Carole Rae (Krauss) Love

Carole Rae (Krauss) Love died at sunrise at the age of 82 on May 19, 2014, from complications of Alzheimer's-type dementia. She was born March 14, 1932, in Ennis, Montana, to John E. Krauss and Florence Daems Krauss. She and her older brother, Roy, grew up in Norris where John owned the Texaco Station and a small tackle shop, and Florence sewed and sold Barbie doll clothes. When she was three years old, the family lived for a year on a dairy farm in Oregon. They lived one year in Bozeman when she was in the 6th grade and she often spoke of how much she loved it there before moving back to Norris. Carole graduated from Harrison High School in three years, where she played basketball, ran track, and was a cheerleader.

She met Earl Love at a track meet when she was in the 8th grade and he was a senior in high school, when he presented first place ribbons to her in several running events. She was smitten. When Earl returned from military service in Korea, he insisted that she take a year for herself before marriage so she moved to Helena where she worked at a state agency and lived at the YWCA.

Carole and Earl were married in Ennis on June 17, 1950, and moved into a rustic one-room cabin. They built their first house north of Ennis on the family ranch in 1952. They moved to Dillon in 1960 when Earl was named District Conservationist for the Soil Conservation Service. In 1961, they built on acreage north of Dillon where they could keep their horses and raise their family in a rural environment. The couple had three sons, who all achieved college degrees and of whom they were extremely proud.

Carole was primarily a housewife, but she also waitressed at the Sportsman's Lodge in Ennis until her first son, Gary, was born, and in later years served as an office assistant for the Beaverhead Conservation District. Following Earl's retirement from the SCS, they spent many precious days working together in his agricultural consulting business and traveling.

Carole was well known in the community for her generosity and service including Jayceens, Eastern Star, Chapter AD P.E.O., Parkview Acres Auxiliary, BASS, Beaverhead County High School Board of Trustees, and Barrett Hospital Volunteer. She was an active member of the First Presbyterian Church, serving as Elder, Sunday School Teacher, and member of two Pastor-Seeking Committees, as well as many years of driving people to church services who were unable to get there on their own.

Carole loved horses and dogs all of her life, and purchased her first horse, Tony, when she was nine with money she earned from a paper route. She rode Tony from Norris to Bozeman several times to meet a good friend. She also competed in barrel racing. Her love for horses was matched by Earl's and over the years, they raised and broke several quarter horse foals from their own broodmares. They were members of the American Quarter Horse Association.

Over the course of her life she learned to ski, oil paint, fish, and golf. She also loved to play bridge, travel, and spend time with her sons and their families and her many beloved family and friends. She loved history and spent a great deal of time researching family genealogy for both her family and Earl's. She was proud of the fact that her great-grandfather, Levinus Daems, was the first medical doctor in Virginia City in 1862, and seven generations of her family have lived in Madison and Beaverhead Counties. She was the primary caregiver for her mother, and for Earl during his battle with cancer.

Carole is predeceased by her parents, John and Florence Krauss, her husband and soulmate of 52 years, Earl Love, sister-in-law and brothers-in-law Zada and Ward Haukap and Bob Clark, and special aunts and uncles Agnes and Hank Huber and Edna and Ray Schabarker. She is survived by sons and daughters-in-law: Gary (Cathi), Casey (Maris), and Jeff (Angie); grandchildren: Shonda (Ryan) Richardson, Kayla (Uche) Njoku, Shann Love, Kevin Love, Ashley (Bradley) Plesz, and Andrea Love; and great grandchildren: Rafe and Pierce Richardson, Brendan and (to be born this summer) Addison Njoku. Also surviving are her brother Roy (Beverly) Krauss, sister-in-law Jessie Clark, brother-in-law Roy (Sharlene) Love, and special cousin Vivian Womack.

