Free tax service available in Dillon

It's the time of year again when the inevitable process of filing taxes is on the minds of many. It can be an intimidating process, but for many of modest incomes, tax preparation is completely free.

The Volunteer Income Tax Assistance (VITA) program provides free tax services for those who make less than $52,000. A volunteer certified with the Internal Revenue Service is currently taking appointments at High Peaks Federal Credit Union.

This is the credit union's fifth year participating the program and President Tammy Hatfield said she is looking to another successful season.

"Every year it brings us great pleasure to be a sponsor," she said. "It is a wonderful service and is one of the many ways we feel we can help the people of our community. A huge thank you goes out to our volunteers who so graciously volunteer their time to participate in this program. We couldn't do it without them. "

Carin McClain, VITA program manager with Montana Credit Unions for Community Development, said getting the word out about the advantages of filing their taxes is a big part of the mission.

"This means that moderate-to low-income Montanans have access to quality, free tax preparation with community-based organizations they trust," McClain said. "Millions of dollars will be returned to Montana taxpayers and, in turn, the Montana economy."

The credit union is one of 59 locations across Montana working in a collaborative effort. Last year, these sites provided more than 5,500 returns last year in Montana for a total of nearly $5.6 million in federal refunds and more than $2 million in Earned Income Tax Credits.

Procrastination comes easily as tax-time encroaches, but now is the time to gather necessary paperwork and get an appointment scheduled. The VITA sites provide electronic filing and direct deposit so there is no delay in getting a return. To schedule an appointment call the credit union at (406)683-4373.

MONTANA WESTERN CHANCELLOR WILL RETIRE IN AUGUST

University of Montana Western Chancellor Richard Storey has announced he will retire from the institution Aug. 2, 2014.

"Although it is difficult to leave Montana Western, I have thoroughly enjoyed my time here working with outstanding colleagues and community members," Storey said. "I am proud of the progress we have made together in establishing Montana Western as truly vital institution in Montana and across the region."

Storey guided Montana Western through the implementation of Experience One, the university's innovative scheduling program where students take one class at a time. In addition, during his tenure Montana Western's enrollment has increased 34 percent.

University of Montana President Royce Engstrom said plans for hiring his replacement will be announced within the next month. Montana Western is an affiliate institution within the University of Montana system.

Storey came to Montana Western in July 2004 after serving as dean of the college and faculty at Colorado College. He holds a doctorate of philosophy in botany and plant physiology from the University of Oklahoma.

An avid fly fisherman, Storey and his family expect to stay in southwestern Montana. "We have fallen hard for Dillon and Beaverhead County. We love it here. And there are still a number of trout to be caught," he said.

APPLICANTS SOUGHT FOR NATIONAL FOREST RESOURCE ADVISORY COMMITTEE

Candidates are needed for membership on the Southwest Montana and Tri County Resource Advisory Committees.

Resource advisory committees (RACs) were established to review and recommend projects to be carried out using Title II funding under the Secure Rural Schools and Community Self-Determination Act (Public Law 112-141). Projects are funded that protect, restore, and enhance fish and wildlife habitat; improve the maintenance of existing Forest Service infrastructure; protect and enhance ecosystems on the national forests; and restore and improve land health and water quality. Past projects include maintenance of Forest Service roads, trails and infrastructure; replacement of county bridges; control of noxious and exotic weeds; and reestablishment of native species.

In 2014, it's expected the committee will make recommendations concerning projects in Beaverhead, Madison, Jefferson, Silver Bow, Granite, Powell and Deer Lodge Counties, with an estimated value of over $500,000. The committees are made of up 15 representatives. Without full membership, no recommendations can be made.

"It is critical that we find qualified members to serve on the RAC. Without a full committee, funds that have been committed by the Counties to complete this important work will not get done. I'm seeking candidates that will represent a wide array of interests to help" said Forest Supervisor Melany Glossa.

Beaverhead County Commissioner Tom Rice commented "We urge citizens to consider filling out an application to participate on the Resource Advisory Committee's. This is a great way to learn more about management of public lands and helping to allocate Title II funds to worthy projects that will improve natural resources on our public lands."

The committee has vacancies for members to represent the following interests:

- Developed outdoor recreation, off-highway vehicle users, or commercial recreation
- Energy and mineral development
- Commercial timber industry
- Federal grazing permit holders or land use permit holders within the RAC area
- Nationally, regionally or locally recognized environmental organizations
- Archeological and historical interests

BEAVERS HANDLE CENTRAL WITH EASE

The Dillon Beavers dominated the Butte Central Maroons in last Thursday nights game and took the win 6028 leaving Central wondering what hit them. Half time clock had Dillon with the lead 37-18 with Justin Ferris having 11 of those points and Troy Scott and Trae Williams each with 9. In the third quarter the dillon boys went on a 15-1 run to extend their lead to 52-19. Troy Scott had a powerful game into the lane for scoring and leading the Beavers with 17 points on the night. some of the other points on the boards were from Nate Simkins with 8, Parker Love added 4 points.

The defense was right on from the Beavers full-court defense and half-court defense, they did a great job putting pressure on the ball.

They also do a good job of sharing the ball and getting a good open shot in the field.

City Saga #4 Continues Today

Jan. 10th, Monday @ 1:30 City Hall

By: MJ

It's my way or the highway: I'm right --You're wrong: I decide -- You don't. Watching the city council is like watching kids in the sand box learning how to give, take and communicate. Attend a council meeting and you can watch live, the results and repercussions of not doing either. If you're not able to communicate or give and take you might be the one ending up with sand in your eyes.

Sliding papers from attorneys onto the table without communication, attempting to file papers in the district court without due process, might be why the sand gets in your eyes.

You can go to State of Constitution, State statutes or Charter of Dillon and find Articles and Sections that will further your cause if taken out of context. As a reader remembers, when you take information out of context the meaning is distorted. Verbal communication is only one person's opinion and does not necessarily present all facts. Ask for all the information needed to make the final decisions. Do your research and make your own decisions by viewing the actual meeting in progress at -- www.todayindillon.com or attend the following meeting Monday.

Agenda for City Council Judiciary Committee meeting in the City Council Chambers

Monday February 10, 2014 at 1:30 P.M

1. Call meeting to order
2. Resolution authorizing attorney assignment on specific cases & reaffirming council's authority of oversight and settlement authority.
3. Public comments on items of significant public interest not on the agenda and within the jurisdiction of the City.
4. Adjourn

CHARITY STRIPE GETS THE WIN FOR THE BEAVERS

The defense was tough on both sides ad the Dillon girls took on the Butte Central Maroons on the road in a conference match Thursday night.

The Beavers hit six free throws in the last minute to seal the win. The offense heated late in the first half and went into intermission ahead 23-18. Going into the fourth quarter the teams were tied at 33.

Cierra Lamey led Dillon scorers with 16 points, Alex Rouse added 11 through the cylinder, Courtney Linder added 5, Jordan Peterson another 5 while Audrey Schurg finished with 7.
