The Downhill Divas are Shreddin' at Maverick!

Come see how this for-women-only ski group reflects a new facet of Thursday and Friday skiing at Maverick Mountain!

Skiing will give you a fresh outlook on Montana winters! You can stay active, enjoy beautiful scenery, and make new friends.

Perhaps you've never skied before, and want to learn in a supportive environment; or you already have good skills and just want to spend some time on the slopes with friends. Whatever your ability or desires, our competent, passionate coaches will help you achieve your goals.

These rates would be hard to beat, and you will never learn any younger, sooooo...."head for the hill."

This program includes 5 full-day lift tickets, 5 rentals, and 5 group sessions (starting this week!) for just $180! (If you have your own equipment - $140.)

For more information, contact Heidi at shoeless_87@yahoo.com or by calling 683-2035.

Family Dollar store

On Saturday morning Mayor Klakken extended greetings to and welcomed the Family Dollar store to Dillon with a ribbon cutting ceremony and a short speech. After cutting the ribbon he jumped to one side to avoid being trampled by the crowd.

BEAVERS BASKETBALL

The Dillon Girls rolled past Stevensville 41 to 25 on Saturday on a road trip. The Beavers are leading the league with a 6-1 over all and 4-0 conference record. The team was just that, as there were 3 girls with the high score for the Beavers at nine each, Cierra Lamey, Audrey Schurg and Courtney Linder. Other points came from Holly Andersen with 4, Jordan Peterson 3, Alex Rouse 3, Shelby Kluesner 2 and Brandi Lovaas 2.

BEAVERS COME BACK

The Beavers went on a 29-2 run against Stevensville in that final quarter to pull ahead and take the victory 72 - 62 after starting that fourth period behind 60-43. The Dillon team was led by Troy Scott who had a game high of 35 points, and other scorers were Brady Richardson 9, Chance Kluesner 8, and JD Ferris 6, Jason Ferris 3, Nate Simkins 3, and 2 each for Trae Williams, Parker Love, Justin Ferris and Nick Huber.

The Beavs remain undefeated are now 7-0 and 4-0 in conference.

A SIMPLE THING

By Lynn Westad

Why does a simple thing turn out to be much more? Why do some people try to turn a simple list of accomplishments during 12 years of service into a negative? Yes he didn't do it by himself to answer that question but what was listed was accomplished under his administration. It is not an unusual thing to acknowledge achievements when there is a change. It has no bearing on the new mayor.

There was no name on the article but it has been laid at my doorstep so I will respond as there needs to be clarification. In response to "MJ" Marge Jappe, yes we all know getting city work done takes many committee meetings, lots of research, appointed members, staff and elected members working to achieve city work. For example I as many others attended 13 meeting on the new sewer lagoon project and I didn't see Marge Jappe or Chuck Dishno at any of the work meeting on what was our biggest challenge last year. I have only seen Marge Jappe at a few meetings. Marge I think we have had this discussion before, you should consider getting your facts right.

Now I will respond to Mr. Dishno comments in Friday's Dillionite. Your statement of "slobbering" is offensive and unprofessional. I will take my knocks but "slobbering" come on lets stick to facts.

First I have never seen Mr Dishno at a Council or Committee meeting. So Mr Dishno you have no knowledge of what it takes to get city work done or not done except street rumors. The new hospital, IGA, Dairy Queen would not be possible if the City had not prepared ahead. Imagine the needs of a hospital for water & sewer and other infrastructure. With help of a grant which are hard to receive these days the City was able to provide the infrastructure which made a new hospital possible. Without those efforts we would not have a new hospital. Infrastructure was ready for the IGA and the Dairy Queen to build. Also when a business submits a construction plan it can take hours to review so these projects are an asset to the community. Without planning ahead, hard work by the administration, council, committees and staff it would not be possible to be ready to have businesses consider our community for development. Perhaps Mr. Dishno you should broaden your perspective

I have heard and read that we should give the new Mayor a chance. Well we will and we are. Everyone has tried this first week to provide Mike with everything he needs to settle in. If we have fallen short he needs to tell us. The elected council who work for no pay is only interested in serving the community. When the city starts work this year the council will work with the Mayor and all of the administration to try and make good decisions for the community. We will continue to serve as we have done in past and will continue through 2014. Some issues take attendance at many, many meetings and hours at home to read material etc. We all know not everyone will agree with the council's decisions and that is a given but we try to represent and serve our individual wards and the entire community and have Dillon a better place to live and work. So let's stop these petty comments and just move forward and do the work.

STAG NIGHT

The Dillon Elks Lodge will be holding Stag Night on Wednesday, January 15th, hosted by The Staudenmeyer Family with a Baron of Beef Dinner. Cocktails are at 6:00 and Dinner at 7:00 pm. Come in and enjoy a long time family tradition.

SPEECH AND DRAMA

Missoula was the destination that the Beaverhead County High School Speech and Drama team traveled to Saturday, January 11th to compete in the Loyola High School Invitational at the University of Montana. It was the largest meet of the year for the Beavers and the competition was very strong, especially in the speech events with some events having as many as 25 competitors. "This is always a very well run meet with great competition, our kids responded well to the bigger meet and looked forward to seeing different competition." "We had not been to a meet with four rounds and finals, which makes for a long day, but it was a great tune up to prep us for the divisional tournament in 2 weeks.

Carmen de los Rios had an excellent day, with very strong preliminary round scores, she competed in serious solo which had 22 entries. She advanced to the final round and finished in sixth place for her efforts.

