BENJAMIN "BENNY" FRANK REYNOLDS

Benjamin Frank Reynolds, 77, died suddenly of an apparent heart attack while loading hay at his ranch in Twin Bridges on Feb. 14, 2014. He was born in Twin Bridges on March 5, 1936, to Frank and Gertrude "Brownie" Reynolds.

He attended schools in Melrose, Butte, and graduated from Beaverhead County High School in 1955.

Benny began his rodeo career at a young age, working every event possible including wild horse races and wild cow milking. He is quoted as saying, "It wasn't that any one event was my favorite. I did them all because I liked them all."

He first gained national recognition when he appeared on the game show "Name that Tune" in 1958. Later that year, he was crowned the Rookie of the Year by the Rodeo Cowboys Association, when he was 5th in the world bareback standings and 3rd in the All-Around.

Benny married Mary Elizabeth Baker from Brownwood, Texas in 1960. They lived in Dillon for 10 years before purchasing a ranch southwest of Twin Bridges. He loved working on his ranch.

Eventually he built an indoor arena where many people, children and adults, learned to ride and rope and hone their rodeo skills. He and his son, Rooster were still hosting and participating in their team roping jackpots.

Benny qualified for the National Finals Rodeo 11 times, competing in the Bareback Riding, Steer Wrestling, and Bull Riding. He was among the top 10 All-Around competitors each year. He was the 1960 NFR Average Bareback Champion, the 1961 World All-Around Champion, and the Reserve All-Around Champion in 1964. Benny won the inaugural Linderman Award in 1966, which is given to the contestant earning the most money in a combination of three or more rough-stock and timed events. He is only one of two Montanans to win the prestigious award to date.

In 1981, Benny became eligible to compete in the National Old Timer's Rodeo Association. He went on to win the All-Around title seven times, along with 13 other titles.

In 1993, Benny was inducted into the Pro Rodeo Hall of Fame in Colorado Springs, Colo. He was inducted into the National Senior Pro Rodeo Hall of Fame in 1996 and the Montana Cowboy Hall of Fame in 2011.

He was preceded in death by his wife, Mary Elizabeth Reynolds; father, Frank Reynolds; mother, Gertrude "Brownie" Smith; stepfather, Don Smith; and brother, Louis Reynolds.

Survivors include brothers/sister, John (Earlene)

Letter to the Editor

I'VE HAD ENOUGH!!

2/18/2014

I am writing this letter in response to the letter of 2/17/13 from MRS. EDITH FLETCHER. I know who you are. What I don't know is who you think you are. Marty and I have done nothing since Mr. Klakken took office that would give you cause to attack us. By your own admission, you are a newcomer to Dillon. How could you, then, have a fair assessment of the last 12 years? To accuse anyone of "working under the table" is very bold of you and I wish you would enlighten me on what you know that I don't know. Do you know Mr. Klakken? Do you know anything about him? I am sure that you don't know my husband and you have not bothered to find out anything about him other than what you and your group have made up.

In response to your comment about Mr. Nye being the only honorable person on the council, I will have you know that all of the council members are persons of good standing in the community. Ask Mr. Nye. He will tell you himself.

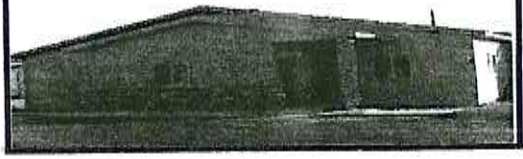

You have learned about the last 12 years of the ex-Mayor. Where did you learn about it? My husband has a long history with Dillon. His family has been here for centuries. He grew up here and played basketball and football for the local school. My husband is a respected person in this community. He has spent many, many hours in public service besides being Mayor. Search and Rescue (Treasurer for 22 years), fire department, Montana Chief Hunter Safety Instructor, Unit Administrator for the local National Guard unit for over 32 years and a retiree of the Montana Army National Guard are only a few. He spent 2 years as the STATE COMMAND SERGEANT MAJOR for the STATE OF MONTANA and retired from that position in good standing in 2001. I don't think he needs your approval. He then ran for Mayor and won by a large margin.

Now, MRS. FLETCHER, I am not an activist either. But if you continue to grand stand like you have been and make unfounded accusations against the former Mayor, you might suffer consequences of a legal nature. If you ask around, Marty and I are not afraid to spend money to defend ourselves. Ask the Recall Rally group. Oh, yes. Mr. Malesich has been through the recall process twice and all accusations were found invalid by the court. The Recall Rally is the same people you are banding with. They put out exactly $0.00 to defend their accusations. The accusations were ridiculous.

