Edith Low Nicoll Boothby

Edith Low Nicoll Boothby passed peacefully into Eternity at 6:11PM MDT on Wednesday, June 11, 2014 at Barrett Hospital in Dillon, MT. Full obituary to follow.

Jane Elizabeth "Marchesseau" Dodd

On June11, 2014, Jane Dodd joined family and friends in her eternal resting place.

Born on December 29, 1924 in Anaconda, Montana; Jane was the middle child of Frank and Matilda Marchesseau. She grew up in the Grasshopper Valley with her sister Delia, her brother Bud and numerous cousins. She was very proud of being a Marchesseau and from the Grasshopper. Jane attended grade school in Polaris and high school in Dillon.

December 23, 1950 she married James "Buster" Dodd. In 27 years of marriage they raised four children. Jane worked at the Dillon Tribune, various restaurants, McCracken's Western Store, and retired from Peterson Drug. She was instrumental in starting Special Education in Dillon with Matt Orr and Jim Womack. She was a member of St. James Episcopal church and the Dillon VFW. Jane loved life; she enjoyed camping, fishing, sewing, genealogy research, cooking and being with her family. Jane was most at peace when she was in the saddle on a horse. She enjoyed trail rides, Labor Day Parades or a ride to view the beautiful Montana countryside. One of Jane's proudest accomplishments was when she trained her horse "Danny" to kneel down so she could get on and off. Horses loved her as much as she loved them. In 2007 Jane moved to Whitehall to be closer to family. Her daughter, Jerri, fulfilled most every need, want and desire. She greatly enjoyed her trips back to Dillon to visit lifelong friends, including Don Peterson. Her son Clyde contributed immensely in her daily care and comfort.

Jane is survived by her daughters: Betty (Lewis) Blake of Billings; Jerri (David) Popelka of Whitehall; Delia Casey of Nashville, TN and her son Clyde Dodd of Whitehall. She is also survived by her grandchildren: Krista (Scott) Hanna, Steven (Joy) Blake; David (Annabelle) Blake, Daryl

Local Girls' State Delegates

Our four local delegates all held prestigious positions at last week's Girls' State session held at Carroll College and the State Capitol in Helena, which was sponsored by the American Legion Auxiliary. Three of them chose to run for elected office. They won in the Primary election on Monday and went on to win the majority of the 155 votes on Tuesday in the General election.

Jade D'Esposito was elected to the Chief Justice of the Supreme Court and presided over an appellant case presented on Thursday in the Supreme Court Chambers. Holly Anderson was also elected as one of the six Associate Justices, who also heard the case. Meanwhile, Jordan Peterson chose to run for a Public Service Commissioner and was elected from a large slate of candidates. As elected officials, the girls were sworn in by Justice Beth Baker in the Supreme Court Chambers. After lunch, the girls then went to the Governor's Reception Room in the Capitol, where they met the governor and their respective counterparts from the state of Montana. Later, they talked with their counterparts and toured their offices.

Meanwhile, Shelby Kluesner chose the justice system as well, although she took a different route. She was a witness in the mock court case. Held in the Old Supreme Court Chambers in the Capitol building, the mock court case involved approximately 30 girls and was about the death of a girl during a gang initiation. After the defendant was found guilty, different lawyers took the case to the Supreme Court where the Justices, among whom were D'Esposito and Anderson, directed that a new trial be held with certain evidence being thrown out.

All four girls were glad that they attended Girls' State and would recommend this opportunity to any upcoming junior in future years.

NATIVE PLANTS SOCIETY FIELD TRIP

On Saturday June 14, 2014, Calypso Chapter of the Montana Native Plants Society will sponsor a field trip in an area generally west of Dillon, off Hwy. 278 between Badger Pass and Big Hole Pass. Chapter member Eve Wills will lead this all-day venture involving up to three short (2-3 mile) hikes in different geologic settings. The flowers and views should be lovely.

Hikes will be moderately strenuous, partly off-trail in rocky terrain with significant elevation gain, so participants should be in good shape and used to rough terrain. Have sturdy footwear, layered clothing, rain wear, a lunch, snacks, and plenty of water. Participation is limited. For meeting time and place, email Eve ateveinmontana@gmail.com.