Freshman Maggie Magee, had an excellent day, she was tied for 2nd place in humorous oral interpretation prior to the final round and after a very tough final round emerged in 7th place. "Maggie did so well today, it was very fun to see her have such a great day!" Cameron Freebury continued to be a strong competitor in this humorous oral interpretation event and he was tied with Maggie as they entered the final round. Finley Andrew as competed in HOI but did not advance to the final round but finished in 10th place out of the field of 25.

Elizabeth Ostler emerged as the Serious Solo champion, Josey Creger placed second and Abby Thomas placed third for the Beavers, showing that they are finding their groove and will be in top form for the divisional tournament.

Jade D'Espostio and Josey Creger placed third in Serious Duo Acting and Jade D'Esposito and Elizabeth Ostler placed second in Classical Theatre.

Curen Feliciani and Jace Kuntz had their speech and drama debut this weekend in Humorous Duo acting but did not advance to the final round losing a tie breaker, and finished ninth.

Miles Korpi also competed in his first meet of the year in Humorous Solo acting and placed 10th for his efforts.

The drama placed 3rd in this meet, and the speech team 6th. The Beavers will host the Beaverhead County Invitational tournament next Saturday, January 18th. We are still looking for judges.

Letter to the Editor

Charlatan in the Sage

Montana's state plan to protect the Greater Sage-Grouse needs a lot more science and less disingenuous babble from Ray Shaw. Mr. Shaw, a Republican state representative and a counsel member working to draft the Montana plan claims environmental groups want livestock off public land. What environmental groups? He also says "unnamed environmental groups are turning us (Montana) into one great big national park."

Mr. Shaw should read a little history about the Endangered Species Act (ESA). The sage grouse, like the northern spotted owl, is an indicator species, in effect, a canary in the mineshaft. The spotted owl's decline was directly related to industrial strength timber harvest that even some in the industry later called dirty and destructive. Clear cutting down to the river's edge not only destroyed the owl's habitat but also salmon and steelhead fisheries.

The U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service has scientific data indicating fragmentation and alteration of sage bush eco-systems in Montana. The Service has to see a plan that includes a defined, working, regulatory mechanism needed to conserve grouse habitat.

If private land owners who have sage grouse on their land believe the listing of the bird will restrict how they manage their land, it behooves them to submit comments based on a sound biological foundation.

Now is the time for "we the people" to inject our views as to how we want our public lands managed.

Volunteer Fire Department

January 11th at 5:34 am Dillon Volunteer Fire Department was called to a semi on fire on Interstate 15 mile marker 40. It appeared the breaks on the trailer were locked up and started the tires on fire. The trailer was hauling produce and the trailer and produce were destroyed. At 8:03 am we were called back to the accident for smoke in the trailer.

Members gathered Christmas trees in the area.

On Sunday, the 12th, at 9:21 am we were called to the county landfill for smoke. The smoke was from the Christmas tree burn the day before where we had a Montana Department of Environmental Quality permit. At 12:04 pm we were called to a power line down in the alley behind 31 N. Dakota Street and at 12:07 pm notified of wind damage siding across from 334 E. Normal Street, where we removed the siding. At 12:22 pm we were called to an alarm at 76 West Center where an owners manual for a new microwave cooked. At 1:31 pm we were paged to a power line down at 115 S. Atlantic Street. At 2:14 pm we were paged to 76 West Center Street where a resident was stuck in an elevator.

LOOKING FOR JUDGES

Beaverhead County High School will be hosting a Speech, Drama and Debate Invitational on Saturday, January 18th and we are looking for judges. This is an excellent opportunity for people to watch and see excellent competitors from across the state perform speech and drama selections and debate interesting topics. If you are interested in helping with this event please contact Maria Hansen @925-5151 or email threegirlsmom67@yahoo.com.

We will host a judges clinic on Wed, Jan. 15th in the BCHS Auditorium to train judges who are interested in helping.

Thank You

EASTERN STAR

BUTTE TRAPPER EDUCATION CLASS SET FOR JANUARY 25

A trapper education class is scheduled for Saturday, January 25 at the Montana Fish, Wildlife & Parks Butte Area Office (1820 Meadowlark Lane). The class is free of charge and all are welcome to attend. Pre-registration is required by contacting Vanna Boccadori at 406-494-2082.

The class will be held from 8:30 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. with an hour break for lunch. The class is open to people of all ages who are interested in learning about trapping and is sponsored by the Montana Trappers Association and Montana Fish, Wildlife & Parks.

Topics will include trapping equipment and trap setting, ethics, rules and regulations, furbearer identification, and fur handling. An adult must accompany participants under 12 years of age or those with special needs.

Class participants will receive a certificate of completion, the Montana Trappers Association trapping handbook, and other informational material. However, please be aware this class does not certify participants for Montana's wolf trapping season. All would-be wolf trappers needed to have completed a formal wolf trapping certification class held in the fall.

For more information contact Vanna Boccadori at 406-494-2082 or Fran Buell with the Montana Trappers Association at education@montanatrappers.org.

Beaver Head Hunters Genealogical Society

The Beaver Head Hunters Genealogical Society will hold their Annual Meeting on Tuesday January 21 at 7:00 pm in the Museum Research Room. Since it is the Annual Meeting, there will be reports by various committees and officers. There will also be elections for officers for 2014. Yearly dues of $11 per individual and $16 per family are due and must be paid before being eligible to vote.

After the business, we will open the sealed envelope of individuals genealogy resolutions made last year and share how well we accomplished these goals. As always, the public is invited.