So, in making accusations, you may want to keep them confined to those that you know have done something illegal.

Marsha A. Malesich

Letter to the Editor

INTO DILLON:

TWENTY FOUR years ago, I pulled into Dillon to look at a medical job that was being offered here. It must have just snowed the week before; similarly to the one we received this last week. Deep and lots of it. Chinook winds followed that storm 20 plus years ago, leaving the streets lined with black snow and swirling dirt. Not the most inviting WELCOME I had hoped for. However, Ruth Haugland shook my hand and showed me around a town I had never seen before. On leaving Dillon, the town itself did not impress me much back then, but thinking "if the folks living here in Southwest Montana were any thing like that Lady, I'm hooked". And hooked I was, for I made Dillon my permanent home raising my family here starting back in '93.

My gosh, has this town changed into such a beautiful sight! From dust to paved roads, and even two working stop lights, (haven't got used to them quite yet) and beautiful downtown boulevards to boot. Paid for by the sweat from the working, and uniformed folk's brows, forearms, and backs, for without all of us, none of this could have happened. Freedom is not free and everyone coming together has made this town what it is: AWESOME!

Exactly Five years ago, Dillon Medical Clinic opened its doors to serve well over 14,000 patients,...thanks to folks like Ruth, and so many like her, I found in you.

Thank you Dillon, and Southwest Montana, for allowing me the chance to walk beside you to help make Dillon the Best Darn Small Town in America! I have been blessed to be a part of this community and will continue to serve, Lord willing. THANK YOU!

Sincerely yours,
Tery A. Hursh, PA-C.

Letter to the Editor

What makes for worthwhile news?

I had written a birth announcement for our new grandson, Jackson Riley Malesich. It was in last weeks Dillon tribune.

I had also put the birth announcement in the Dillonite Daily. The Dillonite Daily put it in exactly as I had written it. I really appreciated it.

The Dillon Tribune cut it down and left half of it out. It wasn't like it went on and on. It seems like all the news in the Dillon Tribune is about all the bickering going on with the city. What about positive news in Dillon? Isn't it worth being written about?

Local Youth Mentoring Group & McDonald's Team Up

McDonald's Management Team presents fundraising check to YCMP

Youth Connections Mentoring Program (YCMP) benefits greatly from local McDonald's offer to assist with a fundraiser & the generous support of the community! Last Thursday night was "Youth Connections Night" at McDonald's. From 5:00 – 8:00p.m. McDonald's split their proceeds 50/50 with the local youth mentoring program. Board members and high school Lunch Buddies alike showed up in "uniform" and were put to work alongside the employees of McDonald's.

The amazing community of Dillon showed up to show their support for what turned out to be an impressive fundraising event. McDonald's owner Jeff Gorman & management team presented YCMP members with a check for over $900 that will help allow the organization to recruit, screen, and provide additional healthy mentor matches for local youth. Monies raised will also help with group activities for the current matches. For more information on YCMP, or becoming involved as a mentor or enrolling your youth, please call 925-1255 or 925-2409.

RED HAT SOCIETY NEWS

Co-hostesses, Marian Williams and "Pete" Tarleton were very pleased with the run out at Papa T's on valentine's Day Friday, February 14th. They stopped counting after 20 enthusiastic Red hat Belles had arrived.

the tables were appropriately decorated for Valentine's Day with a Valentine at each setting. Two Valentines happened to be special. Eleanor Brush and Darlene Rose were seated at those spots and both received door prizes.

We want to thank the staff of Papa T's for their friendly service and fine food. Of course, we want to thank Marian and "Pete" for a fun afternoon.

CONGRESSIONAL CANDIDATE IN DILLON

Elsie Arntzen is a wife, mother, grandmother, and conservative State Senator from Billings. She was born and raised in Montana and has been a local elementary school teacher for the past twenty-one years. Frustrated with the bureaucracy and gridlock caused by politics as usual, Elsie ran for the Montana legislature to serve as a voice for the people. Her determination and fresh approach to problem-solving quickly established Elsie as a respected Republican leader in both the Montana House and Senate, where she chaired numerous committees, including Ethics and Business & Labor. Elsie is running for Congress to put an end to our federal government's reckless spending, to repeal Obamacare, and to bring innovative, Montana-made solutions to Washington D.C.

The public is invited to a meet and greet over the noon hour with Elsie Arntzen on Friday, February 21st at Papa Ts in Dillon. For more information, call Karli 702.4519

SENIOR COMMODITY FOOD BOXES
