Montana Cowboy Hall of Fame & Western Heritage Center Charles Hahnkamp

Charlie Hahnkamp, Melrose resident, will be inducted into the Montana Heritage Cowboy Hall of Fame in Great Falls on Sat., Feb. 1, 2014.

Charlie has lived, worked, and " cowboyed" in this area since the 1950s.

2013 Living Inductee District 12

Charles Hahnkamp, born in the 1930's, began life in Turner, Montana. His father was a school teacher of the rural Montana pioneer era. His mother was a pioneer woman who was born during the era of the Wright Brothers and who remembered gathering buffalo chips to heat their dwelling.

Through various government jobs that his father had, Charles moved around the state. One job was with Franklin D. Roosevelt's New Deal program with the Civilian Conservation Corps, started during the great depression, which resulted in a move to Great Falls. At an early age, Charles began work in the stockyards where he developed many skills with cattle and horses and also picked up the nickname "Neckyoke" for the black scarf that was continually around his neck.

Charles migrated with his family to the Broadus area of Eastern Montana. There he became friends and was somewhat adopted by a pioneer ranching family that took him in and raised him on their ranch.

While in Eastern Montana Charles was involved in cattle drives from Belle Fourche, South Dakota to Billings, Montana and worked for the original Diamond Ring Ranch owners, the Scott Ranch and Benny Binion.

Charles began as a pickup man at local rodeos and the Miles City Bucking Horse Sale with Walt Secrest, Ann Secrest and Bud Pauley. His pickup man career would span 40 years and along the way included other pickup men such as Sam McDowell, Mel McDowell, Kenny Carpenter, Denny Dreyer, Dick Lyman, Ed Soloman, Gary Rempel, Jay Hogan, Tom Harmon, Bob Kunesh, Jay Hahnkamp, Kenny Claybaugh and Lewis Field of whom many began their career with Charles and then went onto work at the National Finals.

Charles picked up for thousands of bareback, saddle bronc and bull riders as well as dragging stock back to pens which resulted in a multitude of serious injuries including broken bones and concussions, not one of which he ever entered a hospital or rode in an ambulance. Injuries were something to be attended to once the cowboys his horses were taken care of. One incident occurred while he was dallied to a bucking horse in which his saddle horn came apart while the cowboy was still aboard. Instead of letting go of the bronc rein he kept a hold until the rider was off and safely to the ground resulting in a separated bicep muscle for Charles. A week later he went to a Doctor but unfortunately it was too late to fix.

In 1959 Charles moved to Dillon with his wife Joyce and new born son Lee. He began ranching and "cowboying" in the area and has been located there ever since. While in the Beaverhead Valley he received many awards and accolades including the Jefferson Award for Weed Control and Montana Stockgrowers Stockman of the Year.

In the 70's at a Labor Day Rodeo in Dillon a bull had jumped over the arena fence where, as many times before, Charles roped the bull drug him back into the arena. PRCA Stock Contractor Reg Kessler was there and asked him if he wanted a job and 40 years later was still working for Kessler Rodeo. Some duties have changed over the years from picking up and supplying roping cattle to working the timed event chutes. Charles and Joyce have hauled cattle for Kessler Rodeo, Sankey Rodeo, Barnes Rodeo, Powder River Rodeo, Cotton Rosser, Jacobs Rodeo and others.

Charles has been involved in Rodeo and Ranching for 70 plus years and has spent a great deal of his life donating cattle and picking up at High School and College Rodeo programs.

Along with Billy Garrison and Clark Kenney he was instrumental in getting lights in the Harry Andrus Arena in Dillon increasing the chances for Dillon to get a shot at bidding the State High School Rodeo Finals – which they did.

Having donated cattle and services to the Western Montana College Rodeo Club for many years, Charles was entered into their hall of fame numerous times by WMC Rodeo Coach Olie Else.

Charles Hahnkamp has been fortunate to live as a Montana cowboy.

BULLDOG OFFENSE UNDER NEW LEADERSHIP

The University of Montana Western head football coach B.J. Robertson has found his offensive coordinator for 2014. Coach Robertson has announced the hiring of Bruce Carpenter from Winona, Minn.

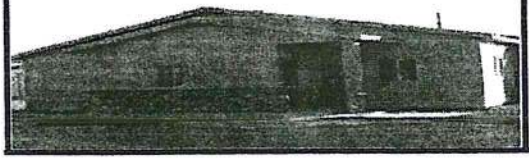

For the past three seasons Coach Carpenter has been the head coach at Cotter Schools in Winona. He has spent that time providing leadership for grades 7-12. While at Cotter Schools he taught physical education and was the Dean of Student Life.

Prior to becoming Cotter's head coach Carpenter spent his first seven years as a coach at Winona State University. He began his career as a graduate assistant in 2003. During his time at Winona State the Warriors won four Northern Sun Intercollegiate Conference (NSIC) titles. The Warriors offense has led the NSIC in passing efficiency, scoring offense, and total offense three times while coached by Carpenter. In addition the offense has also led the NSIC twice in pass offense. He has coached ten players who have earned All-American honors and 51 all-conference honorees in his seven years with the Warriors.

As a player for Winona State he helped lead the Warriors to their first ever NCAA playoffs appearance in 2001. In 2002 he finished the season ranked first in passing average per game. For his career he threw for 4,436 yards to rank him eighth all-time in the NSIC. Along with being named a team captain he received all-region, all-district, and NSIC all-academic honors.

Carpenter graduated from Winona State with a degree in art education in 2003. He completed his Master's degree in educational leadership from Winona State in 2006. He and his wife Jenny have two children, son Maize (5) and daughter Audrey (2.5).

Letter to the Editor

The clearest presentation I have seen in quite some time.

Social Security check
JUST REALIZED THAT WITH
REQUIRED AUTO DEPOSIT,
I NEVER GET TO SEE THE CHECK ....

SOCIAL SECURITY becomes FEDERAL BENEFIT CHECK

Have you noticed, the Social Security check is now referred to as a "Federal Benefit Payment"? The government is now referring to our Social Security checks as a Federal Benefit Payment.

This isn't a benefit. It is earned income! Not only did we all contribute to Social Security but our employers did too. It totaled 15% of our income before taxes. If you averaged $30K per year over your working life, that's close to $180,000 Invested in Social Security. If you calculate the future value of your monthly investment in social security( $375/month, including both your and your employers contributions) at a meager 1% Interest rate compounded monthly, after 40 years of working you'd have more than $1.3+ million dollars saved!

This is your personal investment. Upon retirement, if you took out only 3% per year , you'd receive $39,318 per year, or $3,277 per month. That's almost three times more than today's average Social Security benefit of $1,230 per month, according to the Social Security Administration.
(Google it - its a fact).

And your retirement fund would last more than 33 years (until you're 98 if you retire at age 65)! I can only imagine how much better most average-income people could live in retirement if our government had just invested our money in low-risk interest-earning accounts. Instead, the folks in Washington pulled off a bigger Ponzi scheme than Bernie Madoff ever did. They took our money and used it elsewhere. They forgot (Knew) that it was OUR money they were taking. They didn't have a referendum to ask us if we wanted to lend the money to them. And they didn't pay interest on the debt they assumed.

And recently,they've told us that the money won't support us for very much longer. But is it our fault they misused our investments?
