CITY OF DILLON DEBT:

By: MJ

At the last council meeting there was conversation from council members and audience applauding the ex-mayor and City Treasure (Ty Cobb) for leaving the city in better financial shape then it had been in years. Nobody gave any facts or figures to back up and verify their statements. Why? The city borrowed $18+/- million dollars of which $7+/- today remains in the bank under the helm of Mayor Malesich and Ty Cobb. When one borrows money interest charges are applied thus increasing the debt by the hour. If you are interested ask your council member how much the debt is today.

Why do elected officials find it difficult to put a cap on spending? When taxes, cost of living goes up and take home pay decreases people must learn to do things differently in order to continue paying their electrical bills...

It's wonderful to have paved streets, sewage lagoon, street lights... The question is how much how much can the people afford. Has the time come when elected officials might have to say no or find a more economical way to do business?

LOOKING FOR INFORMATION ON SHOOTING

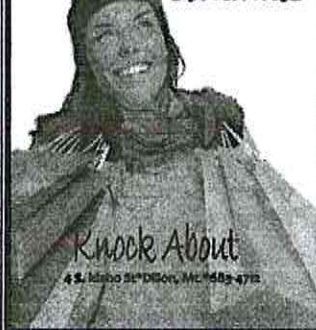

I am asking for anyone who has information on who shot my dog the morning of Monday, January 21st, around 11 am to call. This person stopped on the interstate and shot into a field just north of the Bond Road overpass. Please call 406-202-1510 if you have any information.

The novel, set in Hollywood's culturally diverse social milieu of the 1990's is spiced with humor, scams, courtroom drama. Michael Mahoney, a divorced father, his adult daughter, and his second wife provide an over-arching story that unites them and makes the novel whole. The irony rests in Mahoney who is a compassionate every-

The poem was written by a MARINE CORPS Officer (ANON).

THE BATTLING BOYS OF BENGHAZI

We're the battling boys of Benghazi
No fame, no glory, no paparazzi.
Just a fiery death in a blazing hell.
Defending our country we loved so well.
It wasn't our job, but we answered the call,
fought to the Consulate and scaled the wall.
We pulled twenty Countrymen from the jaws of fate
Led them to safety, and stood at the gate.
Just the two of us, and foes by the score,
But we stood fast to bar the door.
Three calls for reinforcement, but all were denied,
So we fought, and we fought, and we fought 'til we died.
We gave our all for our Uncle Sam,
But Barack Obama didn't give a damn.
Just two dead seals who carried the load
No thanks to us.....we were just "Bumps In The Road".

PRCA implodes...

as reported by Western as Reporter: Thursday, 16 January 2014
Sortin Pen

Top contestants consider creating new organization...

The Las Vegas Review-Journal is reporting that dozens of professional rodeo cowboys are leaving the PRCA (Pro Rodeo Cowboys Association) with the intention of forming their own organization. Sources say the contestants offered a written proposal on December 30 to the PRCA board of directors that would have changed the PRCA structure in exchange for the commitment of the cowboys to provide greater support to PRCA-sanctioned rodeos. The proposal included adding two more cowboy representatives to the PRCA's governing board, which currently has four contestant reps among the nine board members. The PRCA board rejected the proposal, prompting a Facebook post this week by Trevor Brazile, who said: "We went to the PRCA with a proposal supported by the top cowboys that would have strengthened the PRCA. Unfortunately, our proposal was not accepted. We appreciate what the PRCA has done for the sport in the past, but at this point, we feel the time has come for the top contestants to be more directly involved in the future of our sport. We are forming a new organization to work together with committees and sponsors to make sure that the sport of professional rodeo continues to deliver the highest quality product to our great fans."

The Facebook page has already drawn more than 15,000 "likes" -- including major sponsors and nationwide rodeo circuits. The split comes on the heels of the PRCA board voting in mid-December to move the NFR out of Las Vegas to a new location in Florida.

MONTANA WESTERN MEN NO. 18 IN LATEST POLL

The University of Montana Western men's basketball team is ranked No. 18 in the latest NAIA basketball poll.

Montana Western played a tough non-conference schedule that included seven NCAA Division II teams. Playing teams of that caliber helped prepare the Bulldogs for a tough Frontier Conference schedule. After completing their non-conference schedule the UMW men had a record of 7-5. Since the start of conference play the Montana Western men are 4-1. The one conference loss was on the road versus a tough Montana-State Northern team that has proven tough to beat at home with a 9-1 record in Havre.

The UMW team seems to have caught their stride as they have tightened their defense in conference play by allowing five fewer points than they were giving up during the non-conference portion of their schedule. The Bulldogs are holding their opponents to 41.1 percent shooting from the field. One big statistic is that the Bulldogs are averaging over 28 defensive rebounds a game, holding their opponents to one shot a possession.

Key contributors to UMW's success has been seniors Maazin Butler and Jake Owsley. Butler is averaging over 14 points a contest while dishing out over three assists a game. Owsley leads the team in double-doubles with five. Jake is averaging over 14 points and seven rebounds an outing. Jordan Overstreet is averaging 12 points a game and Kris Castro is averaging better than five rebounds.

Key contributions from the bench have helped propel the Bulldogs up the polls as well. Kurtis Parsons has seemingly found his shooting stroke. Parsons has scored 14 and 16 points the last two games. In those games he has shot 65 percent from the field (11/17 FGs) and is making 73 percent (8/11) from behind the arc. Shyke Smalls has made his presence felt since the start of conference play as well. He is shooting 73 percent (16/22) from the field in the five conference games and has had five assists in each of the last two games. Another Bulldog shooting well is Connor Woodill who is making 70 percent of his field goal attempts versus conference opponents.

Steady performances by Kris Castro, who is averaging better than six points a game and over five rebounds a contest, have given the Bulldogs a lift as well. The return of Vince Turk has given Coach Keller another 6' 8" option in the middle.

UMW hits the road again this weekend for their second of three straight weekends playing away from Straugh Gymnasium. The Bulldogs travel to Helena to take on Carroll College on Friday night at 7:30 p.m. On Saturday they tip off in Great Falls at 7:30 p.m.

State Law Library Self Help Center

The State Law Library Self Help addresses unmet legal needs in the community by providing legal information and resources to people choosing to represent themselves in court in civil, non-criminal proceedings. We hope to make the courts more accessible to the residents of Montana, while increasing public knowledge about the law and legal procedures.

The State Law Library Self Help Center can provide referrals to additional resources, review your paperwork for completeness, provide legal information and Montana statutes, and can print legal forms for your needs.

The State Law Library Self Help Center conducts outreach at the Beaverhead County Courthouse in Dillon, MT every other Friday from 12-4pm. For a schedule of the outreach dates you can go to courts.mt.gov/selfhelp & click on the 5th Judicial District.

Our services are free of charge to all Montanans regardless of income.

I am asking for anyone who has information on who shot my dog the morning of Monday, January 21st, around 11 a.m. This person stopped on the interstate and shot into a field just north of the Bond Road overpass.

Please call 406-202-1510 if you have any information.
