Charles 'Chuck' John Murray

Charles John Murray (Chuck) entered the presence of the Lord on Friday, March 21, 2014. He lost his fight to lung cancer.

Chuck was born on Sept. 19, 1937, to Harold Cornell Murray and Mary Elizabeth Corney Murray in Dillon. Chuck was the youngest of four boys. After graduating from high school, Chuck served our country as a medic during the reconstruction of Germany. After returning to Helena, Chuck worked out at Fort Harrison as an aide. In the late '60s Chuck started working at Super Save. In the '80s, Chuck worked at Blue Cross Blue Shield as a Medicare claim examiner until he retired in 1994. The Murrys moved to Billings in 1994.

Chuck and Margaret Ann Mason (Maggie) married on July 6, 1970. With this marriage Maggie brought two children, Debbie and Steven. Chuck and Maggie added to their family with the birth of Christian John Murray.

Chuck was a person of deep faith. He and Maggie were very active at the Westside Baptist Church in Billings prior to Maggie's passing in March of 2012. Chuck returned to Helena after Maggie's death to be closer to his family and continued his faith at the Hannaford Street Bible Church.

Chuck has now joined his prayer partner Maggie; his parents; and three brothers George, James, and Warren.

Chuck will be sorely missed by his children, Christian (Jennifer) Murray, Debbie (Robert) Stokes of Pendroy and Steven (Amy) Skains; grandchildren Kinleigh and Tatum Murray, Elizabeth Inwood, Rachael Newmiller, Katie Stokes, Meghan Printy-Smith; Mason and Luke Skains; and six great grandchildren.

The Murray family would like to thank Dr. Weiner and the amazing nurses at the cancer treatment center as well as the oncology unit for the wonderful care that was provided to Chuck throughout his treatment. We would also like to thank Big Sky Care Center.

The family will receive friends from 4 to 6 p.m. Thursday, March 27, at Anderson Stevenson Wilke Funeral Home, 3750 N. Montana Ave. A funeral service will be celebrated at 10:30 a.m. Friday, March 28, at Anderson Stevenson Wilke Funeral Home. A reception will immediately follow in the social hall of the funeral home. Burial will take place at Deep Creek Cemetery in Townsend following the reception. In lieu of flowers, the family asks that donations be made to the St. Peter's Cancer Treatment Center, 2475 Broadway, Helena, MT 59601. Please visit www.aswfuneralhome.com to offer the family a condolence or to share a memory of Chuck.

Arlington National Cemetery: 150 Years of Service

Tyrades! By Danny Tyree

In the 40-plus years since my paternal grandparents passed away, I have often wondered about the status of Shiloh Cemetery, which was nestled on the hilltop above their humble farmhouse.

Recently, my hometown newspaper, the Marshall County (TN) Tribune, brought me up to date. Decades of neglect, weather and wandering cattle have left Shiloh Cemetery (not to be confused with the graveyard at Shiloh National Military Park) in a shambles, with broken headstones and no way to identify most of the approximately 70 people buried there.

The sad fate of Shiloh Cemetery (final resting place of civilians, Confederate veterans and one Revolutionary War veteran) makes it all the more meaningful that we have a well-maintained treasure such as Arlington National Cemetery, which celebrates its 150th anniversary with special events in May and June.

Ideally, one would have the time, money and health to visit the historic site this year, and see the "eternal flame" at the grave of President Kennedy or the changing of the guard at the Tomb of the Unknowns. (Read more online at www.ArlingtonCemetery.mil.) Failing that, there are other ways to mark the sesquicentennial — and not just the perennials of "thank a veteran, write to active military personnel and exercise your hard-won right to vote."

Perhaps late spring 2014 is a good time to tone down the over-the-top rhetoric. It cheapens the sacrifices of our war casualties and deceased veterans when every social trend you dislike is a "war on fill-in-the-blank," and when every policymaker you disagree with is a "Hitler."

Signs scattered around Arlington request "Silence and Respect." Would it be asking too much that we turn down the volume on our teeth-rattling car stereos, refrain from gratuitous public profanity, "measure twice and cut once" before speaking ill of another person and carve out five minutes a day for noise-free, self-respecting contemplation?

As we contemplate Arlington and death (the Great Equalizer), we should try to ditch our prejudices, stereotypes and hang-ups. American military teamwork should make us realize that life is too short to spend it envying the rich or exploiting the poor, dismissing all Yankees as know-it-alls or regarding all southerners as illiterate racists, etc.