DILLON RELAY FOR LIFE LIGHT THE PATH TO A CURE

We've all been touched by cancer. Now's the time for you to be involved in change. Honor or memorialize loved ones with a luminary. Luminaries will be for sale at Safeway Thursday, May 22nd from 4 to 6 pm. All luminaries sold will be lit at the Dillon Relay Friday, July 25th @10:00pm. The ceremony of light symbolizes the hope and courage with which we all continue to fight cancer. Let's "burn" cancer from our future.

CATHERINE CAIN, OWNER OF SOUTHWEST MONTANA NATIVE LANDSCAPES TO SPEAK TO DILLON KIWANIS

Catherine Cain owner of Southwest Montana Native Landscapes will be the featured speaker at the Wednesday, May 21 meeting of the Dillon Kiwanis.

Cain will speak on the benefits of using native plants in home gardens. From trees and shrubs to perennials, you will be surprised how easy it is to add these native plants to a home garden.

The Kiwanis meet every Wednesday at 12 p.m. at the Dillon Elks Lodge in downtown Dillon.

The Kiwanis Club of Dillon has been serving our community since 1940.

CEMETERY READY FOR MEMORIAL DAY

Because the weather has cooperated, the crew at the cemetery has been able to get the cemetery ready for Memorial Day sooner than expected.

Mountain View Cemetery decorating may begin on Wednesday, May 21, 2014.

Reminder!

Please join the Beaverhead County Mental Health Local Advisory Council @ 7pm in the conference room at Barrett Hospital & HealthCare for the viewing of "The Anonymous People." This movie addresses the silent voices of many recovery, transforming public opinion and identifying long lasting solutions. "Recovery is out-to change the addiction conversation from-problems to solutions."

BAKERY FUNDRAISING

"Dillon's Great Harvest Bread Company will hold its popular bakery fundraising event May 21-23 to raise money for Beaverhead County High School scholarships given to deserving, young scholars in the community. This is an annual event that brings great support from the local area to provide an educational boost for hard-working students.

"We are so proud of local students that demonstrate commitment to their academic future," says Janet Tatarka, Great Harvest director of bakery logistics and training. "Receiving a quality education is fundamental for young people to succeed in today's world. We love helping to raise money for scholarships, and this year's Beaverhead County High School recipients are stellar in every way."

The students were chosen by a committee of nine Great Harvest employees that weighed their academic achievements together with financial need to select the winners.

"Centering our judgments on the students' abilities to challenge their minds, while maintaining solid expectations, we feel confident we have chosen deserving candidates," says Tatarka.

Students must be a senior and maintain a 3.25 cumulative GPA at Beaverhead County High School to be eligible. The 2014 winners are Holly Hansen, attending the University of Montana; John Luke Koslosky, attending Montana State University; Elly Sawyer, attending Montana State University; and Josee Pendleton, attending University of Great Falls. Hansen received a four-year scholarship, and Sawyer, Koslosky, and Pendleton each received a one-year scholarship. All proceeds from the three-day fundraiser will be donated to the selected students.

On sale will be a variety of delicious breads and treats including its signature Honey Whole Wheat, White, Anadama, Cheddar Garlic, Dakota, Oregon Herb, Sonoma, Raisin Cinnamon Chip, and Cinnamon Chip loaves. Made-to-order sandwiches will be available from 11 a.m. to 2 p.m. including this month's special, the Turkey Goddess sandwich. Also on offer will be an expanded line of sweets (scones, brownies, cookies, and muffins), Cheddar Garlic hamburger buns, granola, jams, peanut butters, dipping oils, and drip coffee. The Dillon bakery serves as a model for Great Harvest stores nationwide, and new owners come to Dillon to understand the intricacies of what it takes to own and operate a successful store. Fundraiser events are held in conjunction with these new owner visits to provide them with a real-world retail experience before returning to their own community to open a store.

Great Harvest invites southwestern Montana residents to stock up on fresh out-of-the-oven breads and treats to support these students. The bakery, located at 25 E. Glendale St. next to the Dilmart, will be open May 21-23 from 7 a.m. to 2 p.m. For more information, please visit dillonmt.greatharvestbread.com or find the bakery on Facebook at www.facebook.com/GreatHarvestUniversity.
