SCOTTY MORRIS, 27

Scotty Morris, 27, loving son of Kevin and Gail Morris and brother of Kevin Morris, Jr. passed away on April 9th, 2014 at home from a grandmal seizure.

Scott was never married and had no children of his own. He graduated from Beaverhead County High School in 2004, just 5 weeks after a severe brain injury caused in a motorcycle accident while he was doing what he loved most. (Motocross Racing!) The injuries left him partially handicapped.

Scott was a loving, caring, kind hearted boy and was loved by all. If you needed anything and he had it to give, it was yours. Scott loved anything and everything to do with speed. Motorcycle racing, 4-wheelers, Nascar and flying down a snow covered hill on his snowboard, jet skiing, knee boarding, cliff jumping and pontoon boating - just to name a few.

But for now, somewhere over the great divide, beyond the furthest shores, Scott has taken his final ride and found peace at heavens door. Heaven will be lucky to have him. May all the joys of life hereafter surround him and may peace at last fill his heart and soul for eternity.

Rest now Scott for the worst is over son. Go with God. We love you always and remember you in our hearts and minds. Gone but not forgotten. Scott loved life and he will truly be missed by all who knew him.

There will be a visitation Sunday, April 13 from 5-7 pm at Brundage Funeral Home. Funeral services will be held Monday, April 14 at 1:00 pm. A reception will follow at the Buffalo Lodge.

Career Assessment

The Career Assessment Workshop will help participants uncover their unique strengths, skills, values and work personality preferences as well as teach them how to use this information to find a satisfying job or identify the right career path for them. The workshop is free and open to all. All participants have the option for free career advising and help with their next steps following their assessment. Wednesday, April 16 from 1-3:30 pm.

Financial Assessment

The Financial Assessment Workshop provides participants with a comfortable forum in which to reflect on their money views, attitudes and beliefs and then to identify the areas in their financial life that they would like further assistance with. The workshop is free and open to all. All participants have the option for free financial coaching following their assessment. Wednesday, April 16 from 10 am - 12 noon.

Reserve a spot 1-800-546-1140 for either of the workshops, held at the Dillon Job Service, 730 N. Montana Street, Suite #4

AUTHOR CRAIG LANCASTER VISITING THE BOOKSTORE

Craig Lancaster, the best-selling author of the novels 600 Hours of Edward and Edward Adrift, will be at The Bookstore, 26 N. Idaho Street in Dillon, on Friday, April 11, for a book signing and reading. The signing begins at 5 p.m., with the reading set for approximately 6 p.m.

This event is part of a western Montana mini-tour to introduce readers to Edward Adrift, Lancaster's most recent novel and the follow-up to 600 Hours of Edward, his High Plains Book Award-winning debut. The novels feature the character Edward Stanton, a middle-aged man with Asperger's syndrome. With equal parts drama and humor, the books have found eager audiences in the U.S. and abroad. Lancaster is the author of three published novels (also The Summer Son) and a book of short stories, Quantum Physics and the Art of Departure. In addition to the High Plains Book Award in 2010, Lancaster's work has been designated as a Montana Honor Book (600 Hours of Edward), a Utah Book Award finalist (The Summer Son), a High Plains Book Award finalist (Quantum Physics and the Art of Departure) and an Independent Publisher Book Awards gold medalist (also Quantum Physics).

For more information or to reserve a copy, please contact The Bookstore at 406-683-6807.

Moose, Sheep, Goat Hunting Applications Due May 1

Montana Fish, Wildlife & Parks officials remind hunters applying for moose, bighorn sheep and mountain goat licenses that they will see changes in fees as a result of state legislation adopted last year.

In past years, hopeful resident hunters were required to submit $75 with their application for a $125 license, plus pay a $5 drawing fee. This year, resident hunters need only submit a nonrefundable $10 application fee per license and then pay the full license fee of $125 if successful.

