Doris Raph

October 13, 1930 - January 5, 2014

Doris Raph passed away January 5th, 2014 at Barrett Memorial Hospital in Dillon, Montana. She was born October 13, 1930 in McMinnville, Oregon the only child of Lauren and Millie Kelly. Graduating from Shelby High School, Doris was united in marriage to Jack Tanner and they had four boys; Craig, Brent, David and John. They were later divorced.

As a young woman Doris followed in her mother's footsteps and became a registered nurse. It wasn't long until her expertise and efficient work ethic became known. She worked in hospitals and for doctors in Shelby, Sheridan, and Dillon.

Doris later married Eldo Raph. They moved to Dillon in 1970, where Doris continued nursing. She later joined her husband Eldo, as they operated the historic Dillon Implement/DI Hardware store for many years.

Doris enjoyed her family, friends and golfing, along with her Yorkie Terriers. During her later years she was able to express her creative side through painting and ceramics.

Doris was preceded in death by her parents and husband Eldo Raph. She is survived by her son Craig and his children Joshua, Jenny, Jeremy, and Jody; Son Brent (Susie) and their children Jessica and Brandon; Son David and children Tessa Coleman, and Anthony; Son John (Patricia) and children Christine, Jordan, Kaylee and Sierra.

Doris had many good friends in Dillon and elsewhere. Many thanks to Sarah Binum, and her sisters Bette and Lila and her husband Albert for being with her at the end. Also Annabelle, Tennie and other neighbors and friends that supported Doris.

Doris was loved by her sons and will be greatly missed by all.

Cremation has taken place and a private family service to spread the ashes will take place during the summer of 2014. Condolences can be sent to 351 Lupine Place Pagosa Springs, CO 81147. Donations can be made to a charity of the donor's choice.

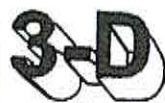

Volunteers Needed!

Time on your hands? Do you like to shop? Are you looking for a way to help out? Barrett Hospital Gift Shop is the place for you! Get involved!

The Gift Shop is seeking that special volunteer who will buy the merchandise through our established vendors; maintain an attractive display for sales; and handle the monthly accounts. This is all doable in only a few hours each week! Want more information? Contact Sharon Rice at 683-4831, 925-0962 or Elaine Anderson at 683-5045.

We also have a need for Gift Shop volunteers. You could fill a 3 hour shift each week, or just once or twice a month, or fill-in when you can as a substitute. The merchandise sells itself. Many of our volunteers travel and take a shift when they are in Dillon. Contact Kathy Shafer at 925-1714.

"You didn't build that" ...so said Barack Obama.
By Chuck Dishno

It's too bad that Lynn didn't heed that advice when she slobbered all over Marty's accomplishments. Her list of 40 accomplishments in the mayors 12 years was at least 50% fiction, maybe even more.

I have nothing against our "former mayor" but I would think he would be ashamed to take credit for things that he did not do, such as the new hospital, new IGA and new Dairy Queen to name a few.

Marty has to realize that he was defeated and it would behoove him to give Mike the chance he deserves.

Lost Llama

Lost female Llama last seen on west park st. at Smith Park Stables. Front half is white, back half is brown and she has a black and white face with a purple halter. She may be confused by new surroundings. If you see her please call Stan Smith at 660-4429 or Kathy Smith at 660-1250. Appreciate it greatly.

Christmas Tree Burn

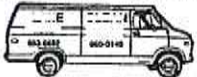

The Dillon Volunteer Fire Dept. is planning on picking up Christmas trees on Saturday, January 11th around the Dillon area. If people could have their trees near the street in front of their house the department will pick them up. You can also take the trees to the South end of Rail Road Avenue, near the Fair Grounds. All of the trees will be moved to the County Landfill and burned at that location this year.

REMINDER: WILDLIFE MANAGEMENT AREAS ARE CLOSED

Montana Fish, Wildlife & Parks would like to remind recreationists that most Region 3 Wildlife Management Areas (WMAs) are closed until May 15. This closure applies to all recreationists (i.e. wolf hunters, snowshoers, skiers, horseback riders, etc.) except where noted below.

FWP staff is aware of a number of recent instances in which individuals have been accessing WMAs despite the closures. The public should not enter a WMA if a gate or fence has been opened or broken. Closure rules still apply.

