BUTTE, ANACONDA MEN CONVICTED IN ELK, DEER, SHEEP POACHING CASES

Two men were recently convicted in two separate poaching cases involving elk, deer and bighorn sheep in the Anaconda and Butte areas in 2012.

Montana Fish, Wildlife and Parks game wardens investigated, and in the first case, uncovered evidence of three illegally taken bull elk, one white-tailed deer and a bighorn sheep at an Anaconda residence.

The investigation began in April of 2013 when FWP wardens received information that Richard Bowen was in possession of a bighorn sheep skull as well as possible illegally taken elk and deer.

Game Wardens served a search warrant at Bowen's Anaconda residence where they recovered a trophy class bighorn sheep skull as well as other evidence of illegally taken wildlife. During the course of the investigation, wardens discovered several other violations that occurred during the 2012 hunting season.

Bowen pled no contest in District Court on June 11, 2014 to unlawful possession of bighorn sheep and deer and over-limit of elk. Bowen lost his hunting and fishing privileges for ten years, may not accompany anyone in the act of hunting, fishing or trapping during his 18 month suspended jail sentence, and must pay $1,500 in fines and $8,500 in restitution.

"This was blatant disregard for our resources and involved a complete lack of hunting ethics," said Game Warden Joe Kambic who led the investigation.

Two additional Anaconda men were cited for misdemeanor violations uncovered during the Bowen investigation.

A photograph seized during the Bowen investigation also prompted a second case and conviction

Randy Nicholls of Butte lost hunting and trapping privileges for four years after he was convicted of over limit of elk and transfer of license related to a bull elk he poached on Fleecer Mountain south of Butte in November 2012. His fines total $870 and restitution is $2,000. Nichols was convicted on April 7, 2014.

FWP reminds anyone with information about hunting and fishing violations, or other outdoor crimes to call 1-800-TIP-MONT (1-800-847-6668). Callers can remain anonymous and may be eligible for a reward up to $1,000 for providing information that leads to a conviction.

Barrett Hospital & HealthCare Named iVantage HEALTHSTRONG™ Top 100
Critical Access Hospital

Barrett Hospital & HealthCare in Dillon, MT was recently named one of the iVantage HEALTHSTRONG Top 100 Critical Access Hospitals (CAHs) in the United States.

"Barrett Hospital & HealthCare is extremely proud of the efforts of its physicians and staff who have contributed to our hospital achieving this designation again in 2014," said Ken Westman, CEO.

Barrett Hospital & HealthCare scored in the top 100 of Critical Access Hospitals on the iVantage Hospital Strength INDEX™. The INDEX is the industry's most comprehensive rating of US acute care hospitals, and the only one to include the country's 1,300 CAHs. The results recognize that the Top 100 Critical Access Hospitals provide a safety net to communities across rural America – measuring them across 66 different performance metrics, including quality, outcomes, patient perspective, affordability, population risk and efficiency. The list of the top 100 Critical Access Hospitals and more information about the study can be found at www.iVantageHealth.com.

"Rural healthcare deserves the same performance analysis as all provider performance. It plays a vital role for communities across America, serving nearly 80 million people. The services provided in rural America are similar to those needed in any major metropolitan area, yet the volumes and economic resources provide little economies of scale, making for little benefit from scale. These top 100 Critical Access Hospitals exhibit a focused concern for their community benefits and needs, regardless of scale, reimbursement and people's ability to pay," said John Morrow, executive vice president of iVantage Health Analytics.

Dillon Diamondbacks

This weekend the Dillon Diamondbacks traveled to Bozeman to play in their 2nd tournament of the summer. There were a total of 48 teams from Montana in several divisions. The Diamondbacks continued their solid play finishing 3rd in the ten-team U18 Division. The weekend was filled with rain delays and late nights waiting for schedule changes. However, we battled through pool play and advanced to the semi-finals late Sunday where we faced the tough Electric City Heat team from Great Falls. We lost a close one (4-7), but ended up taking the 3rd place trophy home! The outstanding Dillon players include: Kimee Hritsco-Murray, Bailey Berriochoa, Audrey Schurg, Brandi Lovaas and Karissa Coppin. The summer season has been very successful with Dillon earning some hardware and respect after winning the Anaconda tournament and placing top 3 in Bozeman. It feels good, and it's nice to see the girls doing so well and swelling with pride after all of the hard work they've put into this new Dillon

LEARN THE ART OF GOLD PANNING, SATURDAY, JULY 5

Do you know the difference between a bench placer and a stream deposit, a picker or a color? If you want to learn about gold mining for fun and profit then join us for an informative look at panning for gold. In July of 1862 the first major gold strike occurred on Grasshopper Creek and the gold rush to Montana was on. Although millions of ounces of gold have been mined in Montana, much gold remains to be found. The gold pan has been around for hundreds of years and is still an indispensable tool for prospecting and recovering gold. Learn where to look for gold and the different methods of using the gold pan. Gold pans and paydirt will be provided. Learn the art of gold panning from the knowledgeable staff at Bannack. This program will be held Saturday, July 5th at 2pm at the gold panning area at Bannack State Park.

Park hours are from 8:00am until dusk every day. The Visitor Center is open 9:00 am until 7:00 pm daily. Bannack State Park is located 25 miles southwest of Dillon, just 4 miles off Highway 278. If you would like more information please call the park at 834-3413 or email us at bannack@smtel.com.

Let's get together and take our country back...