"The 2013 Montana Legislature adopted the new fee system as a more efficient business model," said Ron Aasheim, FWP spokesman in Helena. "Once a hunter is awarded the license he or she will then pay the entire fee, which also saves FWP considerable accounting time, including the cost to cut thousands of refund checks and send them back through the mail to unsuccessful applicants."

In a typical year, FWP offers about 370 moose licenses, 430 bighorn sheep licenses and 290 mountain goat licenses through the special drawings—and would usually sent refunds to more than 57,000 unsuccessful applicants.

While more hunters may apply this year as a result of the fee change, Aasheim said those who applied in past years, and who also participated with "bonus points" to increase the chance of being awarded a license, will still have a leg up.

"Hunters with existing bonus points have them arithmetically 'squared' to further increase their chances of success in the drawing," Aasheim said.

For instance, a hunter who applied for but wasn't drawn for a bighorn sheep license for the past five years, and who also participated in the bonus point system each year, will have 25 additional chances to be drawn in 2014.

Nonresidents are also included in the new fee arrangement. In past years, nonresident hunters were required to submit $750, the entire cost of a moose, bighorn sheep or mountain goat license, plus pay a $5 drawing fee. This year, nonresident hunters need only submit a nonrefundable $50 application fee per license and then pay the full license fee of $750 if successful.

Residents and nonresidents can participate in the bonus point system. Bonus points are $2 per species for residents and $20 per species

May 1 is the deadline to apply for Montana's moose, bighorn sheep, bison and mountain goat licenses available through a special drawing. The next big deadline is June 2 to apply for antelope, deer B and elk B licenses.

Applying for drawings for special big game hunting permits and licenses is a lot easier these days for hunters who apply early and online at fwp.mt.gov.

BEAVERS SOFTBALL

The Dillon girls lost to Butte Central 12-2... Only had 2 hits.. Against their number one pitcher.

Bailey BERRIOCHOA got on with a single.. Then Kimee Hritsco-Murray hit a very deep home run over right field fence that got out of the field in a hurry. We caught up to the 60 plus mile an hour pitcher, Teresa Piazzola in the 4th inning.. But it was too little too late. Lauren Holtan threw a good game with no walks and one hit batter. Only 5 Butte Central runs were earned.. The rest were on errors.

Coach Andrea Schurg said "I feel if we can play in games like we do in practice, we can compete well against the teams in our conference. It will happen..the girls just need to be confident."

HANNEBERRY CABIN FIRE

Detected: April 10, 2014
Cause: Under Investigation
Location: 17 Miles SW of Dillon, MT

- 7 Engines
- 45 Personnel
- 2 Helicopters

The Hanneberry Cabin fire was first reported at 2 p.m. this afternoon. The fire is located approximately 17 miles SW of Dillon near the east side of I-15 and is burning in grass and brush.

Firefighters are on scene and working to establish a fireline around the perimeter. Two helicopters are also helping firefighters by providing water drops along the front of the fire and on hot spots.

Personnel from the Bureau of Land Management, MT DNRC, Beaverhead-Deerlodge National Forest and the Lima and Dillon Volunteer Fire Departments are assisting in the firefighting efforts. The Union Pacific Railroad has temporarily halted train traffic. I-15 is not closed; however, travelers along the I-15 corridor are advised to drive carefully through this area so as to not cause accidents.

For more information about the Hanneberry Cabin Fire go online to www.inciweb.nwcg.gov.

As of 6:30 Thursday night:
Fire is now 31 acres and 60% contained

Cherie Lowe

Medical Benefit Fund

Cherie Lowe, who is currently undergoing treatment for cancer, has always been a willing helper for many people and causes. She is a former Volunteer of the Year for Bannack State Park. Cherie is also known around Dillon as the "Survey Lady" for performing surveys which collected information used to improve business and tourism opportunities in the state of Montana.

For the last year she and Tom have had to travel almost weekly to Missoula for medical care.

Treating cancer is very difficult and expensive.

Please join friends and family in supporting Cherie & Tom Lowe.