The one exception to the closure noted above is that a portion of Mount Haggin WMA is open to cross-country snowmobile use from Dec. 2 to May 15 (see the Beaverhead-Deerlodge National Forest travel map for details).

WMAs not managed specifically for big game winter range (such as waterfowl and wetlands) remain open for public use year-round. Those WMAs include Canyon Ferry, Lake Helena, and Silver Gate.

CITY HAPPENINGS

By Lynn Westad

A Special Meeting of the City Council was called to order at 7:00 pm by Mayor Mike Klakken. All council members were present except Dick Achter.

The only agenda item was the appointment of the City Judge. Shea Erwin was appointed as City Judge to hold the position until the next city election two years from now. Shea has been the City Court Clerk and worked close with Judge John Gutcheck and is well prepared to succeed in her new duties.

There was no public comment and the meeting was adjourned at 7:20. The next meeting will be Jan 15 which is the first regular council meeting of the New Year.

Politicians - Get Rid of?

By: MJ

Is it time to get rid of the career politicians; the people who are getting rich on your hard earned tax dollars?

Why do they say they are against increasing the deficits yet when they get into office they create programs that increase the spending? Why did politicians pass a health care law that has cost and will continue to cost billions of tax payers' dollars? Will the politicians created another bailout program for the insurance companies because the insurance companies might go bankrupt? Remember the insurance companies were important players at the table drafting & creating Obama Health Care. Did the insurance companies stand to increase profits? Money is dominating power in today's world.

Time will tell If you will file bankruptcy, close your business and put people out of work, because you can no longer pay the taxes and the regulations required by the government.

Research the candidate you vote for -- ask the questions that are important to you. They will be spending your tax dollars & you will be paying their wages.

One Week Left to Voice your Opinions about Healthcare in Community Health Needs Assessment

Community members in Dillon and the surrounding area have one week left to fill out surveys to help Barrett Hospital & HealthCare better understand the health services needed in the community. Survey information will be used to guide the strategic planning process at Barrett Hospital & HealthCare in the coming years. Survey collection will close on January 21. The surveys will be followed by focus groups and detailed analysis by the Montana Office of Rural Health and Barrett Hospital & HealthCare; the process should be completed in early spring 2014.

The Community Health Needs Assessment process promotes health care as a local affair. Health care delivered in Dillon is affordable, high quality, and necessary to the good health of the entire community. Citizens can take responsibility for the health of their community by completing the survey they receive in their mailbox.

Another goal of this process is to keep health care dollars here in the local community. Despite the fact that most health care services can be provided locally, rural Montanans often drive to large medical centers for care, spending money on health care as well as non-health care purchases, instead of spending that money locally. It is estimated that within a typical rural community, millions of dollars of revenue is lost in this way.

The goal of this initiative is for you to assist Barrett Hospital & HealthCare in addressing the community's present and future needs in the best way possible. Barrett Hospital & HealthCare thanks you for your input and your effort in returning the survey.

For more information, contact Ben Power, Data Analyst for Barrett Hospital & HealthCare at (406) 683-3154.

Vigilante Author Visits Dillon

The Bookstore will be hosting author, Donald E. Crosley a Butte native on Friday, January 10th. Crosley, the author of the new book "Hang 'Em: Montana Vigilantes vs. Henry Plummer" will be signing books from 2:00-4:00 pm. Dillon artist, Amanda McLaren Morton provided the illustration and cover design.

This non-fiction book tells the story of the people that traveled to the wild west in search of gold, fame and fortune.. Many found just that only to be robbed or killed making this a very dangerous territory for those that came here. The title of book was taken from the Vigilantes own motto "Hang 'Em" as they united to fight the corrupt Sheriff Plummer.

Chris Fisk, Beaverhead County High School graduate, Butte High history teacher and 2012 DAR National History Teacher of the Year, said this of Crosley's book:

"Crosley has produced a book so incredibly palatable to both the traveler and historian alike. The legendary stories of the early gold fields of Montana and their colorful characters come alive in a short, concise manner. An easy read that is complete in its content."

This event is being held in conjunction with the Just-Us Re-Enactors commemoration of the 150th anniversary of the hanging of Sheriff Henry Plummer, Buck Stinson and Ned Ray. (Which will take place on Saturday at Bannack State Park) Members of the Just-Us cast will be attending the booksigning at The Bookstore (in costume) making this a lively event.

Books are available at The Bookstore, 26 N Idaho Street.
