VFW WILL SPONSOR LADIES AUXILIARY

At the May meeting of Veterans of Foreign Wars Post %9040, members voted to sponsor the establishment of a ladies auxiliary post for the area. Post Commander Charles Thompson stated that several local ladies have expressed interest in setting up an organization for themselves and can now move forward in recruiting and signing up members. Ladies eligible to become a member of the Ladies Auxiliary are, wives, widows, mothers, stepmothers, daughters, granddaughters, sisters, and step sisters of a person who is, or was, eligible for membership in the Veterans of Foreign Wars of the United States. Commander Thompson says that anyone wishing to obtain more information about joining the Ladies Auxiliary should contact a member of VFW Post #9040.

At the May meeting, members of the Post presented the Rambling Rose Drill team with a VFW banner which a drill team member will carry at all events that they participate in this year. The Post had agreed to become a sponsor of the drill team at an earlier meeting.

Recipients of the two scholarships awarded by VFW Post #9040 to high school seniors in Beaverhead County were also announced at the meeting. This year's winners are Taryn Judge and Heidi Peterson.

Beaverhead County High School student, Jaydyn Child, talked to the Post about her Girl Scout project "Your Life is Worth Living". This project is aimed at preventing suicides and Jaydyn has secured the services of a nationally acclaimed speaker to come to Dillon on September 10 to discuss the issue with high school students in the area.

LAST OPPORTUNITY!

On Friday, May 30th, Karl Rosston, Montana's Suicide Prevention Coordinator, will be facilitating Mental Health First Aid Training @ UMW (Swysgood Technology Center- Great Room) from 8am-5pm. This free training addresses the mental health challenges that many of us, or our loved ones, experience on daily basis- depression, anxiety, psychosis and substance use. These are shockingly common in our community as well as across the country. In fact, more than one in five American adults will have a mental health problem in any given year.

Mental Health First Aid prepares each one of us and our community as a whole with the knowledge and skills to help individuals who are developing a mental health problem or experiencing a mental health crisis. Identified on SAMHSA's National Registry of Evidence-Based Programs and Practices, the training helps the public better identify, understand and respond to signs of mental illnesses. A certificate of completion will be provided upon completion.

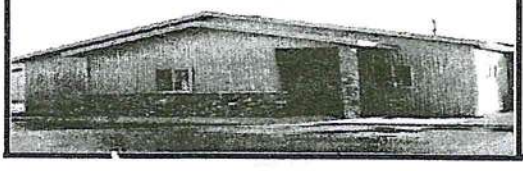

For more information on Mental Health First Aid, visit www.mentalhealthfirstaid.org. Please call the Women's Resource Center @ 683-6106 to register for tomorrow's train

Letter to the Editor

In Response to Senator Barrett's editorial, I appreciate having the opportunity to continue to inform our community about Dark Money and full transparency.

While Dark Money is currently legal, I believe it to have no place in Montana politics. Dark Money is money spent on elections, usually opposed to a candidate, which cannot be traced back to its donor. We have no idea where it comes from, in state, out of state, maybe out of the country? I have correctly been attributed with such comments.

Light PACs disclose their donors. That is why my name, occupation and donation could be cited in the letter. I believe that is what voters deserve. I support Montana BASE because of their stance on transparency in elections as well as many other issues.

I am supportive of transparency in politics. In fact I tried to move campaign finance reform bills last session that unfortunately did not pass. But that does not mean that I am against groups participating in politics. I just believe they should be transparent. I am proud of the organizations that I contribute to and those who support my candidacy.

Lastly, let's talk about those, many of you, in fact, that are being brought into question about who exactly is contributing to my campaign, as a matter of record, 67 out of 84 individual contributions are from Inside my District from people we all know. The balance is from Transparent PACS, made up of Industry and Trade Groups, all good paying job creators, 11 in all.

While I would like to see the rules changed I recognize that elections are run based on the rules we currently have in place. Unfortunately, negative campaigning works, in many instances. That is why it is done by some of these groups.

I take every opportunity to own and explain my votes. I know the people in my district can understand complex issues and recognize competing values. I do however take exception when my record is twisted to represent something other than my priorities and I continue to fight against that, as every candidate should. I am proud of the voting record I hold that are published by various groups across Montana like The Montana Chamber of Commerce, The Montana Taxpayers Assoc., and other Business and jobs minded organizations.

With this being said, it points to a true distinction between issue advocacy and Dark Money being used against candidates in elections.

Senator Barrett, we certainly have different voting records on Dark Money and perhaps other Campaign Finance Reform issues, with that said, you are entitled to the votes you take, as I have respect for the process that each of us vote the way we see fit. However, this is a much larger issue, that isn't about you or I, but more importantly about integrity in the elections process for all Montanans.

Respectfully
Representative Jeff Welborn

Letter to the Editor

I grew up in Dillon, and there are few things I care about more than preserving the farm and ranch family values and the unparalleled work ethic that serves as the cornerstone to the Dillon community—which is why I am supporting Brooke Erb for House District 72.

Dillon deserves a representative that won't play political games and dance around their votes or downplay who has donated to their campaign. They deserve someone who will fight tooth and nail for those policies that benefit the citizens of Dillon and everyone who lives in House District 72.

Campaigns typically, and in this case, move from being funded by their local constituents to being funded from outside our district. It's perfectly legal for candidates to accept contributions from political action committees (PACs) or interest groups, but such contributions are meant to be disclosed, and by disclosed, I don't just mean filing the correct reports required by the state, I mean that a candidate shouldn't be making claims about not being supported by interest groups to constituents, to friends, on Facebook, or otherwise, if in fact the majority of their contributors are from outside of the district.

In this race, Brooke's opponent has been denying, not only his votes during his tenure as a legislator, but has also been denying contributions he received from political groups. For those who are interested in looking into the matter further, all contributions that he has received can be viewed online either at the Commissioner of Political Practices website or via an online database called followthemoney.org.

The people of Dillon deserve to be represented by a hard-working and honest candidate, and that candidate is Brooke Erb.

Sincerely, Shelby DeMars
