have polluted the air with profanity and pornography and called it freedom of expression.

We have ridiculed the time-honored values of our forefathers and called it enlightenment.
Search us, Oh God, and know our hearts today; cleanse us from sin and Set us free. Amen!'

With the Lord's help, may this prayer sweep over our nation and wholeheartedly become our desire so that we once again can be called 'One nation under God!'

UMW lands big football recruit

University of Montana Western head football coach B.J. Robertson announced the signing of Ennis, Mont., senior lineman Braydon McKitrick to a Frontier Conference/NAIA letter of intent.

"We are excited to add another member of a state championship team to our 2014 recruiting class in Braydon McKitrick of the Ennis Mustangs," Bulldog head coach B.J. Robertson said.

McKitrick is a 6' 5" 250 pound athlete who has exhibited his athleticism while being a member of the football, basketball, track, and rodeo teams while attending Ennis High School. On the gridiron Braydon received 2013 first team All-State and 3 year All-Conference accolades. His junior year he recorded 46 tackles, 4 sacks and 6 pass deflections and followed that year with 43 tackles that included 3.5 sacks and 7 pass deflections his senior season. McKitrick was a key member for the 2013 Ennis Mustangs who won the state 8-Man football championship and has been selected as a participant in the Bob Cleverly 8-Man All-Star game. Braydon has been selected to the All-State track team twice as well as a two time All-Conference basketball player for the Mustangs.

"Braydon is the complete package you are looking for in recruiting. He comes from a local successful program, he competes in four sports (football, basketball, track, and rodeo), he has a 3.7 gpa, and he brings great size and athleticism," coach Robertson said of his newest Bulldog. "Braydon truly adds to the Bulldog Football Family because his sister Mady is also a team manager for the Bulldogs."

Off the field Braydon has received Academic All-State 4 years and plans to study environmental studies while attending Montana Western. He is the son of Mike and Cindy McKitrick.

Mazy's Traveling Teapot
by Jean Tilton James

(This story will be continued)

It's A Teapot's Life

"I don't have a rich house," said the second son. "That is why it should belong to me. I will sell it for a good sum, and perhaps my wife can buy the new stove she nags me for every day."

The third son interrupted, "We must sell our father's teapot and split the money. This is the only fair thing to do.

"Stop, all of you! You have dishonored our father with your greed," came the voice of the youngest child, a daughter. "I am only a girl and I am the unworthy youngest daughter, but I know enough to see what you are doing is wrong. Not one of you has mentioned that our father was drinking tea from this very pot the day he died. Not one of you has spoken about the special beauty of this extraordinary little bird." With that she stomped out of the room.

The brothers sat in silence, ashamed, for Tian nu and Lijaun had raised good and honorable sons. When at last they began to talk again, I felt hope as I heard their solution. The oldest son called his sister back into the room. She had been crying and she had red rims around her eyes.

"We have decided, little sister, that you are right. We have not honored our father. We want you to have the little bird teapot with our deep apologies. You have led your silly brothers into wisdom and we make you this gift with great pleasure."

The young girl smiled sweetly and bowed to each brother in turn and then accepted me with quiet respect. "I am deeply humbled by this gift, my brothers. Entrusting me today with this teapot will surely bring good fortune to each of you."

And so I moved into another home where the youngest sister's family has treated me with respect and dignity.

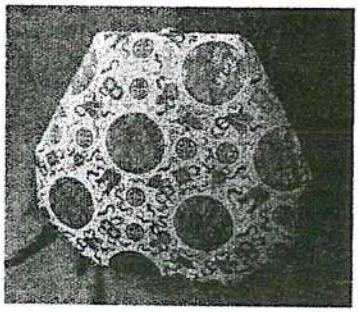
Where I will go from here, I do not know, but, so far, I have learned how important imagination is and that it must be exercised just like any other part of a being, because it can help transcend any confines. I have learned fear can be overcome and one can stand tall in the world. Finally, I have regained my faith in the power of beauty, but I know, now, that beauty must come from within. A balanced and harmonious soul shines forth much longer and brighter than mere surface decoration.

"Good fortune to you, my young and old readers. May your travels through life bring you imaginative moments, learning and joy. May you always remember me as you enjoy warm, soothing cups of tea and enlightening conversation.

This is my traveling case.



Here I am in my traveling case. You can see that it was comfortable, but also boring until I learned to use my imagination.
