Barrett Hospital & HealthCare Forms Patient and Family Advisory Council

The Barrett Hospital & HealthCare Patient-Family Advisory Council (PAC) is a group of patients, family members of patients, hospital staff, and administrative leaders who are "collaborating to enhance the patient and family experience", as agreed to in the mission statement recently adopted by the group.

In forming the initial group, Barrett Hospital sought out patients and family members who represented a variety of clinical experiences and possessed the ability to see beyond personal experiences, listen well, demonstrate concern for more than one issue, respect the perspective of others, speak comfortably and honestly in a group, interact with many different kinds of people, work in partnership and accomplish goals with others, and share information about their own experiences in ways that others can benefit from them.

Current PAC members include Jesse Alberi, Mary Bearden, Lesli Cottom, Carol Dickinson, Joan Grogan, Carol Kennedy, Sarah Moreni, Don Peterson, Christina Power, Marie Smith, Beth Sullivan, and Gabrielle Thoreson. Members encourage the public to share their local healthcare experiences with them.

As PAC members' terms end or as members leave, new applicants will be invited to join from a running list of former patients and family members referred to and/or interested in the PAC.

Anyone interested in being considered for membership to the PAC or anyone with a comment or question should contact Victoria Tomaryn at 683-3036.

ANSWER TO LETTER TO THE EDITOR:

In the Dillon Tribune a couple weeks ago, Sheila Roberts included my name (Brenda Womack) as a loud protester and stated that I do not live in the city limits. She also stated that I do not (legally) vote in city elections and do not pay residential taxes and that I have a petition (their petition).

First - If I speak up and ask question doesn't make me loud, it may mean I want to understand what the elected officials are doing. I do in fact live two blocks out of city limits. I do not legally vote in city elections nor do I illegally vote in them either. I DO pay residential taxes and business taxes and many other taxes in the city on (six) 6 pieces of property in the CITY of DILLON without getting to vote on how that money is spent. (Lucky you - you get to vote on who and how your money is spent!) For the matter of my petition - I have NOT had one single thing to do with any petition ever! The story of this recall petition was in the Dillonite Daily as has been many other things that I may agree or disagree with. My opinion of these things do not come into play when articles are placed in the Dillonite.

I DO NOT appreciate your personal attack on me. I did not mention your name after the City Council meeting when I walked out of the meeting and was yelled at by you (as many witnesses saw).

Many people do not feel that they can speak up for themselves or are afraid of the exact thing that you seem determined to do to me. Sheila, I do not ask you to agree with me or even see things my way, however I am willing to let you take your turn to speak up, but I do expect you to let me speak when my turn comes around. Speaking for myself, I think you considering me an outsider when I have been in business in Dillon for 32 years and have had many honors for the community service work I have done, I don't give up easy or scare off - seems like you may not know who you are attacking with your malicious intent.

Drover's Road Program

Come and celebrate with the Beaverhead County Museum as they remember the 150th anniversary of Montana's becoming a territory. This southwest corner of Montana is the birthplace of Territorial History so it is fitting that we have a party!

Along with a wonderful barbequed beef dinner, beef supplied by Wally Congden, that begins at 6:00 p.m., we will have a great new show in the Depot Theatre. Wally and his troupe will present The Drover Road, which is the story and the music of the cattle culture. It is a Scotchman's story of our custom, culture, heritage and history of the cattle drive that became a symbol of our area.

The dinner will be served on the gazebo and the yard and will include a variety of salads with the flavorful beef and rhubarb squares for dessert. Cost is $30 per person or $55 per couple.

Letter to the Editor

Jeff deserves a fourth term:

Access to public lands and rivers is a controversial issue. Some folks want to lock up access to public lands and rivers and have them for their exclusive use. While the public should have access and use of our public lands and rivers. It takes a cool hand to negotiate the in-and-outs of complicated issues. Jeff Welborn has done a good job protecting private property rights while supporting programs such as Habitat Montana and Block Management and legislation to provide access to rivers from bridge right-of-ways.

Jeff was instrumental in getting legislation passed that liberalized our wolf seasons, while maintaining the necessary regulatory framework to keep wolves off the threatened and endangered species list.

Jeff has the ability to get legislation passed that directly benefits his constituents. In three terms, Jeff has worked with all share holders to find common ground and acceptable solutions on many issues. Jeff's critics have uncompromising ideologies and do not look for common ground to find acceptable solutions to issues. This is why our state and federal governments are dysfunctional and our political system is broken.

I never trust anyone who gets 100% on a scorecard from radical political pacs. Jeff deserves a fourth term, regardless of what the hacks and radical special interest groups think.

Ray Gross
