BCHS CHORAL DEPARTMENT

The Beaverhead County High School choral department will present the last concert of the school year Wednesday, May 14, at 7:30 p.m. in the BCHS auditorium in Dillon. This concert honors our graduating seniors.

Choral groups will present festival pieces during the first half of the concert. Teen Tones and Treble Chorus will open the concert with "Herbstlied" by Felix Mendelssohn. The Women's Ensemble (singing "Alleluia"), Freshmen Ensemble ("Every Night When the Sun Goes In"), Men's Ensemble ("Loch Lomond"), Mixed Ensemble ("A Red, Red, Rose"), and Teen Tones ("Ave Maria") will all present their superior rated State Festival selections. The Barbershop Quartet and Sweet Adelines will lighten up the first half with "Hello Ma Baby" and "Yesterday" respectively. The Men's Chorus will sing "Sing Me a Song of a Lad That is Gone".

The second half will feature senior solos in a medley of Disney favorites. The presentation of awards for participation in the 2014 District and State Music Festivals and presentation of the Ralph McFadden Music Cup and National School Choral Award will be given at the conclusion of the concert.

The choral program is under the direction of Laurie Hagenbarth with over 60 students participating. The public is invited to this free event.

Letter to the Editor

Like many other voters in this district, I received mailers last week attacking Mr. Welborn. I condemn these negative campaign tactics from outside organizations. I do not know those responsible, have never been contacted by them, nor taken campaign contributions from them. I have chosen to run a positive campaign, supported by local people, focusing on the issues that are important to all of us. The voters of House District 72 should decide this election without outside influence.

Brooke Erb
for Montana's 72nd District

Letter to the Editor

No doubt about it, I'm under attack from extremist, that are stopping at nothing to buy our local legislative election.

First of all, It was the US Congress, not the Montana Legislature, who voted on and ultimately passed, The Affordable Healthcare Act, or as attack piece calls it "Obamacare," a policy that I don't support now and never have, I want to be clear on that. Secondly, school curriculums, sexed or whatever it may be, are set by local school boards, which assert local control, elected by you and me, and again not by the legislature. With that said, this establishes how absurd these attack pieces from the extremist really are.

More importantly though, I pledged early on with a handshake and my word to my opponent, I would run an above board and clean legislative campaign as I always have. Once again, I'm sticking to that pledge. It's disappointing especially for the local voters, as it seems that my opponent has either chosen or had a different path chosen for her.

I've had dozens of calls since the negative attacks against me, hit local mailboxes this week, all wanting to know why Billings And Laurel extremist groups, are spending $1000s upon $1000s trying to control the outcome of our local election, using baseless attacks and stopping at nothing, to get their choice of candidates elected.

The burning question in the minds of many locals is this, just what will these extreme groups expect in return if they are successful in getting their candidate (my opponent) elected? The question you must ask yourselves is this: If she is being courted by extremist now, where will loyalties lie if they are successful with their dark money in helping get the challenger elected?

It's been my experience that anytime a legislator is elected because of outside influence from special interest groups using negative attacks against one candidate to help elect another, the local voter is the one who is left without true representation.

In closing, my campaign is only about my track record, one focused on Jobs, the economy, building infrastructure and educating our kids. I'm proud of my 100% rating from Montana Chamber, MT Contractors, and MT Taxpayers Assoc. As well as all the legitimate private property rights groups, I have a stellar record for common sense education policy, public employees, and rural hospitals. Im also 100% with Montana Right to Life.

Trusted leadership and earned respect among my colleagues and constituents is something that doesn't happen over night. I vote right at 90% of the time with my Republican Caucus, but I vote 100% of the time with the good of my District in mind, and that is the most important statistic of all.

Respectfully
Representative Jeff Welborn

Dillon Beavers Varsity lost 7-6 in seven innings on Saturday, despite outhitting Stevensville 12 to 8.

Dillon Beavers Varsity was led by Kimee Hiritsco-Murray's hitting. Kimee went 2-4, drove in one and scored one run. She doubled in the first inning and singled in the third inning. Audrey Schurg went 2 for 4 with 2 singles, Bailey Berriochoa went 2 for 3 with 1 RBI, Shaylee Ericksen went 2 for 3 with 1 RBI, Adrianna Pittman went 1 for 2 with a double.

The top of the first saw Dillon Beavers Varsity take an early lead, 1-0.

After Bailie Berriochoa singled, Dillon Beavers Varsity kept the pressure on Stevensville pitching, as Kimee doubled, scoring Bailie. Stevensville survived Dillon Beavers Varsity's surge and put up three runs of its own in the first. Stevensville scored on an error, an error, and an RBI single byCallie Lendman.

Stevensville stayed on top until the final out after taking the lead in the fifth, scoring three runs on an RBI double by Callie, an RBI single by Maria Hinson, and an RBI triple by Sam Hambrick.

