City Saga #5 Judiciary Committee

By: MJ

Question: Is the open meeting law being complied with by the city council? You decide after reading the following letter that seven (7) city council members signed dated Feb.6, 2014, addressing the law suit; City of Dillon v. George C. Warner, Cause No. DV-12-13638. Judge Tucker has passed final judgment on the Breneke lawsuit and Judge Larson has passed final judgment on the Warner lawsuit with the city winning both cases. Why does the city Council not want to end this case (see second line of the letter)?

Ms. Westad. President of Judiciary Council was asked when the council had a meeting discussing the drafting and signing of the following letter. The public also asked for a copy of the minutes of that meeting. Ms. Westad said; "there was no meeting." No discussion, No meeting yet (7) council members signed the letter? How did this happen?

Montana Open Meetings Law legislates the method by which public meetings are conducted. The law defines meeting as any gathering of a quorum of the members of a public body, including the use of electronic equipment, so as to deliberate and decide on public policy.

Question: In the last two and a half months Mr. Gilbert has received $29,000+/- for services (largely attributed to Breneke, Warner & Jones cases).

Judge Larson
200 West Broadway
Missoula, MT 59725

RE: City of Dillon v. George C. Warner
Cause No. DV-12-13638

Dear Judge Larson:

The City Council of the City of Dillon and the Mayor are at odds about whether the Warner case should be ended. Most of the persons on the City Council have said they do not want it ended. We wish to notify you that the City Council of the City of Dillon has the lawful authority to approve any settlement or dismissals of any actions or lawsuits brought in the name of the City as set out in the following section of the Dillon Municipal Code.

"The council shall be the legislative and policy determining body of the City of Dillon. All powers of the City shall be vested in the city council except as otherwise provided by law or this Charter, and the council shall provide for the exercise thereof and for the performance of all duties and obligations imposed on the city by law." Charter 2.11(1)). Dillon Municipal Code Section 2.08.070.

The Mayor and the City Council do not agree that the Mayor can dismiss or terminate this lawsuit or withdraw the motion pending before the Court. The City Council intends to resist any such effort made by the Mayor. This is a request to the Court that the City Council be provided notice of any attempt by anyone to withdraw the motions or terminate the action and that the City Council be given a reasonable time to respond to any such effort. The City Council further requests that no action be taken in this matter until the City Council has sufficient time to hire outside counsel to appear on behalf of the City as allowed by the following sections of the Dillon Municipal Code.

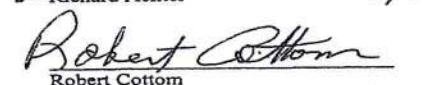

"Dillon Municipal Code Section 2.17.070 Employment of Special or Additional Counsel.
Nothing in this part shall be taken or construed as preventing the City Council from employing in special cases on a contract basis: (1) the City Attorney to perform services not specifically provided for under 2.17.060; or (2) additional or other counsel."

It doesn't take much time to see that although it was stated at the Judiciary meeting yesterday that there was no meeting, no discussion on this letter that on Feb. 6th, regarding the council having all powers of the city and being the determining body of the City of Dillon, that somehow seven council members signed the above letter without discussing it or getting together. How did they know what they were signing or why they were sending a letter to a Judge? Why if the Judge has ruled do they not want it ended? Do you smell fish or is just trash that needs to go out?

Happy Birthday, Pop...

By Chuck Dishno 2/11/14

Today, February 11th, marks the 130th birthday of my beloved old dad. He was born in Gilmore, Idaho on this day in 1884. When he was about 2 years old my grandfather move to the Big Hole and started ranching at what is now the Hirschy home ranch. He eventually had his own ranch but moved to Oregon where I was born in 1934.

My Dad, Ed Dishno, was without a doubt the greatest man I ever knew and even though he has been gone for 55 years, the memories I have of him are just as vivid today as when I was a young boy. I was his only child and our bond started the day I was born. I had two half-brothers, but I was Pop's boy.

