UNIVERSITY OF MONTANA PRESIDENT VISITS DILLON TO BEGIN UMW CHANCELLOR SEARCH

University of Montana president Royce Engstrom will be on the University of Montana Western Campus to start the search process for a new chancellor for UMW on Feb. 26.

The University of Montana Western is an affiliate university of the University of Montana, along with Montana Tech and Helena College.

Engstrom will host community and campus members during two listening sessions to discuss the national chancellor search, which will take place over the next several months. Montana Western Chancellor Richard Storey announced earlier this month that he would retire Aug. 2.

Storey joined Montana Western as chancellor in 2004. During his time at the university, Experience One block scheduling was implemented, and enrollment increased 34 percent.

The listening sessions will be Wednesday, Feb. 26, from 2:30-4 p.m. and 4-5:30 p.m. Both sessions will be in the Great Room located in the Swysgood Technology Center on the Montana Western campus. Light refreshments will be served.

MEDICAL BENEFIT FUND

A Medical Benefit Fund has been set up at State Bank for Cherie Lowe, who is currently undergoing treatment for cancer. Cherie has always been a willing helper for many people and causes and is a former Volunteer of the Year for Bannack State Park. Cherie is also known around Dillon as the "Survey Lady" for performing surveys which collected information used to improve business and tourism opportunities in the state of Montana.

For the last year she and Tom have had to travel almost weekly to Missoula for medical care.

Treating cancer is very difficult and expensive. Please join friends and family in supporting Cherie & Tom Lowe. Donations can be sent to: The Cherie Lowe Medical Benefit Fund at State Bank, 110 S. Idaho, Dillon, MT 59725.

BEAVERS STUNG BY YELLOWJACKETS

The number 1 ranked Beavers were stung in end of the basketball game Friday night in the last home game and senior night for the Beavers. The fourth quarter was the dark part of the game with Stevensville putting up 26 points and Beavers only getting 9 through the hoops. The Beavers put up the shots they just couldn't get them to fall and the defense couldn't get to Stevensville. Troy Scott plowed his way to the basket and made many from outside the circle to lead the team with 32 points but they came up short and ended 59-62.

The Dillon girls dropped their game to Stevensville as well 29-34 on the road. The top scorers for Dillon were Audrey Schurg and Cierra Lamey with just 6 points each while Courtney Linder & Rachel Nye each added 5 for the team.

DILLON OVER CORVALLIS

Both Dillon teams won their games on Saturday over the Corvallis basketball teams.

The girls senior night was Saturday at home and their win 45-30 over the Blue Devils brought them to (11-7, 7-3) for the season.

The Beavers were ahead 14-8 after the first quarter. Cierra Lamey had 12 points to lead Dillon to their second seed position in the Southwestern A field. That 2nd seed gives the Beavers a first round bye on Thursday. The girls will play the winner of the Anaconda-Corvallis game at 8:00 pm on Friday.

The scoring was spread out with Audrey Schurg adding 9, Holly Andersen 8, Courtney Linder and Rachel Nye 6 each and Brandi Lovaas had 4.

Troy Scott again lead the Beavers with a team high 24 points as they steamed past the Blue Devils 64-34 after the lose the night before. Troy had some help from the bench with Tanner Haverfield getting 10 points, Nate Simkins added 8, while Trae Williams had 6, Chance Kluesner 5, JD Ferris 4, Parker Love 3, Justin Ferris 3, and Brady Richardson 1.

The No. 1 seed Dillon has a first round bye also at the tournament this week and will then play the winner of Corvallis-Hamilton at 12:30 pm on Friday at the MAC in Butte.

WESTERN MEN OUT DONE BY LC-STATE

The men's Bulldog team was out done by Lewis-Clark State Saturday 83-67. The Bulldogs are now (16-11, 9-7) for the season and clinched 4th place for the Frontier Conference tournament play starting this week.

The Western Bulldogs were led by Maazin Butler's 23 points for the nights game.

City Saga 7-A

By: MJ

There was a display of aggression following the city council meeting outside on the side walk. Brenda Womack was accosted by a gentleman and his wife. Neither one of the people stood up during the council meeting an expressed their feelings. As the City Saga continues the more name calling disrespectful and condescending remarks are being made at the meetings and on the street.

