Stealth Beast Seen About Town

Hello, friends. Hello, neighbors. Did you hear the overnight racket in the CBD (Central Business District)? Old Buck did, and was he ever surprised!

Me in my union suit and old baseball cap,
Had just flopped down for an overnight nap,
When out on the street there arose such a clatter,
I fell outta bed to see what was the matter.
Away to the garage I flew like a lout,
Scoped the window then hied m'self out.
The moon on the crust of three-day-old snow
Flashed like an H-bomb on the flora below,
When, what to my bloodshot eyes should appear,
But a driverless sleigh and not . . . one . . .
damned . . . reindeer.

Nope, neither reindeer nor pixies nor trolls nor local officials were anywhere in sight. Instead, a glance showed a solitary, belching mechanical beast of great size marching along the thoroughfare. Driverless the behemoth was, each of its six giant tires hovering over, but not touching, the street-proper. Only the blade – THE BLADE! – joined with the road, inexorably shoving great heaps of white stuff, sometimes east (to Minneapolis?), sometimes west (Seattle?), north (Melrose?), and south (Lima? Don't say Juarez). Just once did the pilotless monster pass beneath a streetlight, and only then was its identity revealed.

The Jamaican snowplow team had struck again.

Despite the good deed from our Caribbean friends, the majority of Dillon's streets remain unplowed. One wonders why the citizens who live on those venues bother to shovel their sidewalks. Fair's fair, right?

Rumors on the Street

By: MJ

People on the street speaking out about what is happening at the city.

1. There is a lack of integrity with the council. I will not say anything more except I did not vote for Mayor Klakken however if I get another opportunity to vote for him I will. He shows he has integrity and wants to follow the law.
2. State Statutes and Charter of Dillon defines clearly the duties of the council and the mayor. Let's just follow the laws and move on.
3. Mayor Klakken is to smart and needs to back down.
4. The council and mayor need to get on with the operation of city government. The council is the policy determining body. Why are they spending time passing resolutions that the Charter and State laws already delimit?
5. Mayor Klakken, as I understand has already said he will have nothing to say about the Breneke or Warner law suits. My question is: how much money will the city of Dillon collect if they win the law suit? How much will it cost the city to prosecute?
6. How can (7) council person sign a letter and not have a meeting. Do they think the people are complete idiots?

GREAT ADJUSTMENTS TO WIN

The Western women made great adjustments to pull out their 5th straight Big "W" at home Saturday night against the Blue Hawks.

The Bulldogs are (13-9, 7-5 in Frontier Conference) after coming back from a poor first half with shooting just 1 of 14 on 3 pointers.

Sammi Bignell had the game high 22 points helping her team come back from a shot fall of 14 points to win 69-67. Rosie O'Brien came off the bench to assist with three 3 pointers through the nets. Jenna Banks had 12 points, 10 from the free throw line.

GREAT BOUNCE BACK

The Bulldog men's basketball team had a great bounce back game Saturday night at home against Dickinson State. They were shooting free throws much better then they have in the past.

Jake Owsley came at them and ended with 21 points for the night and 6 rebounds to lead the Western team (14-9, 7-5) to a win 91-68 behind a 49% shooting from the field. They made 35 of 42 free throws to help with the victory. Maazin Butler put up 14 points and three assists, Tyler Miller added another 11 for the night and Jordan Overstreet ended with 10. Western was up by 10 at the break 43-33.

MONTANA COWBOY HALL OF FAME

Two livestock barons with ties to Beaverhead County were inducted into the Montana Cowboy Hall of Fame in Great Falls. The two men from the P&O Ranch in Dillon were Philip H. Poindexter and William C. Orr who were partners for almost 50 years. The P&O was made up of more than 30,000 acres.

Mr. Poindexter went to California in the gold rush of 1852 from Virginia. He started a butcher shop and was buying and selling cattle in connection with William Orr. The Poindexter and Orr Co. was formed in California and they registered as the first cattle brand in California. Later the Square and Compass was the first brand registered in Montana as well. Mr. Orr made a trip to Bannack looking for grazing land when free ranges closed in California in 1864. He was very impressed with Beaverhead County. They sold out in California and headed to Montana. They wintered their herd in the Beaverhead Valley and decided to become Montana ranchers. The city of Dillon is on what were Poindexter and Orr holdings.

Poindexter represented Beaverhead County for one term in the territorial Legislature in Virginia City as a Democrat. He passed way in 1911 in Dillon and Mr. Orr died in 1901.

Letter to Representative Steve Daines
From: LaVon D. Brillhart

Dear Representative Daines:

I see your ad on television every day asking that we call you and thank you for not wanting affordable health care for America. You have a good health care plan and you have a good paying job. But you say affordable health care is too expensive. There are many things in this country that are too expensive. Let me remind you of just a very few!!

1. The military budget is $1.2 million spent every minute. Yes every minute. But we cannot afford health care for the middle class and the working poor.
2. We spent a trillion dollars on two unneeded, unnecessary illegal wars. But we cannot afford health care for the middle class and the working poor.
3. We give foreign aid to countries that don't even like us at the sum of $24 billion dollars a year.
4. Last year we gave away $14 billion dollars in military aid to countries so they could kill each other.
5. The U.S. Government gives some $180 billion dollars each year on corporate tax breaks. Why don't you care about that?
6. The big oil companies are given billions of dollars of tax breaks, make billions of dollars, then raise the cost of oil and gas. You don't see to care about this!!
7. The U.S. Government lost $171 million to sugar companies that did not pay back money they had borrowed from the U.S. Government. You did not care about that.
8. The U.S. Government gave subsidies to millionaires to buy resort homes and property. The U.S. Government lost $500 million dollars in lost claims. But the middle class can't have affordable health care.

Mr. Daines, this is just the tip of the iceberg of money that is spent that could be cut. But you don't seem to care about the middle class and the working poor. The Republicans have had over 100 years to have a health care plan for the citizens of this country but they have never cared about the middle class or the working poor.

You say that affordable health care is too expensive, but you voted to shut down the Government that cost thousands of jobs and billions of dollars. You think that was good?

Just about every week in this little town of Dillon we have a benefit to help pay medical bills that the middle class and the working poor cannot afford.

We need a Representative who cares about all the people not just the rich and big corporations.

Best wishes for a better and caring America.

Sincerely;
LaVon D. Brillhart
