Josey Creger is the 2014 Class A State Champion in Serious Solo acting

Josey Creger used her strong preliminary scores to propel her into the semi final and final rounds to emerge as this year's Serious Solo champion, to cap off her excellent season at the state meet in Hamilton, Montana, January 31st and February 1st. What made the award ceremony even more exciting for Creger and the Dillon team was that teammates Abbey Thomas placed second and Elizabeth Ostler third, a very rare occurrence in Speech, Drama and Debate.

"It has been a very crazy couple of weeks for our team, I am so proud of these girls and think each and every one of them are exceptional young ladies, and will go far in life" Coach Hansen.

"It was so exciting to watch them as they awaited their awards and to watch their faces as the placement was announced and they realized that they were the top three finishers."

Carmen de los Rios advanced to the final round in Serious Oral Interpretation and finished in the seventh spot. "Carmen had an excellent weekend and did extremely well against very tough competition. Columbia Falls always has strong competitors in this event". Karissa Chouinard from Hamilton (granddaughter of Fred Chouinard) emerged as the champion.

Freshman Maggie Magee fell just a little short in her goal to make it to the final round in Humorous Solo acting, her solid preliminary scores advanced her to the semi final round but she failed to break into finals. She finished in the 9th spot. "I am so proud of Maggie, she did so well, I am excited to see what the next three years will bring."

Finley Andrew also did very well competing at her first state tournament as a freshman, she was a semi-finalist and had an excellent meet. She did not advance to the final round and concluded her competition with a 11th place finish.

Seniors Jace Kuntz and Curen Felicini had a tough weekend, they unfortunately failed to advance to the semi-final round just barely missing the cut and finished the meet in 17th.

The Drama team placed 5th, Corvallis was the Class A Drama Champion for the 5th straight year.

The Speech team did not place, and Columbia Falls continued their dominance as they claimed their 8th straight title.

CITY HAPPENINGS

By: Lynn Westad

The Finance Committee met Friday 1-31-14 at 1:30. The agenda was to address the Mayor's salary and benefits and the City Judge's salary and benefits. With government there is always a process on how things are handled. So the Finance met to start the process to set these salaries during mid budget.

The Finance Committee reviewed the numbers presented by the Treasurer and a motion was made and passed to make the following recommendation to the Council for adoption. For Mayor Michael L. Klakken's a salary of $37,932.72 annually plus health insurance and retirement. Benefits were not part of the previous budget for Mayor. The city insurance requires a resolution documenting the health benefits for an elected person. The addition of Health insurance costs paid by the city for the Mayor and spouse is an increase to the budget of $10,085.40 annually. Retirement requires $3061.20 paid by the City annually. These changes result in an increase to the current budget of $13,146.60 if adopted by the Council. The resolution for this recommendation will be presented to the Council at the next regular Council meeting Wed. Feb 5th. A budget amendment will follow later.

A motion was made and passed to recommend a salary change for the newly appointed Judge Shea Erwin. Salary was adjusted to $32,485.70 as appropriate for the change of her position to City Judge. Prior to appointment as Judge she was an employee of the City as Clerk to the Judge. She did not have health insurance and has continued to decline which results in a reduction set in the budget of $10,085.40 for the previous Judge. She was already enrolled for retirement benefits so that will continue without any change. A budget amendment will follow later.

With both agenda items finished the meeting was adjourned.

HORSEMANSHIP AND COW WORKING CLINIC

Joe Wolter is coming to LaCense Montana here in Dillon on February 7th and 8th to hold a horsemanship and cow working clinic for the Natural Horsemanship program at The University of Montana Western. Joe and his wife Jimmie conduct ranch roping, horsemanship, cow working, and colt starting clinics across the United States and other countries. They divide their time between Texas in the winter and eastern Montana during the summer.

Joe has worked for the legendary Ray Hunt and has spent a lot of his learning about roping and horses with Tom and Bill Dorrance. Also Joe worked for the Four Sixes Ranch in Texas starting and and showing their replacement fillies and stallions. He won the inaugural AQHA Versatility Ranch Horse competition in 2002 and has other wins in Ranch Horse and Cutting competition.

The clinic times are the morning class begins at 9am to 12:00pm and a break for lunch and then the afternoon class will begin at 1:30pm to 4:30 pm. The classes are full for the natural horsemanship students but spectating is open to the public both days and the charge is $30 per day. If you have questions about horsemanship or our just enjoy horses this will be a great event to watch and learn. You can contact Eric Hoffmann at 406-925-1499 for any questions.

Prayers for Military Peace Keepers at St. James Episcopal Church:

There will be a service honoring military personnel who have provided a peaceful nation for all of us. They may be active or veterans, at home or abroad. The service will be held at 12 noon on the first Wednesday of every month at St James Episcopal Church (203 E. Glendale). All are welcome; families, friends, military personnel and anyone who would like to thank and pray for all of the Armed Forces of the United States. The service is fairly brief and can fit into most lunch hours. The next service will be held this Wednesday, 2/5/2014. Any questions, call 683-2735. Please join us.

Obama's Double Talk

From the Patriot Post Submitted by Chuck Dishno
Barack Obama repeated this week, "I'm not going to wait for Congress. I could do more with Congress, but I'm not going to not do anything without Congress, not when it's about the basic security and dignity of American workers." That was some classist double talk with a triple negative. And Obama has done more to undermine "the basic security and dignity of American workers" than any president since FDR.

WESTERN MEN HANG ON TO WIN

The Bulldogs were hoping that the win will get the momentum swinging their way as they vie for a playoff spot. Their record improved to 6-4 in the Frontier Conference with the 86-75 win Saturday night at Dickinson State against the Blue Hawks.

Maazin Butler had a game high of 22 points to lead the Bulldogs. Western had several others in double figures and they were Gave Rucker with 14 points, Jordan Overstreet with 12 points and Jake Owsley with 11.

The Bulldogs had a 46-28 lead at halftime and seemed to be on easy street until the Blue Hawks clawed their way up the score board to make a game of it. It was just not enough after their first half of 35 percent shooting from the field to beat the Bulldogs.

WESTERN WOMEN WIN ON THE ROAD

The Western Bulldogs were down by one point at halftime in a game on the road at Dickinson State Saturday night.

The Bulldogs came out and put on a good show take take over the second half and rally for the win 73-60. They improved to 5-5- in Conference and 11-9 overall.

Western was led by Jenna Banks who scored 18 points, McCall Hasquet put up 14 and Roxy Thurman had double figures scoring with 10 more for Montana Western.

The Dickinson State Blue Hawks had a real bad on from the out side with 19 attempts and only one basketball for 3.

Other points came from Bignell with 8, Matthies 5, Callaghan 6, McCloud 9, and Smith 3.
