Robert H. Briggs Sr. (Hugh) - 82

Robert Hugh Briggs, Sr. (Hugh) died on January 24, 2014 in Dillon, Montana. The son of John William and Florence Emma Mayer Briggs, he was born in McKinnon, Wyoming on August 16, 1931. Hugh had three older brothers, Harold, Dick and Jack. His childhood was wonderful as the tag-a-long, helping his parents, his brothers and their spouses work the Wyoming ranch. Hugh graduated from Ogden High School in 1949. There are such great stories of the Wyoming days and the fun that was part of this family.

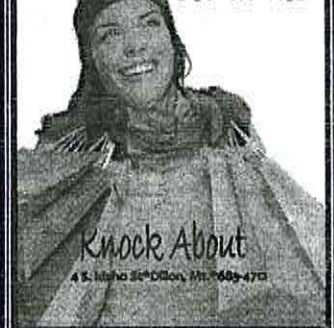

After graduating, Hugh joined his family in Montana where they had just purchased the old Henry Thompson place at Kidd. He married his high school sweetheart, Barbara Beede, in the LDS Manti Temple on September 8, 1950. Hugh described the next thirty years as the best time of his life. The Briggs family built a wonderful ranch, enlivened the community, and together raised 17 cousins. Hugh was a tenacious businessman and skilled craftsman and mechanic. He could fix anything. He shared his talents with anyone in need. He was the Branch President of the Lima LDS church for thirteen years and was instrumental in the construction of the current church facility. Hugh enjoyed working, visiting, square dancing, hunting, flying, and machinery of all types. He often shared stories of the ranch days and the adventures and fun in that most beautiful place!

After the ranch was sold in 1979, Hugh and Barbara moved to Dillon where Hugh worked in the construction business with his brother Harold and then started a trucking business with his son, John. He continued to fix anything for anyone throughout the county and enjoyed traveling with Barbara. The grandchildren will always tell stories of the wonderful times they had over the next twenty years at their grandparent's special home in Dillon and their beautiful land on Flathead Lake. His wife Barbara died January 10, 2000.

Hugh enjoyed the next nine years with his second wife, LaRue Potter, traveling and living in St. George, UT until a change occurred in his health. In 2010 Hugh returned to Dillon. The family gives a special thanks to all the kind friends at Renaissance Senior Care who continued to share and enjoy special stories, fun and smiles with Hugh.

Hugh was preceded in death by his wife Barbara, bothers and sisters-in-laws Harold & Joan Briggs, Dick & Gladys Briggs, Bill Beede; parents John & Florence Briggs, parents in-law David & Dorothy Beede, and niece Valaine Briggs.

He is survived by his children—Bob & Susan Briggs, Dorothy Ann & Kelly Stagg, John & Val Briggs, Doug & Sandy Briggs, Emmalee & Tim Plenger, Grandchildren Anne & Mark Fuller, Loren & Kalin Briggs, Emmalee Briggs, Jack & Erica Stagg, Stephen Stagg, Jeff Stagg, Tyson & Debbie

THANK YOU

A HUGE THANK YOU goes out to everyone who helped me with the 2013 Giving Tree. This year 166 children in 66 families received gifts from the tree. Somewhere in the neighborhood of 350 gifts were bought, wrapped and delivered! Those of you who adopted families, took and filled tags of the tree, gave money or helped with your time - I appreciated your efforts. Together we have made this a program that Beaverhead county can be proud of. thank you so much. Gail Kuntz

Letter to the Editor

In many elections around the country, when the incumbent is voted out, their appointees, as a courtesy, offer a letter of resignation. The newly elected can accept or reject the offer.

The appointees should have been aware that the duration of appointment coincided with the duration of the appointer's time in office. They should have known that the job was not a career job. The honorable thing for the exincumbent's appointees to do would be the submission of a letter of resignation.

CARROLL COMES BACK OVER WESTERN WOMEN

Carroll made a come back after being behind by 14 points to win over the Western women 54-51. Carroll was not on their game in the first 20 minutes and Western defense kept them from getting anything going. The Bulldogs were up 30-19 at halftime but the Saints finally got their first lead of the game with just over 2 minutes left on the clock.

Roxy Thurman led the Bulldogs with 16 points and Jenna Banks put in 10 of her own to help the team but Carroll's defense held Sammi Bignell to just 8 points before she fouled out.

Western had only a 54% shooting from the strip for the night and the Saints had the rebound advantage with 32 compared to Western's 29 in the game.

WESTERN MEN SNEAK BY CARROLL

It was a game that seemed like the Bulldogs could miss and Carroll's shots wouldn't go in.

