ABOUT TOWN

Dillon E Womack is in town to visit his little grandmothers for a couple of days. His little dog (about town) Bentley was not very happy to see him. Dillon put wire up over the fence he has been jumping over.

SATURDAY EVENING FIRE

We do not have a report from the fire department as of yet, but from the looks of the fire scene it appears that a truck was on fire outside of Dillon Collision Center and then spread to the building. We will try to have a better report tomorrow.

MONTANA WESTERN DEBUTS LEARNING CAMP FOR KIDS

The University of Montana Western School of Outreach is set to begin a new day camp for kids entering second through sixth grade. X-Camp will give kids experiential learning opportunities in four areas over the course of four weeks: history, art, language and outdoor science. The camp is coordinated by teachers for students.

The camp runs July 14 through August 4, Monday through Friday 9 a.m. to 4 p.m., on the Montana Western campus. Parents can send their children to just one week, mix and match weeks or choose all four weeks.

July 14-18 is history week. Kids will learn about Lewis and Clark and explore some of Dillon's historic buildings, while finding out more about local history.

July 21-25 is all about the arts. Camp goers will take photos, paint and draw.

July 28 to Aug. 1 focuses on language. Children will learn phrases in different languages, try creative writing and learn some sign language.

Aug. 1-4, kids will wrap up camp with a week devoted to sciences and the outdoors. Kids will learn fly fishing basics, survival techniques and information about local wildlife.

Each week is $85. Register by July 8 and save $10 per week. For more details or to register, call 406-683-7537 or e-mail outreach@umwestern.edu.

Prayers for Military Peace Keepers at St. James Episcopal Church:

There will be a service honoring military personnel who have provided a peaceful nation for all of us. They may be active or veterans, at home or abroad. The service will be held at 12 noon on the first Wednesday of every month at St James Episcopal Church (203 E. Glendale). All are welcome; families, friends, military personnel and anyone who would like to thank and pray for all of the Armed Forces of the United States. The service is fairly brief and can fit into most lunch hours.

The next service will be Wednesday, July 2, 2014 at 12 noon. Any questions, call 683-2735. Please join us.

MAKING HISTORY DURING YOUR LIFETIME:

By: MJ

Have you ever given a thought to what will disappear and become part of history in your lifetime that you once thought was a necessity? Let's look at some examples.

The Post Office: E-mail, Fed Ex, and UPS have just about wiped out the revenue needed to keep the post office alive.

The Check: Plastic cards and on line transactions will lead to the eventual demise of the check.

The Newspaper: Will it go the way of the milkman? The younger generations read papers on line and do not pay for subscriptions however; papers on line are working with Apple, Amazon, and major cell phone companies to develop a paid subscription service.

The Book: Thought you would never give up holding that book in your hands. You might not want to however; the book will cost half the price to purchase on mobile internet devices or e-readers and with the flick of your finger you will have access to thousands of books to choose from.

The Land Line Telephone: Most people have cell phones and don't want to pay for another line.

Cursive Writing or Joined Handwriting: Some schools no longer teach cursive writing because so much is being done on computers or keyboards of some type.

Television: Today people are making their own choices on what they will watch or do. What people watched on TV yesterday they are now doing on computers; like movies and playing games, listening to music... Cable rates are skyrocketing and commercials run about every 4 minutes and 30 seconds.

"Things" You Own Today: Have you heard about "the cloud" and how it will change the "things" you use today. Example: Today your computer has a hard drive that you store information of all kinds on. Kind of like the books shelves we used to store books on that we no longer need. Apple, Microsoft and Google are putting the finishing touches on something called "the cloud." This means when you turn on your computer, the Internet will be built into the operating system. If you click on an icon, it will open something in the "Internet cloud." If you save something, it will be saved to the "cloud" also. You will probably pay a monthly subscription fee to the "cloud" provider. In this virtual world you will be able to access your, books, pictures, music and everything else you have on your computer.

Privacy: Privacy has been gone for a long time. There are cameras on streets, in buildings, in computers, on cell phones, hidden voice recorders, GPS coordinates and Google Street View. When you buy something your purchase is stored in billions of profile records that will later reflect your purchase in advertisements that will try to convince you to purchase more.

A book by Steve Knopper, "Appetite for Self-Destruction" explores this fascinating topic further. Businesses are fading into history and new entrepreneurs are replacing them.

Beaverhead-Deerlodge NF to Spray for Bark Beetles in Recreation Areas

The Forest Service will be applying insecticides in recreation sites throughout the Beaverhead-Deerlodge National Forest over the next few weeks. The need for this is driven by the current mountain pine beetle epidemic, which has heavily affected many areas throughout southwest Montana and has already impacted some individual trees within popular recreation areas.

If you are planning your annual family outing to the Beaverhead-Deerlodge National Forest, you may note that many of the recreation sites will look different than seen in years past or in the pictures that may have prompted your destination.

"We'll begin in late June with individual tree treatments in campgrounds, day-use areas and trailheads where we know a large majority of Forest visitors and users will be spending this summer," stated Bruce Schuelke, Reforestation Forester for the Forest. "To be effective, we must spray the green trees before the beetles fly again in mid-summer when they'll bore into and lay their eggs in new-found trees." In addition Schuelke stated, "Campground users will notice packets stapled to trees. These 2"x2" packets are Verbenone and/or MCH and are used to ward away bark beetles in areas that we cannot spray the Carbaryl pesticides because of being too close to water; please leave these packets in place to protect the trees".

Beginning late-June and continuing through late-July depending upon the weather, a Forest Service workforce and contract sprayers will be placing packets and spraying Carbaryl to protect individual pine trees from mountain pine beetles in recreation sites on the following ranger districts of the Beaverhead-Deerlodge National Forest:

Sites marked with () will be sprayed or have packets placed on trees to reduce impacts from bark beetles. Sites marked with (#) will be closed after Labor Day weekend for treatment and may have packets placed on trees to reduce impacts from bark beetles. Signs will be posted at locations where work is occurring with information on the chemical used, and closure period, including a potential time when the location can once again be used. Exposure of the public to Carbaryl spray, Verbenone packets and MCH packets should be minimal to non-existent.

Weather will affect the spraying schedule as application will not occur on windy or rainy days, nor will it be done within 75 feet of water. Picnic tables, fire pits and restroom doors will be covered with plastic during spraying.
