REMEMBER ME? FLAG DAY JUNE 14th

Some people call me Old Glory, others call me the Star-Spangled Banner, but whatever they call me, I am your flag, the flag of the United States of American. I remember some time ago people lined up on both sides of the street to watch the parade and naturally, I was always there, proudly waving in the breeze.

When your daddy saw me coming, he immediately removed his hat and placed it over his heart. Remember? And you, I remember you standing there straight as a soldier. You didn't have a hat but you were giving the right salute.

Remember your little sister? Not to be outdone, she was saluting the same as you, with her hand over her heart. Remember?

What happened? I'm still the same old flag. Oh, I have added a few more stars since you were a boy, and a lot more blood has been shed since those parades of long ago. But I don't feel as proud as I used to. When I come down your street, you just stand there with your hands in your pockets. I may get a small glance but then you look away.

I see the children running around and shouting. They don't seem to know who I am. I saw one man take off his hat and look around. He didn't see anybody else with his hat off so he quickly put his back on. Is it a sin to be patriotic anymore? Have you forgotten what I stand for and where I've been? Anzio, Normandy, Omaha Beach, Guadalcanal, Korea, Vietnam, Iraq, Afghanistan.

Take a look at the Memorial Honor Rolls some time. Look at the names of those who never came back in order to keep this Republic free. One nation, under God. When you salute me, you are actually saluting them.

THANK YOU

A sincere thank you to all the hard working people who made the Museum's Drover's Road fund raiser a huge success from the office workers who designed and printed the posters and sold tickets to Wally Congdon, who also provided the great baron of beef, and his troupe of performers; Donna Jones and Jo Lasich who provided salads as well as worked to set up, decorate and clean up; Aggie Helle and Jean James for the wonderful salad and beans. Many thanks to Tom Helle for stepping in at the last minute to do such a wonderful job of cooking the meat even if "Dot made him do it." Thanks also to Tom's group of helpers who served and gave him advice as well. We can't forget Raymond Graham's volunteer effort by videotaping the event for all of us. Thanks so much to each and every one who assisted with this fund raiser for the Museum.

Lynn Giles, Museum Director

CURIOUS MINDS THE UNIVERSITY OF MONTANA WESTERN

Need help finding quality and affordable childcare?

Great resources are available in Montana to help you find the right care environment for your child.

by Linn Veen, director, Curious Minds pre-school,

The University of Montana Western Need help with child care?

One organization, the Montana Early Childhood Services Bureau (MECSB), is working to improve the quality, affordability and accessibility of childcare in all Montana communities.

They are dedicated professionals who help parents find quality programs and assistance with the cost.

MECSB has developed an organized system to meet the needs of young children, their families and those who provide childcare and services.

The bureau offers Best Beginnings scholarships to qualified low-income families whose child receives care from a licensed child care center, registered group or family child care home or legally certified child care provider.

The scholarships help pay for periods when parents are unable to provide child care for a number of reasons:

- It is during working hours.
- It is during school or training hours that are required by an employer.

If they are a teen parent attending high school.

- When parents are receiving Temporary Assistance of Needy Families (TANF) and are participating in family investment agreement activities.

Call the Butte 4-Cs for more details and an application at 406-723-4019. Or stop by their offices at 101 E. Broadway St., Butte, Mont. 59701. You may also visit the Best Beginnings website at www.butte-4cs.org.

Another great resource is the Montana Department of Public Health and Human Services website at www.dphhs.mt.gov/hcsd/childcare. In addition Family Connections Montana maintains a list of current openings around the state. Call toll free 1-800-696-4503 or go to their website at www.familyconnectionsmt.org to find out about quality child care available in Beaverhead County.

Finding high quality care is not simple. Recommendations from other parents are places to start.

Here are some tips to assist in your search:

- Look for a place you feel good about. Explore whether there are planned activities to support learning. See if the environment is clean and safe.
- Ask yourself if your children will feel at home and comfortable even if they fall off the swing or lose their pet ladybug.
- Find out if the caregiver is knowledgeable about early childhood development.
- In a childcare home, also ask if caregivers have had a state and federal background check.
- All staff and volunteers in a licensed center are required to undergo a thorough criminal background check. The childcare you choose should be a good match for you and your child.
- Don't be shy about asking questions over the phone. If you are seeking childcare, you should make sure they are the center of activities designed to prepare for success in kindergarten and beyond. Also inquire about the daily routine, meals, snacks and how discipline is carried out.
- Ask to take a tour to observe the childcare center in action. See what happens if a child spills her milk or if two toddlers children want the same toy.
- Watch the children play. Do they seem lively, happy and engaged? Or are they watching TV, fighting over toys or sitting with little to do? There should be outside play every day with safe places for increasing physical skills.

