Zana Ankeny, 74

Zana Ankeny, 74, passed out of this life and into the light of heaven on Thursday, February 13, 2014, in Denver, Colorado.

Zana was born in Butte, Montana on March 25, 1939. She was the sixth and youngest child of Harry and Wasylyna Mular. She loved acting and dancing and was very artistic. She attended Washington grade school and graduated from Butte High in 1957. She headed to Chicago to nursing school and soon found out the big city was not for her. She returned home to Montana and attended Western Montana College in Dillon where she received her education degree. It was at Western that Zana met the love of her life, Claude "Skip"

Ankeny. They soon married and began their teaching careers. Zana was a Physical Education teacher at Bagley School and Parkview Junior High before starting a family. When the girls arrived, Zana spent her days at home with her daughters. She was active in the PTA, taught church school and led a troop of Brownies. She was very involved with her daughters. They learned to read and sew before kindergarten. She taught them to love all animals, big and small. She doted on her daughters shuttling them to and from dance classes and music lessons, ski hills and tennis matches. Zana was the manager of the Dillon Federal Credit Union for 10 years before retiring in 1987. Retirement did not suit her and she finished out her working years as a bookkeeper for Cenex.

Family was always Zana's greatest joy. She was a wonderful wife to Skip for 54 years, a loving and dedicated mom to her two daughters, and an adoring Nana to her grandkids. She was so very proud of her grandchildren and was every bit the boasting Nana who delighted in telling anyone who would listen how very special they were to her. Her house was always spotless and Zana was blessed with boundless energy. Zana's neighbors on Parkview Court were her extended family and she loved and cared for each of them through her life.

Zana was preceded in death by her parents; her husband, Skip; her sister and best friend, Helen Fischer; and two brothers, Bill Mular and Jim Mular. She is survived by her daughters, Sue Ankeny and Julie Morstein; her son-in-law Todd Morstein; her grandchildren Grayson and Greer Morstein; her brothers, Andy Mular and Harry Mular; and many nieces and nephews.

The family would like to thank Dr. Nicholls, Dr. Singh, Dr. Oser, the whole St. James ER crew, St. James 5th floor staff and radiology. Thank you also to the University of Colorado Hospital, and a very special thanks to The Denver Hospice, you are all angels.

At Zana's request, no funeral is planned. A memorial gathering for family and friends will be held at Brundage Funeral Home in Dillon, Saturday February 22nd from 2-4pm. In lieu of flowers, the family suggests donations to the Beaverhead County Humane Society or the Dillon Food Bank. A guestbook is available on-line at www.brundage-funeralhome.com

2013 Outstanding Woman and Outstanding
Young Woman awards tonight

Each year the Dillon Jaycee Auxiliary presents two awards to deserving women in the community. These awards are the "Outstanding Woman of the Year" and "Outstanding Young Woman of the Year."

The awards ceremony will be held TONIGHT at Beaverhead Golf Course at 6:30 p.m. Light food and a no-host bar will be available. Everyone is invited.

Very deserving ladies have been nominated for the award of 2013 Outstanding Woman. They are Dorothy DeHart, Janey Eudaily, and Jean Bergeson. Nominated for 2013 Outstanding Young Woman are Ashly Cottom and Robin Ellis.

GIRLS ICE HOCKEY PLAY FOR NATIONAL TOURNAMENT

The Team Wyoming 19U Girls Ice Hockey Team played in the Northern Plains District Play In Tournament against the Montana Big Sky team on Saturday, February 15, in Butte. The series was scheduled as a best of three games to qualify to attend the USA Hockey National Tier II Tournament in Amherst, New York, April 2-6, 2014. Team Wyoming beat Montana in just two games to become the Northern Plains District representative for the National Tournament. The annual National Tier II tournament started in 2010 and invites only 12 teams from all over the United States. Team Wyoming 19U Girls are returning for their third trip to the National Tier II Tournament (2010, 2012 and 2014). For the 2013-14 season, Team Wyoming's record was 14 wins, 4 losses and 3 ties. Team Wyoming out scored their opponents 71 to 38 goals and out shot their opponents 616 to 382 shots. Team Wyoming players range in age from 14 to 18 years old. This year's team has 9 seniors, 4 juniors, 3 sophomores and 4 freshman. (Player Conner Coleman and Kathy Coleman, team manager, are former residents of Dillon.)

