A Dieting Cookie Addict's Plea

By Tom Purcell

We must stop them.

We must stop the millions of Girl Scouts who are, right this moment, preying on a helpless public, making us buy and consume calories we don't need — at the rate of one or two rows of cookies at each sitting.

I am on a diet, you see — not just a low-carb diet, but a low-fat diet, low-calorie diet. I am getting by on only 1,300 or 1,400 calories a day.

That means I can't eat sweets or drink adult beverages or consume pretty much anything that tastes good and makes me happy. I am giving up almost all my vices in one fell swoop — making me one of the least pleasant people you'd want to be around.

The only upside is that this diet is very effective — and it is working. It is monitored by well-educated administrators and coaches. I meet them every Saturday morning for a weigh-in and to discuss any untoward dieting challenges that I faced the prior week.

There is no greater challenge to a dieter than Thin Mints, Samoas, Peanut Butter Patties and, my hands-down favorite, shortbread Trefoils.

Oh, sweet heaven on Earth, I'd give my right arm for the Trefoils recipe — if I didn't need my right arm to dunk the cookies in a mug of ice-cold milk.

Look, I understand that the Girl Scouts organization was founded in 1912 to help girls develop physically, mentally and spiritually.

I know the annual cookie sale has become a tasty part of American culture since it originated in 1917, when one troop held a small bake sale, selling sugar cookies.

I understand that managing cookie sales helps Girl Scouts learn useful sales, accounting and other business skills — and that it raises some $700 million dollars yearly, funding many worthwhile Girl Scout activities.

But it's still time to stop this outmoded cookie sale — for my sake and the sake of millions of other cookie victims.

Who among us has the power to say no to any young girl raising money for charity who offers to sell us a legal product that's so addictive?

Nobody — as demonstrated by one particularly tenacious Girl Scout in 1985. Elizabeth Brinton of Falls Church, Va., sold 11,200 boxes of Girl Scout cookies that sales season. She later topped her record by selling 18,000 in another season. She sold more than 100,000 during her Girl Scout career.

And I was her only customer!

OK, I wasn't her customer, but you get the point. I'm addicted. I sense that word is getting around in local Girl Scout circles that I am an easy sale — so much so, I am afraid to go to any stores or public places where the clever order-takers will prey on me.

It is both troubling and puzzling to me that, in this era of government-managed health care — a new era of regulations, mandates and penalties — it is still legal for any organization to raise funds by pushing so many sugary, salty, fatty treats onto our already obese population.

UNDER BURNING COOKIES — WAS A SLIPPERY SLOPE FOR T.O.S.S. D.S. — V.N. WORK — BEING AT THE CHILDREN'S TEEN S.O.N. WORKSHOP.

I am on a diet that will improve my health and hopefully reduce my future health concerns and benefit everybody else in my insurance pool. Shouldn't our micromanaging government give me a tax credit for every cookie I don't eat?

Likewise, shouldn't the peddlers of unhealthy treats — treats, as I said, that one can't help but eat by the row — be subject to government fines or taxes that punish them for victimizing the cookie-addicted?

In these unusual times, I fear somebody will take these requests seriously — before I can break my diet, one row of Thin Mints at a time.

Pastitsio

We lightened up this traditional Greek dish by using extra-lean ground beef instead of lamb. And for a rich sauce with minimal fat, we used evaporated skim milk.

Prep time: 30 min Cook time: 80 min Other time: 0 min

9 Points Plus Value Serves: 8

Ingredients

- 1 spray(s) cooking spray
- 1 pound(s) uncooked lean ground beef
- 1 medium uncooked onion(s), chopped
- 8 oz canned tomato sauce
- 1/4 cup(s) red wine, dry
- 1 1/2 tsp ground cinnamon
- 8 oz uncooked whole wheat pasta, such as penne
- 1 large egg(s), lightly beaten
- 3/4 cup(s) fat free evaporated milk
- 1 Tbsp salted butter, or margarine
- 2 Tbsp all-purpose flour
- 1/4 tsp table salt
- 1/8 tsp black pepper
- 1 1/2 cup(s) fat free evaporated milk
- 1 large egg(s), lightly beaten
- 2 large egg white(s), lightly beaten
- 1/2 cup(s) shredded parmesan cheese, divided

Instructions

Preheat to 350° F. Coat a 9- X 13-inch glass baking dish with cooking spray. To make meat sauce, heat a large nonstick skillet over medium-high heat. Cook beef and onion, stirring frequently, until meat is brown and onion is tender, about 10 minutes; drain off fat. Stir in tomato sauce, wine and cinnamon. Bring to boil and then reduce heat to medium-low; cover and simmer for 30 minutes, stirring occasionally.

Meanwhile, cook pasta according to package directions; drain and set aside. Combine 1 beaten egg, 3/4 cup of evaporated milk and cooked pasta in a large bowl; toss to combine and set aside.

To make cream sauce, melt butter or margarine in a small saucepan over medium heat; stir in flour, salt and pepper. Gradually add 1 1/2 cups of evaporated milk; cook, stirring, until thickened and slightly bubbly, about 5 to 8 minutes. Very gradually stir 1 beaten egg and egg whites into hot milk mixture (be careful not to 'scramble' eggs); set aside.

Layer half of pasta mixture in prepared dish; spread with meat sauce and sprinkle with 1/4 cup of cheese. Top with remaining pasta mixture; pour cream sauce over top and sprinkle with remaining cheese.

Cover and bake for 20 minutes. Uncover; bake about 15 minutes more or until a knife inserted in center comes out clean. Let stand 15 minutes before slicing into 8 pieces.

"Y" NEWS AND UPDATES

Swim Lessons

The YMCA will be starting another session of swim lessons on March 17, 2014. Please contact the YMCA's front desk for complete details.

Winter Programs

Stop by the "Y" TODAY and get your family signed up for our fall group exercise programs and aquatic activities. Zumba (Th - 6:15pm), Stability Ball/HIIT Circuit (M,W - 5:30pm), Fitness Blender (T,Th - 6:00am), Biker Blast and Yoga (see front desk for days and times).

After School Series Adventures

The After School Series provides participants with in depth programming while allowing parents more flexibility. Children will engage in healthy activities, crafts, sports, music, and much more. Children ride bus #9 to the "Y", have a snack, and then take part in the activities offered for that week. Camp ends at 5:30 each day and is offered the entire school year. Register for an entire month and save. Call the "Y" for more details!

Next in the After School Series, (Feb. 24th - Feb. 27th), "Outdoor Adventures". Weather permitting, children will spend time playing outside. Please have your child dress for the weather!

Pounds Off Challenge

Are you ready to shed unwanted weight? Learn good nutrition and exercise habits that you can use for life. Registration starts February 17th and continues until March 2nd. Non-members receive a 16 week membership with registration.

Cardio Kickboxing

This very popular class is finally back at the YMCA. Plan on attending each Tuesday evening at 6:15 and shed those unwanted holiday pounds.

Strong Family Campaign

The purpose of this campaign is to generate funds to support programs, activities, scholarships and services for all members of our community regardless of age or ability to pay. We have reached our goal of $103,000. Thanks for your continued support of the YMCA!

The Southwestern Montana Family YMCA is a non-profit, tax-exempt organization; therefore your donation may qualify as a tax-deductible donation.
