Elections & Dark Money

By: MJ

One of the hottest news items in 2013 was "Dark Money" -- money that is used to candidates via a middle man. American Tradition Partnership was one of those groups. American Traditions is an independent organization that receives money from organizations, individuals and groups that do not want the public to know who they are or who the candidate they are supporting is. Dark money isn't deposited into the candidate's accounts -- it is deposited into an account of an independent organization like American Tradition Partnership and then that organization pays for the ads, brochures, postage... It's a loop hole that allows big money to buy off a candidate and clears the candidate from following the election laws and disclosing who and where the money is coming.

Dark money allows large amounts of money to support candidates without disclosure. Jonathan Motl, commissioner of political practices stated that he is continuing to investigate "dark money" distribution.

Make sure that the candidate you are casting your vote for is really who you want in office and not the candidate that sounds too good to be true, the deceitful two-faced candidate hiding behind big money?

NOTE: A small hole not mended in time will become a big hole much more difficult to mend. This proverb tells us that if a trivial problem is not solved in time, it will become a serious and knotty one.

Proverb: is a short well-known saying that expresses an obvious truth and often offers advice.

MONTANA WESTERN FOOTBALL ANNOUNCES TWO NEW BULLDOGS

University of Montana Western football head coach B.J. Robertson announced the signing of Billings, Mont., senior Jeremy "Bubba" Keller and Jarred Kvamme to Frontier Conference/NAIA letters of intent.

Keller is a 6' 2" 190 pound defensive back and wide receiver from Billings West High School. Jeremy was voted as one of the team captains and earned Honorable Mention All-State for his play in the secondary his senior season. He also received 2nd team All-Conference as a corner as well as Honorable Mention All-Conference as a wide receiver.

Keller had 20 receptions for 197 yards, 1 interception, 1 fumble recovery, and had 34 tackles his senior year.

"We love what Bubba brings to the Bulldog football family on and off the field," said Bulldog head coach B.J. Robertson. "He has played QB, WR, and CB while at Billings West. We look forward to putting his height, athleticism, and his 3.6 gpa to work as a corner for the Bulldogs."

Off the field Jeremy is a member of the National Honors Society. He has also earned Academic All-State 2 years, and is a 4 year member of the Billings West Honor Roll. He plans on studying History Education while attending Montana Western. He is the son of Fred and Cindy Keller.

Kvamme is a 6' 2" 245 pound offensive guard who played for Helena Capital High School. Jarred was a two time honorable mention All-State performer, receiving those honors as a junior and senior. He was also selected to the 2nd team All-Conference team following those two years as well.

"Jarred has the size, intelligence, footwork, toughness, and competitiveness that we look for in an offensive lineman," Coach Robertson said. "We have had our eye on Jarred since seeing him and his team at the AA Camp last summer. And now to have him join the Bulldog football family, we could not be more excited."

My New Year's Resolutions...

By Chuck Dishno

They say New Year Resolutions are made to be broken, and here is my list. Let's see how long it takes me to fail.

I resolve to:

1. Continue to treat my wife, Roz, like the wonderful lady she is....That's an easy one to keep.
2. Loose about 50 pounds....That may be harder to keep but it is within reason.
3. To remain irresistible to the women of Dillon...That has to be the first to go.
4. Remain a dedicated Republican and believe in our country....That's a no brainer.
5. Not to have a road race with Johnny Plutt....I think I could beat him since my scooter will do 7 mph.
6. Lighten up on those poor misguided Democrats...Fat chance of that one lasting very long.
7. Always give a friendly wave to La Von Brillhart...I can keep this one because he is entitled to his opinion.
8. Never give up believing in these wonderful United States.
9. Trust all my friends but refuse to loan them money. Advise, OK but money no!
10. Continue to write stories of my life.
At least one a week.
That may keep me busy until I am 103.