The first game began on Saturday morning. Wyoming came out strong in the first period with two goals: Callie Andrew assisted by Bailey Coons and Jenni Johnson assisted by Kelsey Cross. Montana came back in the second period with two goals to even the score 2 to 2. After an intermission, Montana scored two quick goals at 14:05 and 13:39 in the third period. Then at 10:30, Lindsay Sullivan scored with an assist from Aubrey Larsen. Montana again scored at 3:39. But Wyoming's Morgan Praska answered with a goal at 3:37. Morgan's goal was assisted by Kirsi Anselmi-Stith. Wyoming was still down 4 to 5 when Wyoming's Jenni Johnson (assisted by Lindsay Sullivan) scored with 12 seconds on the clock to tie the game 5 to 5. The game went into a 10 minute overtime. At 8:32, Aubrey Larsen received a pass from Lindsay Sullivan and shot on net for the game winning goal to win 6-5. Wyoming Goalie Maloree Hansen chalked up the win.

The second game was on Saturday evening. Montana scored at 11:03 in the first period. Wyoming came back in the second period with three goals: one goal by Conner Coleman and two goals by Jenni Johnson. In the third period, Montana scored two goals. However, Jenni Johnson scored the game winning goal for Wyoming for a final score of Team Wyoming 4 and Montana 3. Kelsey Cross and Sierra Alarid assisted the goals of the game with a play maker (3 assists) from Kelsey and two assists from Sierra. Jenni Johnson had a hat trick for the game. Team Wyoming's Hannah Pooley was the winning goalie.

Team Wyoming 19U players are from 9 different Wyoming hockey associations. The players are as follows: Mollyshae Cadwell and Bailey Coons (Casper); Sierra Alarid, Kinlee Denny and Maloree Hansen (Cheyenne); Natasha Aiken and Kelsey Cross (Cody); Aubrey Larsen, Hannah Pooley and Morgan Praska (Douglas); Callie Andrew, Desiree Downey, Bree Johnson, Jenni Johnson and Lindsay Sullivan (Gillette); Lexi Forsyth (Jackson); Abigail Ennis (Pinedale); Kirsi Anselmi-Stith and Conner Coleman (Rock Springs); and Molly Mann (Sheridan). Team Wyoming 19U is coached by Titia Leisz and Mike Leisz (Casper). Kathy Coleman (Rock Springs) is the Team Manager.

Letter to the Editor

George Fryett

The following was written to my brother and sister many years ago. In rereading it, I think is worth sharing with others.
 by George Fryett a fourth generation Helena, Montana boy.

27 October 1961

Dear Mike and Melissa;

To be born in America is really something to be thankful for. During the past five years, I have had the privilege and honor to be a member of the US ARMY. During this time I have been to and through many different countries.

For many Americans there is no desire to go out of their own little birthplaces. For them this is their right and privilege.

With the world gaining in its advances with science and knowledge, it is important that we begin to open our eyes and ears to the rest of the world.

Wherever the Americans are does not always mean the things and ways of life are the same. When I was in Korea, I wrote to your Mother and Father and said a few things about the country. Your parents did not believe me. So I have not written anything about the different countries I have been in.

Now is the time for you to start to learn to speak as many different languages as possible. Begin to learn French, Russian, Greek, German, Spanish and any others that you may have the time to learn. With each language your understanding of the things around you become something more than just one day of events and then nothing.

In the newspaper the other day there was an article about a young peace corps girl who wrote home on the back of a post card, that people in the country she was in were (in small words) scum of the world.

