CITY COUNCIL MEETING cont'ed

By: MJ

Do you know the name of the council member representing you at the city council meetings? What is a council person elected to do? Is it to represent themselves and a couple of their cronies' or is it their responsibility to represent the majority of people in their ward? How many times has your council representative knock on your door and ask you your opinion on a decision they are going to make as a representative of yours at a council meeting?

The members of council that voted against one of or both of Mayor Klakken's appointments to replace City Attorney, Duke Gilbert with James Dolan and replace Ty Cobb with Neal D. Straus were: Cottom, Spehar, Westad, Troedsson, Gore, Shafer, and Achter.

If you are a person that voted for Mayor Klakken the question is; did your council person represent you with their vote at the council meeting January 15, 2014? Was your representative one of those who disallowed the mayor from making appointments that is common procedure when you have a newly elected leader. If you don't know who your council member is call City Hall (683-4245).

COUNCIL SAD CIRCUS

The word on the street from the Dillon citizens is SHAME on the council. Regardless of who you voted for, Mike Klakken was elected Mayor. Like the President, or the Governor, when the head man changes so do some of the people. The man at the top appoints people he thinks he can work with and would do a good job for him. Why shouldn't our new Mayor have the same opportunity. I'm sure the out going mayor appreciates your loyalty, however, that is not who the people voted for. You may disagree with their ways, you may not be on their political side, but why was the vote against the appointments of the new Mayor all decided before the meeting and not discussed at the meeting? The councilmen seem to think the people didn't know what they wanted? Seems to me they wanted a change. Maybe the councilmen will be the next change the people want. Work for the community and make Dillon a better place - not a 3 ring circus. Brenda Womack

THANK YOU

Thank you goes out to the Dillon Volunteer Fire Department and a SPECIAL THANKS to Brandon & Kelly Turney for being there at the fire. The Colemans.

Dillon Volunteer Fire Department

The Dillon Volunteer Fire Department was called to 1630 Webster Lane on Wednesday at 5:39 pm. The report was a shop roof on fire. When we arrived we found the heating system had got hot enough to start the ceiling and roof trusses on fire. We were able to remove the sheet rock and insulation to make sure the fire was out in the attic.

While at this fire we received a report of an alarm at the Dillon Elementary School. We were informed a basket ball hit the alarm handle to set off the alarm, and we were cancelled.

Letter to the Editor

Mary Christopher will give a reading of her new novel, "Memoirs of a Hollywood Eviction Lawyer." The novel, set in Hollywood's culturally diverse social setting of the 1990's is spiced with humor, scams, courtroom drama, with 100 different ways to avoid paying your rent. The main character, Michael Mahoney a divorced father, his adult daughter, and his second wife provide an over-arching story that unites them and makes the novel whole.

The reading, open to the public, free, will be Friday January 24, from 7:00 to 8:00 pm. , at The Art Scene Gallery. The Art Scene is located 35 S. Idaho Street next to Dilmart and the jewelry store. Come and enjoy the fun.

Need more information? Call 683-2860.

Many Thanks

Time on your hands? Do you like to shop? Are you looking for a way to help out? Barrett Hospital Gift Shop is the place for you! Get involved!

The Gift Shop is seeking that special volunteer who will buy the merchandise through our established vendors; maintain an attractive display for sales; and handle the monthly accounts. This is all doable in only a few hours each week! Want more information? Contact Sharon Rice at 683-4831, 925-0962 or Elaine Anderson at 683-5045.

We also have a need for Gift Shop volunteers. You could fill a 3 hour shift each week, or just once or twice a month, or fill-in when you can as a substitute. The merchandise sells itself. Many of our volunteers travel and take a shift when they are in Dillon. Contact Kathy Shafer at 925-1714.

UNITED WAY CLOSE TO REACHING GOAL

United Way of Beaverhead County announces it is within $1,000 of reaching its 2014 Campaign goal of $110,000. Monies are still being accepted through the office. If you haven't donated yet, please consider doing so and helping to achieve goal success. United Way distributes funding to local non-profit organizations within the community following an application and evaluation process.

"We are grateful for the community support for our annual campaign," said Campaign chairwoman Lauren Ellingson Johnson. "Because of the great demand in our community for funding, we chose to increase our 2014 campaign goal to $110,000. We were nervous we wouldn't achieve this goal, but as usual all of Beaverhead County pulled together and we're nearly there. Reaching this goal was another pleasant reminder of how uniquely generous this community can be and we look forward to allocating the funding back to our neighbors in need."

A major donor of the campaign is Barrett's Minerals and its employees. Employees from the company were instrumental in starting the organization in 1988 and the company continually gives over 60% of the yearly campaign goal, as well as provides representation on the board of directors. Other local businesses whose employees contribute significantly include Dillon Elementary & Middle School, Barrett Hospital and Health Care, and Great Harvest Franchising.

The mission of the United Way is to support, educate and promote voluntary nonprofit organizations which provide opportunities for community wide delivery of human services related to current community needs. The United Way of Beaverhead County supports over 40 organizations within Beaverhead County, all related to health and safety, youth, or community enrichment.

For more information, please contact Kelsie Frazier, Executive Director, at 683-4269, or at unitedway@beaverhead.com.