Submitted by Chuck Dishno

Taken from a speech by Laura Hollis a professor at the University of Notre Dame

The unveiling of the dictatorial debacle that is Obamacare absolutely flabbergasts me. It is stunning on so many levels, but the most shocking aspect of it for me is watching millions of free Americans stand idly by while this man, his minions in Congress and his cheerleaders in the press systematically dismantle our Constitution, steal our money, and crush our freedoms.

The President, Nancy Pelosi and Harry Reid (with no small help from Justice John Roberts) take away our health care, and we allow it. They take away our insurance, and we allow it. They take away our doctors, and we allow it. They charge us thousands of dollars more a year, and we allow it. They make legal products illegal, and we allow it. They cripple our businesses, and we allow it. They announce by fiat that we must ignore our most deeply held beliefs - and we allow it.

The President is not a king. Barack Obama does not behave like a President, an elected official, someone who realizes that he works for us. He behaves like a king, a dictator - someone who believes that his own pronouncements have the force of law, and who thinks he can dispense with the law's enforcement when he deigns to do so. And those of us who object? How dare we? Racists!

And all the while he moves steadily "forward" with his plans to "fundamentally transform" the greatest country in human history.

Did Obama lie when he said dozens of times, "If you like your plan, you can keep it. Period!"? Of course he did. That's what he does.

And now with a half dozen scandals facing us, from Benghazi all the way thru to the illegal children coming across our porous borders, something that he knew about two months ago, he says there is not a "smidgen" of truth in them. Just look at the IRS debacle and try to get away with telling your IRS agent that the dog ate my tax records. Shame, shame on Obama and his cronies.

And, we were wrong.

We said that things couldn't get much worse after the sub par presidency of George W. Bush.

But, President Barack Obama's administration has us yearning for the good ol' days when we were at least winning battles in Iraq.

The latest NBC/Wall Street Journal polls show that Americans are giving Obama lower marks than in 2006 when Iraq was going poorly for Bush and a tepid response to Hurricane Katrina sunk Bush's ratings.

It's not that popularity polling should be the final or even best measure of a president. There is that old saw that points out there's a difference between doing what is right and what is popular.

For us, though, it's the number of bungled or blown policies in the Obama administration which lead us to believe Obama has earned every bit of an abysmal approval rating.

Let's recap some of the mistakes:

- Maybe the worst and most widespread invasion of privacy occurred when the Obama administration continued a controversial National Security Agency program of spying on millions of citizens culling their phone records to intercepting online information. The administration has done nearly nothing to safeguard civil liberties or put in safeguards to protect our Constitutionally guaranteed freedoms.

- The Obama administration has continued to ratchet down on emissions from coal-fired power plants while giving consumers little new innovation to replace the power supply. Meanwhile, Obama continues to thwart other energy projects that might be helpful to the economy, like the Keystone XL pipeline. The war on carbon might not be so bad if indeed it was being counterbalanced by true innovation.

- Iraq was an inherited quagmire from the Bush administration. But six years later, Obama has to own the current situation which, as this is being written, looks perilously close to civil war and a complete breakdown of government in Iraq. If that were to happen, the sacrifice of thousands of Americans' lives would be cheapened, if not in vain. His handling the situation seems uncertain and we can't help but wonder if the same type of inaction will lead to a civil war similar to Syria's?

- The Bowe Bergdahl situation is an example of right instinct, completely wrong handling of a prisoner exchange. The Obama administration should be lauded for not wanting to leave any American soldier behind. But, surprising Congress, trading possible terrorists and not doing enough to vet the background of Bergdahl had the net effect of looking incompetent. What should have been an easy public relations victory for bringing a lost soldier home turned into a public relations nightmare, and continued to erode public confidence, leading some to wonder if Obama's team can't even get something as important as bringing home a captive soldier correct, what can it be successful at?

- The VA scandal showed that wait times for veterans access to health care was so bad that some veterans actually died before they could get the medical care they were entitled to. While the VA system was not invented by the Obama administration, after six years of management, it's clear that problems were not be corrected quickly enough and that our nation was not living up to the promise it made to take care of soldiers. The most recent debacle led to the sacking of retired Gen. Eric Shinseki, but it was another black eye for the administration which appeared to look incompetent when it comes to taking care of wounded, or in-need veterans.

- Speaking of health care, Obama had also pledged that his administration would embrace new stem cell technology, and part of the hope and change we heard so much about would happen as lives improved through medical innovation. But as his presidency has continued, we see little evidence that Obama is pushing for new cures, science or solutions when it comes to medical problems.

- For years now, reports by watchdog organizations and journalists that have shown despite Obama's promises of being more transparent, his administration has actually cracked down on journalists, spied on citizens and retaliated against those who leak information to the press. In fact, the Obama administration has become so opaque and difficult that it has earned the reputation of being far worse than Nixon, the disgraced president whose terrible clampdown of information led to federal law being changed for more transparency.

- Finally, Obamacare has become synonymous with boondoggle. To be fair, there has not been enough time to judge whether the comprehensive health care reform program works, but one thing is certain: The public presentation and roll-out of the program was so riddled with technical glitches and problems, it greatly undermined the public's confidence in the system.

These are all signs — none of them definitive on their own, necessarily. However, when taken in completely, these demonstrate a disturbing trend of incompetence and failure. It's not just that Americans are in a sour mood about national politics. That's probably part of it. Instead, Obama has become another in a line of presidents long on rhetoric and hopelessly short on action.

Obama's hope and change have left liberals and conservatives alike hoping for real change, not just more lofty rhetoric.