In all of the countries of the world and even in America, the people are living, dying, eating, sleeping and defecating in the streets. For the average America who has never been out of his own part of the world that he lives in, it is most difficult for him to see or even hear and believe how the rest of the world is living.

We are out trying to teach the rest of the world how we think it should live. When sometimes in our own backyards, we have the biggest job, which is not being taken care of.

In all of the different countries I have been in, the children in schools have been studying at least two language, besides their own native language. One of my students has a little girl who is 7 years old. She is studying French in school now.

You should begin to read as many different story books about the thing that the rest of the world has been doing and the part that America plays in the general development of the world.

If you will begin to write to me, I will find the time to let you know the different wonderful things that I am able to see.

It has been two months since I heard from your Mother. I did get the bonds in the mail, but that is all. I still would like to know all about my little car, the kind of oil and gas it is using and how much. Where it is getting serviced and the name of the insuring agent, etc. I do not think I ask too much for just these few things.

Until later. Jr

The next meeting of the Beaver Head Hunters Genealogical Society will be Tuesday, February 18 at 7:00 pm in the Museum Research Room. Do you have an heirloom handed down through the family? Or a special gift that an ancestor gave you that you have kept through the years? Do you know a special family story? What can you tell us about your ancestor? Bring an artifact of one of your ancestors and be prepared to share with the rest of us. If you are from a large family and didn't get an heirloom, bring a picture and tell us something special about your ancestor. As always, the public is invited.

PRUNING OF COMMUNITY FOREST

Scott Makoutz, certified arborist and owner of Gallatin Tree Care of Bozeman, was awarded the City of Dillon tree pruning and removal contract for 2014. The contract will be paid for with a combination of funding. The pruning and removal work in the Depot Park will be paid for with funds generated from the Great Harvest Bake Day held last September for the Dillon Tree Board. New trees will be planted at the Depot Park on Arbor Day in late April to replace some of the trees that were removed from the park due to storm damage and poor tree structure.

The pruning and removals at the Mountain View Cemetery, Helena, Poindexter, Washington, Center and Atlantic streets will be paid for from grant funding through the Forest Service and the MT DNRC. The contract is being administered by the City of Dillon and the Dillon Tree Board.

Work has been completed on Center, Poindexter, and Washington Streets and is in progress at the Depot Park where a total of 27 trees will be pruned and 12 will be removed. The purpose of the grant funding is to help small communities promote proper care of their urban forest. Proper pruning improves tree health by increasing vigor and resilience of the tree and also makes trees more aesthetically pleasing. Only certified arborists are permitted to bid on these contracts and they must follow ANSI 300 standards as set forth by the Tree Care Industry Association.

Mr. Makoutz will be working in conjunction with Danny Devers and city employees during the pruning at the cemetery. The goal in the cemetery is to reduce the risk to both visitors and memorial stones by removing dead branches. Anyone wishing to direct memorial funds to the purchase of trees in the cemetery may contact, the Director of Operations, J.S. Turner or a Dillon Tree Board member.

Gallatin Tree Care will also be pruning trees on Atlantic Street in the next few weeks. Flaggers will be out to help direct traffic and prevent potential traffic conflicts. The public is reminded to stay clear of the work that is being performed. Crews are busy and won't always see you when they are working, so please stay at least 60 feet away from all pruning activity.

Gallatin Tree Care will be working in Dillon for the next few weeks. Anyone wishing to have professional tree care work done while their equipment is still here may contact Scott Makoutz at 406-209-1163.

DILLON FIDDLE CONTEST

The Dillon Fiddle Contest was a success this year according to The Dillon Junior Fiddlers. Winning the coveted "Fiddle Family of the Year" award was the Sullivan/Magee Family. Maggie Magee was recognized by her fellow fiddlers as "The Most Inspirational Fiddler". The contest was sponsored by a record number of area businesses this year, making it possible to support more young fiddlers with scholarships to the Montana State Fiddle Camp at Monarch, Montana, and to update a tired sound system.