Brenda asked the council if there was a conflict of interest with some of the council members when it came to the Warner and Brenneke laws suits. She explained why she was asking the question: Council Cottom was Water Sewer Supervisor when the water meters were installed and Councilman Troedsson was a council member with Mr. Brenneke.. She received no answer. She also stated that people had been telling her they were tired of the saga and wanted it to end. She asks a ligament question yet received no answer from council.

There has been a copy of one (1) ordnance circulated (2.17.040) around town. This is being taken out of context to support a person's belief and it does not send the complete truth to the people. There is a City Charter, State Laws and State of Montana Constitution that also speaks of the removal of people from office.

It is human nature to listen to and believe a person you personally like while devaluing another's opinion and character. Respectful people, business owners, retirees, young and old in the local community have attended council meetings; ask intelligent questions hoping to understand where their tax dollars are being spent.

Instead of listening to one person take a leap of faith and talk to Mayor Klakken. His door is always open and if your mind is open you will receive his answers to all your questions. You may or may not agree with him and that is your prerogative. Mayor Klakken recognizes the public right to know and believes following the laws is the only fair way to operate the city business.

ShamRockers Coming to the Dillon Elks March 8

The Montana Sham Rockers are coming to the Dillon Elk's Club for a one-night only St. Patrick's kickoff on Saturday, March 8. Following a social hour beginning at 5 pm, the lads will hit the stage at 6.

This upbeat vocally-driven Irish quintet features an extensive repertoire of traditional and original Irish and Scottish tunes, from toe-tappers to hanky-soakers. They kicked off their current One Decade Down Tour at Seattle's prestigious Northwest Folklife Festival and will culminate with a performance at the Thomas Meagher Center in Waterford Ireland in June. Lively arrangements and spontaneous wit, called by Folk and Acoustic Music Exchange "bogglingly infectious and spirited...a revelation!" have made them popular with audiences of all ages, when the lads opened for the 2012 Irish Music Award winners, the Dublin City Ramblers dubbed their albums "Fantastic!" The Montana ShamRockers can be seen on Youtube.

Tickets for this exciting pre-St. Patrick's Day kickoff are $12 and include hors d'oeuvres and the concert.

Tickets available at the Elks or may be purchased at the door. Please call Linda 683-5552.

The Montana ShamRockers appear through Black Paw Music of Polson, MT.

LADY BULLDOGS TAKE 4TH SEED

The Lady Bulldogs drop one to Lewis-Clark State on the road 59-68 in their final game of the regular season. The Bulldogs finish (14-12, 8-8) and had already secured the 4th place seeding going into the tournament play where they face NSU-Northern, who are the 3rd seed, in the first round.

Jenna Banks had 13 points, McCall Hasquet had four 3-pointers for 12 points, Taylor Kanthack put up 8, Sammi Bignell added 7 along with Roxi Thurman for the Bulldogs. The game got off to rough start for the Bulldogs who were behind 41-18 at halftime.

RUNNING FOR CONGRESS

Elsie Arntzen was in Dillon last week and made a few stops in the community. Elsie was born and raised in Billings by her parents who were both teachers. She and husband Steve, of 37 years, have two daughters and four grandchildren.

Elsie is strong on education being a teacher of elementary school for 21 years. Her degree in economics at the University of Montana along with the degree in education from Montana State University, she believes, helps her understand more of what the common people of Montana want to see our government take care of in Washington.

She has served as a citizen legislator in the Montana House and Montana Senate and fought to make a better Montana as the leader of the Ethics, Business and Labor, and Local Government legislative committees.

"As a mother, grandmother, and educator, I'm worried the country we are handing over to our children is in worse shape than the one we inherited - that's unacceptable. Working together, we can bring a fresh approach and innovative ideas to Washington to achieve great things for our next generation," Elsie said.

Her campaign manager Karli Hill sees Elsie as a new vision for Montana.

Elsie Arntzen had a few things that she would like to work on as a U.S. Representative. The repeal of Obamacare and replace it with a market-based plan. Pass a Balanced Budget Amendment and work to reduce our $17 trillion debt. She thinks we should stop wasteful earmark spending. Promoting sensible natural resource development to create Montana jobs is also a priority for her. Elsie also supports pro-gun, pro-life and pro-business legislation.