The military personnel buried at Arlington had to learn discipline in maneuvers and maintenance of their equipment. Perhaps we could reboot our New Year's resolutions and discipline ourselves to wear a seatbelt, use our vehicle turn signal, floss daily, push back from the table, walk the extra steps to the recycling bin, elect leaders who keep us prepared for war (but eager for peace) or otherwise help ourselves and our great nation.

Certainly Shiloh is not the only cemetery suffering from families that die out or move away and younger generations that have different priorities. Ask some questions and track down abandoned or neglected graveyards in your own neck of the woods that cry out for cash, elbow grease and genealogical expertise.

Some may view respect for the dead as yesterday's news or throwing good money after bad and ask, "What's in it for me?"

Respect for those at Arlington and elsewhere serves the past, present and future. We can learn from the past, gain a feeling of accomplishment in the present ("I'm tired, but it's a GOOD tired") and set a positive example for the young not to treat us as disposable when we're no longer "productive."

City: Continued Education

By: MJ

Starting May 4, 2014 through May 9th, Montana Municipal Interlocal Authority (MMIA) and the Local Government Center will be presenting educational classes in Billings. Members of local government are given the information and they can chose to attend or chose not to attend. {Their choice}

May 4th will be the training for clerks, treasurer and other office personnel. There will be three people from City office attending that session.

May 7th presentations that will be updating and reviewing information for councilpersons, attorneys, and mayors will begin. Mayor Klakken, City Attorney Mr. Dolan, Councilman Dan Nye and William Shafer have committed to attend. Question: Why do we only have two out of seven council members attending?

Many of us think that if we attend informational classes once we know it all and never need to go again. How many times in your life have you heard the same information over and over and it would just go in one ear and out the other. Then one day you hear the same information and all of a sudden a light comes on (you hear it and have a renewed understanding).

Depending on what is happening in our life at the time we are given information the brain will process it differently. There is a reason why it takes continually updated directional manuals to change a flat tire.

New rules, laws, court rulings and etc happen all the time and have a direct influence on how local government represents the taxpayers.

Often people that have a lack of knowledge or are ignorant on an issue will turn to heuristics (solving problems based on experience) to make decisions. Neither misinformation nor ignorance will let the local government function for the future growth of community or the betterment of the economy or more and better paying jobs.

Updating yourself through education is only part of the job you sign up for in any walk of life. It's a possibility that other council members will still sign up. There still is time.

Classic Story Times at Dillon Public Library

The Dillon Public Library is presenting a series of six classic story times. The hour-long sessions will take place on Friday mornings beginning April 25th, and begin promptly at 10:00 am. Please use the East Glendale entrance to attend. The story times are designed for preschool children age 36 months to 5 years. A themed unit is presented: stories, poems, songs and a simple craft – all related to the story which is read. In a relaxed and informal social setting, we work to increase the child's attention span and their interest and joy in words and stories.

The sessions are scheduled as follows: April 25th – Cinderella, May 2nd – Little Bo Peep, May 9th – The Gingerbread Man, May 16th – Goldilocks and the Three Bears, May 30th – Little Red Riding Hood, and June 6th – The Three Little Pigs.

All Dillon Public Library events are free and open to the public.

BEAVERS SOFTBALL

The Dillon Beavers softball lost to Hamilton 32-2 in 5 innings. It was a lousy day for softball, and we found ourselves in a lightening delay that lasted for about 45 minutes. Hamilton dominated with their sticks with 4 homeruns and 17 total hits, while Dillon combined for 4 total hits. Although Hamilton is a very good hitting team, Dillon did not help themselves any defensively by giving the Broncs 9 unearned runs on 13 errors.

THE ART SCENE GALLERY

WHERE DID THE FLOWERS GO???

As you may have noticed, the Medians on Helena Street are bare. Please help us bring them back to life. The Dillon Garden Club's membership needs HELP to revive the Medians. We all enjoy the flowers as we drive by. Let's work together to restore them to their best.

We are asking for individuals, groups, organizations, etc. to help. You may choose a median to claim as your own (we can put a sign up to identify you as the caretaker) or volunteer to help when we are working.

We can NOT do it by ourselves any more.

They all have an automatic watering system (which will be upgraded soon). The Garden Club will support you both with information and financially and any other way we can.

If you cannot donate your time, any financial donations would be greatly appreciated and are needed to help with purchasing plants and hiring a caretaker to help.

Please help us keep Dillon a Beautiful town!

Contact Diane Peppin at 865-0372 for more information.