Shelby Rae Russell of Ammon, Idaho, was this year's Champion, followed by her niece, Grace Christensen of Shelley, Idaho. Ron Kane of Dillon placed third with Amy Kadrmas, Dillon, receiving the 7th place seat in the Championship Division. This division pays 8 places. The General Division Champion was Don Spalding, Bonners Ferry, Idaho, with Jim Mcmillan, Bozeman, and Lori Schreiner, Livingston, in 2nd and third slots, respectively. This Division is made up of those who do not qualify to go on in the Championship Division after the first round for all General/Championship contenders. Top honors in the Junior Division (age 13-18) went to Ashley Dreyer, Spirit Lake, Idaho, with Silvie Johnson, Kalispell, placing second and Daijun Holm, Idaho Falls, in the third position. Grace Partridge, Rigby, Idaho, was the winner of the Junior, Junior Division (age 9-12) with Angelina Johnson, Kalispell and Sophie Stich, Helena, in the second and third seats. The first place Peewee winner (under 9 years old) was awarded to Tarquin Bennion, age 6 of Sidney, Montana, who also was given the "Youngest Fiddler" award. Second place went to Fuzzy Pincon, Livingston, and third place was awarded to Lars Hagborn, Townsend.

Of the 40 contestants signed in to the contest, 12 were from Dillon and the Ruby Valley. Peewee Division entrants, Jasmine Salix, Dillon, August Witham, Twin Bridges, and Daniel Kadrmas, Dillon, placed 6th, 7th and 8th, respectively. Erin Taylor brought in the 8th place Junior, Junior award. 4th and 5th placement in the Junior Division went to Maggie Magee of Dillon and Savanna Stewart of Twin Bridges, respectively, with Finley Andrew, Dillon, 6th, Kia Coon, Dillon, 7th, Isabella Kadrmas, Dillon, 8th and Haley Hansen, Dillon, 9th.

The Talent/Novelty Show Saturday night, announced by Sandy James, featured contest judges, Matt Hartz and Cole Flikkema as well as favorite entertainers, Alice Hanks and Jim McMillan, Shelby Rae Russell and group, Jace Kuntz, and fun acts performed by other local and out-of-area contestants.

CITY OF DILLON Regular City Council Meeting

Wednesday, February 19, 2014

City Chambers

7:00 pm

The attached letter will be addressed at the council pertaining to Petitions and Communications Item #1.

To: Dillon City Council

From: Richard Turner

Montana and federal law currently disallows discrimination on the basis of several criteria including age, marital status, national origin, physical or mental disability, race or color, religion or creed, gender, and political belief or ideas. These laws make it unlawful to discriminate in employment, housing, education, public accommodations, state and local governmental services and employment, credit, and insurance.

Lesbian, gay, bisexual, and transgender (LGBT) residents in Montana, however, face legal challenges not experienced by heterosexual residents. Following the decriminalization of so-called "sodomy" in 2013, same-sex activity is now legal in Montana.

Despite this, discrimination on the basis of sexual orientation remains legal. In Montana, it's currently legal for a private employer to refuse employment to or terminate an LGBT person because of his or her sexual orientation. It's legal for a business to deny him or her a seat at a restaurant or a room in a motel. It's legal for a landlord to refuse to rent a house or apartment to an LGBT person. And if a landlord discovers that his tenant isn't straight, he can legally evict him or her.

Several Montana cities have passed local anti-discrimination ordinances to protect their LGBT residents against these unconscionable cruelties. In Helena and Missoula it's already unlawful to discriminate against LGBT people in housing or employment. Butte and Bozeman are on the verge of passing similar ordinances.

I'm here tonight to ask the Dillon City Council to begin the process of drafting an ordinance to protect LGBT people in our city against the discriminatory actions of private employers, businesses, and landlords. Drafting such an ordinance shouldn't be too difficult since other cities' ordinances are available to use as models.

It's time for us, whatever our private feelings about other-than-heterosexual behavior may be, to recognize that LGBT people are entitled to feel every bit as safe and at home in our community as heterosexuals are.