The Beavers last home game is Tuesday against Butte Central at 4:00.

This weekend the team travels to Butte for the Laverne Combo tourney. Then, we head to divisionals the following weekend which will be held in Anaconda.

We have sealed the #5 seed in conference standings and will face the #4 seed in the first round at Divisionals which is Stevi.

$567,498,698... Montanans should be Aware of PAC Money

Recently, MT Representative Jeff Welborn, was unfairly attacked by a political action committee ad. I have known Jeff almost my entire life. We went to high school together, spent a lot of time together in FFA, and I have always considered him a friend. Even though Jeff does not represent the district I live in, I feel the need to defend him because he does represent Montana, and he has a proven record. These ads against him are untrue and unfair. Unfortunately, a lot of voters listen to PAC attack ads and take them for truth.

Political Action Committees (PACS) spent $567,498,698 during the 2012 federal election cycle and now they are turning their sights toward local elections.

Montana has had progressive finance regulations since the early 1900's. These laws were enacted to combat the abuses of power shown by the "Copper King" William Clark, who outright bought his senate seat. Montana was once seen as a shining example of how campaign finance reform should look. However, recent court rulings have once again allowed big money to influence elections, and as a result, we now see PACS trying to buy local elections right here at home!

The Citizens United and SpeechNow.org rulings, which undermine our elections, need to be overturned. I agree that first amendment rights need to be protected. However, PACS must show accountability and honesty.

Politicians can now outsource attacks ads with nearly unlimited funding. Special interest groups or individuals can slander good politicians and yet hide in the anonymity of the PAC. Funding of PACs with "dark" money, which cannot be traced to its source, can easily be construed as legalized bribery. Nearly a century ago Copper King William Clark defended his bribes saying, "I never bought a man who wasn't for sale." Voters need to be aware that PACS are simply a modern day version of William Clark, they have unlimited money, resources, and will do or say ANYTHING to further their cause.

Letter to the Editor

The first brewery in Beaverhead County since Prohibition will be opening soon. A little over a year ago, the possibility of this venture happening was in serious doubt because of a piece of legislation backed by one of the strongest lobbying groups in Montana. This legislation essentially would have shut down the majority of small craft breweries in Montana. Because of the nature of this legislative proposal, all our plans for a building and brewing equipment were put on hold.

Then one weekend during the middle of the legislative session, I received a phone call from Representative Jeff Welborn asking for a visit with Brett Maki and me to discuss this legislative proposal, which had been assigned to a committee which included Representative Welborn. After sitting down with Brett for two hours and learning more about the process of brewing, the economics of the business, the costs, the overhead and the effect of this new regulation, Jeff felt he had enough information to make a positive difference for brewers in general, but specifically the new start-ups. After that meeting, he left for Helena with one objective, namely, to kill the bill in committee, despite resistance from the committee chair and the lobbyist.

In his quiet but purposeful manner he got the job done. He convinced committee members of both parties their job should be to support sectors of the economy that are growing rather than to regulate them out of business. He understands that small businesses are the engines of our economy.

Since getting the green light to start renovation and construction of Beaverhead Brewing Co., over forty local businesses and individuals in our area have been involved in this project. Because of Jeff's pro-active approach to legislation affecting his own constituents, there have been benefits spinning off elsewhere in our state. I know of at least four other craft breweries outside of Beaverhead County that will be opening this year in Montana.

Certainly one bill or one vote doesn't completely define a legislator. But the manner in which he or she will discuss proposed legislation with their constituents and consider their local concerns – placing them above those of powerful lobbyists or party bosses – defines legislators as true representatives of their district. For this reason I am supporting Jeff Welborn for re-election.

REGION 3 CITIZENS' ADVISORY COMMITTEE TO MEET WEDNESDAY

Montana Fish, Wildlife & Parks' Region 3 Citizens' Advisory Committee will meet in Bozeman on Wednesday, May 14, at the FWP Regional Office (1400 S. 19th Ave.) from 12:30 p.m. – 4:00 p.m. The public is welcome and encouraged to attend.

The CAC meets quarterly to provide input and guidance on the many natural resource and management issues addressed by FWP in southwest Montana. All meetings are open to the public.

This meeting's agenda includes a presentation on wildlife habitat by research scientist Richard Keigley and a discussion on brucellosis and elk with FWP Commissioner Dan Vermilion and Region 3 Wildlife Manager Howard Burt. Additionally, there will be updates on several statewide issues and responses to questions provided by Committee members. For more information about the Region 3 Citizens' Advisory Committee, visit the FWP Web site at http://fwp.mt.gov/regions/r3/cac/.

Montana Fish, Wildlife & Parks ensures its meetings are fully accessible to persons with disabilities. To request special accommodations relative to a disability for this meeting, contact Andrea Jones at 406-994-6931.