Western took the win 64-51 behind the scoring efforts of Jake Owsley with 19 points and Jordan Overstreet with 18 off the bench. Western has just been hot at the end of the games lately and coming up with some big conference wins. They are now in first place in Frontier conference with a record of 12-6, 5-2.

Western shot 45 percent form the field and had pounded down more than half of their 3-pointers. Maazin Butler had a great timed 3 pointer that put the Bulldogs back in the lead and they stayed there.

Talking about pulling away late in the game Western's Coach Keller said "We've been finding ways to do that lately."

DILLON GRAPPLERS COMPETE

The Beavers came up with a couple wins at the Class A wrestling duals the first day in Lewistown.

The Dillon matmen getting pins were Patrick Griffin 152 lbs, Cody Zimmerman at 160 lbs. They won 48-37 over Fergus County and they were defeated by Laurel 43-37. Griffin got another pin against Laurel and Kahltin Starkel 106, Austin Olsen 145 and Donovan Hucke 285 all had pins of their own. Dillon also defeated Butte Central 66-9 with most of the matches won by forfeit.

Saturday the Dillon boys came up with another win and were one point away from a double victory when they fell to Hardin 43-42. The Beavers did defeat Miles city 66-12.

Beavers with a couple pair of pins were Sam Peterson 113, Mic Weatherbe 220, and heavyweight Donovan Hucke while those with a single pin were Kohltin Starkel 106, Kwin Stoddard 120, Bridger Nelson 126, Austin Olsen 145, Patrick Griffin 152, Cody Zimmerman 160, Phil Vial 182, and Parker Tezak 195.

Havre defeated Belgrade 55-25 for the weekend title and Corvallis rolled over Laurel 66-21 for third place.

DILLON BOYS STOMPED BY AA CAPITAL

The AA Capital boys made their win over the Beaver look relatively easy. Kyle Nickol had a career high with 26 points in the game as Dillon went down hard 61 to 46 Saturday afternoon. Both teams were top ranked teams in the state in their divisions.

Capital got good penetration into the paint and then passed it out to an open shooter and beat Dillon from the outside.

The game was tied up at the end of the first quarter by a 3 point shot by Justin Ferris from close to the center of the court as the buzzer went off. Troy Scout hit a 3 pointer with just over three minutes in the first half to put Dillon ahead 20-18 but that the last basket for that half.

Dillon got within 5 points at one time early in the 4th quarter. Beavers were led by Troy Scott with 21 points and other scoring came from Chance Kluesner with 3, Trae Williams 10, JD Ferris 3, Justin Ferris 5, and Tanner Haverfield with 4.

Bras for the Cause 2014

In Conjunction with the Pink Zone Wine Tasting

Would You Like to Contribute a Bra for the Cause?

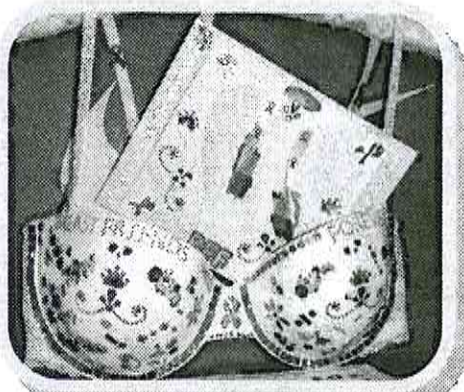

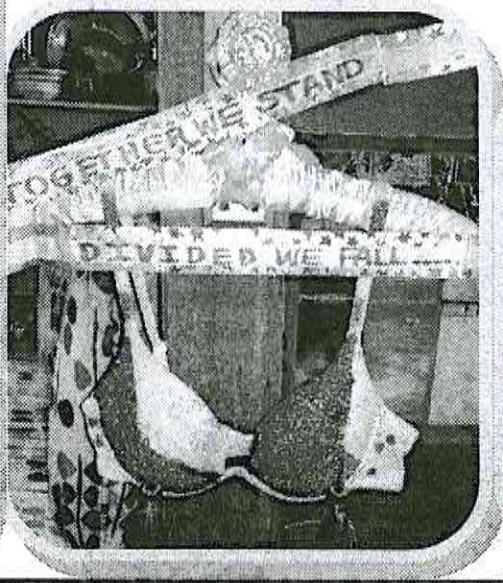

Bras will be voted on at the Pink Zone Wine Tasting, and the Top 10 voted-on bras will be live-auctioned. The others will be silent-auctioned. Bring your $1 bills to vote on your favorite bras!

All proceeds stay local, benefiting the Southwestern Montana Mammography Program.

The Wine Tasting will be Saturday, February 1, 2014 from 6:30—8:30 PM at the Beaverhead Golf Course.

Bras are due by Wednesday, January 29th and will be displayed around downtown for 2 days prior to the Wine Tasting for the public to vote.