Most of all remember your child was born ready to learn.

Early Childhood Services Bureau writes:

"The experiences that children have in the early years are the foundation for growth and development, and what they learn through these experiences are shaped by a child's family, community and schools. The building blocks for success in learning occurs before kindergarten. Families, communities, and schools all play a part in a child's school readiness by supporting the development of skills and positive behaviors, as well as enhancing the environments in which they spend their time."

In my many years of experience as a mom and an early childhood educator, I believe a high quality childcare center or home will help give your child a "best beginning" in school and help develop a life-long adventure in learning.

RE: Ladies Auxiliary to the Veterans of Foreign Wars Post 9040 Dillon, MT.

Bill Carroll Post 9040 has voted to start a Ladies Auxiliary to the VFW. We would like to invite you to join our Ladies Auxiliary.

The Ladies Auxiliary has nearly 500,000 members worldwide in 4,500 Post Auxiliaries. The organization wants to ensure that America's veterans will not be forgotten and that those who need assistance will get it. To help achieve those goals, each year donations are made from the National Organization to help make life better for a variety of people.

Ladies Auxiliary VFW members are, wives, widows, mothers, foster and stepmothers, grandmothers, daughters, granddaughters, foster and stepdaughters, sisters, half-sisters, foster and step sisters of persons who were or are eligible for membership in the Veterans of Foreign Wars of the United States.

Some of the programs the Ladies Auxiliary promotes are, Americanism, Cancer Aid & Research, Hospital Volunteers, Legislative, Service to Communities & Youth, Veterans & Family Support and Scholarships.

As a member of the VFW Ladies Auxiliary since 1977, I have joined P.J. Mahoney in helping to organize a Ladies Auxiliary here in Dillon. We are not just another organization, we not only help our veterans at home and abroad but also ourselves, our neighbors, our friends and our youth.

Please consider joining our new VFW Ladies Auxiliary. Give P.J. a call at 683-3590 or myself, Maureen at 683-6235.

Sincerely,

Patrick J. Mahoney

ROCKIN' R MERCANTILE, ANNOUNCES RETIREMENT SALE

Beginning June 10th, all items at Rockin 'R' Mercantile will be 20%, 30% and 50% off until all items gone.

Dillon's Ruby Montie announced Friday that she will be retiring and to celebrate, she will be liquidating her bead and jewelry store, Rockin' R Mercantile. Montie's retirement sale will begin on June 10th and go until all items are gone.

"Running my business in Dillon has been an incredible experience and one that I won't soon forget, but it's time for me to move on to the next phase of what life has for me," said Montie. "I have met hundreds of locals and hundreds of people from all over the country and world. Dillon is an undiscovered gem, and I had a first-hand view of the potential this community has to set an example for unique commerce and services that build a national and even international reputation."

Montie has been in business for eight years and looks forward to retirement with her husband Skip and dog Rusty.

RE: Ladies Auxiliary to the Veterans of Foreign Wars Post 9040 Dillon, MT.

Bill Carroll Post 9040 has voted to start a Ladies Auxiliary to the VFW. We would like to invite you to join our Ladies Auxiliary.

The Ladies Auxiliary has nearly 500,000 members worldwide in 4,500 Post Auxiliaries. The organization wants to ensure that America's veterans will not be forgotten and that those who need assistance will get it. To help achieve these goals, each year donations are made from the National Organization to help make life better for a variety of people.

Ladies Auxiliary VFW members are, wives, widows, mothers, foster and stepmothers, grandmothers, daughters, granddaughters, foster and stepdaughters, sisters, half-sisters, foster and step sisters of persons who were or are eligible for membership in the Veterans of Foreign Wars of the United States.

Some of the programs the Ladies Auxiliary promotes are, Americanism, Cancer Aid & Research, Hospital Volunteers, Legislative, Service to Communities & Youth, Veterans & Family Support and Scholarships.

As a member of the VFW Ladies Auxiliary since 1977, I have joined P.J. Mahoney in helping to organize a Ladies Auxiliary here in Dillon. We are not just another organization, we not only help our veterans at home and abroad but also ourselves, our neighbors, our friends and our youth.

Please consider joining our new VFW Ladies Auxiliary. Give P.J. a call at: 683-3590 or myself, Maureen at 683-6235.

Sincerely,

Patrick J. Mahoney