I have written many stories about my Pop and the values of life he instilled in me. One of those choice bits of wisdom I will share with you today:

One day when I was just a wee lad, Pop and I were fishing near my hometown, Bly, Oregon. As we were sitting on the bank waiting for that elusive lunger to come along that would grace our dinner table that evening, Pop said, "Chum, whatever you do in life, don't leave your wagon tongue on the ground." I said, "Ok, Pop, but why?" Pop replied, "Because a cow would walk 10 miles just to poop on it." I didn't realize what he meant but promised that I would never do it.

It was several years later that it finally hit me what he meant. He was telling me that whenever you start a job, finish it or else you will end up with cow poop on your hands.

Pop was one to always finish a job once he started it and I'm sure he learned the hard way. He was my hero.

Too many people in today's world start or say they are going to do something but put it off until "tomorrow" and it never gets done. Procrastination is the worst word in the English language.

Happy Birthday, Pop, watch out for those Heavenly cows.

Your "Chum" Chuck

Letter to the Editor

DRIVING DILLON'S SIDE STREETS

Hello, friends. Hello, neighbors. Have you enjoyed driving around our fair city lately? Well, if No, be sure to do so before sun-down. If you've not been out and about, then you may have missed another fun seasonal event, an odds-on cinch to be included in the 2018 Winter Olympiad: Driving Dillon's Side Streets ("DDSS") and Surviving.

As a result of back-to-back snowfalls, the streets are a disaster no longer waiting to happen. They are, in a word, dangerous, representing a clear and present danger to man and beast. Pedestrians and motorists are at risk. The snow has turned to slurry and vehicles are sliding around like demolition derby junkers. Who dares leave their abode, when the first step into the street may result in an unexpected trip to the ER?

Does the thought LIABILITY come to anyone's mind?

Where has the City been . . . this time? Montana and Helena streets appear to have been plowed. Flip a slug as to Atlantic.

Have our Mayors and City Councils (past/present/future) never encountered annual operating planning, budgeting, purchasing, tweaking, execution?

Buy some plows for existing city vehicles. Buy a used truck and plow.

Go here <http://www.tonkaintl.com/search/grader?gclid=CPCG66LHwrwCFcVFMgodojQA6g> and buy a used grader.

Do something proactive; bickering doesn't count.

MARIA GALLEGOS, DIRECTOR OF DILLON'S LITTLE FREE LIBRARY IS THE FEATURED SPEAKER AT DILLON KIWANIS

Maria Gallegos, Director of the Dillon Little Free Library, will be the featured speaker at the Wednesday, Feb. 12 meeting of the Dillon Kiwanis.

Gallegos will speak on the Little Free Library movement and her inspiration to start one in Dillon. The movement began in 2009 with a single library built in the front yard of Hudson, Wis. resident, Tod Bol. He was inspired by his late mother, a teacher, who loved to read. Now, there are over 10,000 registered Little Libraries across the United States.

"It's a 'take a book, return a book' gathering place where neighbors share their favorite literature and stories," Gallegos said. "In its most basic form, a Little Free Library is a box full of books where anyone may stop by and pick up a book (or two) and bring back another book to share." The Kiwanis meet every Wednesday at 12 p.m. at the Dillon Elks Club in downtown Dillon.

The Kiwanis Club of Dillon has been serving our community since 1940.

SW-A WRESTLING DIVISIONALS

The Southwestern A teams met in Butte Saturday to try to earn one of the four berths in each division to go on to State. The state will host the top Class A grapplers Valentines weekend in Billings.

There were a number of Beavers that advanced to the state to try and bring home the top award. Parker Tezak at 195 lbs. had a long hard fight and got the win 9-5. The "Big D" donovan Hucke refused to give up his match in a battle that went to the end with the win coming 7-4 in the heavyweight round. Kohltin Starkel at 106 lbs. had a 8-0 lead then he had a take down with 30 seconds left that his opponent was injured and had to default the match. Phil Vial had a dominating round at 182 lbs then ended with him getting a pin at 3:57.

Coach T.J. Nelson said, "we sent 10 kids out of 12 so I was please."

Fifth-place finishers are still eligible for the state as wild-cards if the 16-wrestler brackets are not filled.
