COWBOY POETS TO PERFORM AT BANNACK

Saturday, July 12th at 7 pm in the old church Rick Kuntz, Val Prophet, Ron Russell and his wife Charlie will be performing their original poetry and music. Inspired by life experiences and by the people they have known this trio of cowboy poets have been writing and reciting great cowboy poems for many years.

Rick was born and raised in the Yellowstone River Valley at Custer, Montana. He has been writing and reciting cowboy poetry since 1990 and has been a featured performer at the Montana Cowboy Poetry Gathering in Lewistown and also at the Cowboy Poets of Idaho Gathering in Salmon, Idaho. Now ranching along Grasshopper Creek Rick has some great stories to share.

Val Prophet, a former Bannack resident and miner, has lived in Beaverhead County most of his life and taught art at the Dillon Middle School for 30 years, he is currently a noted auctioneer. Val has been writing songs and poems for 50 years and has a unique perspective on Bannack.

Ron Russell and his wife Charlie from Wise River will entertain you with their unique renditions of some of the little known but great old cowboy poems and songs. Ron grew up in Wyoming and has been a real cowboy all his life and still works today on a ranch.

Be sure to catch these remarkable cowboy poets to hear about their latest, greatest adventure - in verse, of course! Bring your family and friends for a great evening of entertainment. All Saturday programs are free, out of state vehicles pay a $5.00 park admission fee. Park hours are 8 a.m. to 9 p.m. every day. For more information call the park at 834-3413.

Letter to the Editor

In defense of my letter to the editor printed on July 1st.
Last Wednesday, La Von Brillhart responded to my posting, indicating that I have no memory of the "good old days".

For your information, La Von, I do remember the good old days. I remember when gasoline was $1.35 per gallon before when Obama took office and not the almost $4.00 now. I remember when Social Security was called Social Security, not an entitlement and the money was untouchable, not being "borrowed" by the Democrats, never to be paid back. I remember when a president didn't act like a spoiled brat when he didn't get his way, saying, "I have a pen and a phone, and regardless of what congress says I am going to do it anyway." I remember when drilling for our own oil and digging for coal was not a sin as the Obama administration seems to look at it now. I remember when becoming a U.S. citizen was an honor that a person earned by studying the constitution and giving up the citizenship of the country you came from.

My great grand parents came down from Quebec my wife's father came from China and they all worked hard for the honor to be called a U.S. Citizen. They didn't want or demand that they were given everything free. The illegal's that are pouring across the Southern border demand amnesty and contribute virtually nothing to the economy of our United States.

In 1976, Roz and three of our children visited Philadelphia for the 200th anniversary of the U.S... After watching a 7 hour parade, we were walking back to our motel. It was 2 pm and we were just about to enter a Chinese restaurant when I stopped and said, "Let's listen here for a few minutes." At exactly 2 pm bells started ringing all over the city and all over the country. All ringing in unison to celebrate our hard won freedom. I stood there with tears running down my cheeks, overwhelmed by the unity that existed as our citizens came together in that one moment to celebrate and pay homage to all who had sacrificed so much in order for us to be free.

Oh, yes, La Von, I am a proud American and I do remember. I don't want to give up our hard won freedom to a bunch of freeloaders.

President Obama doesn't seem to want to lead the greatest nation that ever existed. He is leading from behind. A Revolutionary general, at the Battle of Bunker Hill, said, "Don't shoot until you see the whites of their eyes." Mr. Obama doesn't see it that way; he seems to be saying "Don't do anything until you see the enemy retreating."

Mr. Brillhart, these are my opinions and as an American I am granted the freedom of speech as are you.

You and I will never agree on many things but that doesn't mean that we cannot be friends. That is what makes these United States so great. God Bless America.

Chuck Dishno

Dillon DAV Ride Program Continues

Thomas W. Straugh, Local Area Coordinator

There has been a slug of bad publicity regarding the Veterans Administration (VA) lately and some has been well deserved. When the numbers are fraudulent, when appointments are made with no ability to keep them, when people perish due to lack of health care, there are changes that need to be made. In spite of that bleak picture, when I asked the veterans who attended the Legislative Information Session on June 4th to raise their hands if their personal experience with the VA was good everyone showed a raised hand. There is good care available through the VA.

If you are a veteran, have a VA approved medical appointment and can get into the van by yourself, the DAV van is providing free rides. While the main service is to either Fort Harrison or Anaconda, We have taken veterans to Missoula, Billings, Bozeman, and Butte for medical appointments. Call 660-1294 to schedule a ride to your appointment. By the way, if you would like to have a care giver accompany you to your appointment, you can.

There is one van stationed in Dillon. The system is set up on a first come, first served basis. The system works better when you call at least 3 work days before your appointment. It also works better when your appointment is between 1000 and 1330.

If you have a choice when you are making an appointment, please ask for a Tuesday or Thursday for Fort Harrison and Wednesday for Anaconda. Sometimes you just don't have a choice. Make the appointment and give a call to 660-1294 and I'll see if I can make the schedule work.

There are vans stationed in Butte and Anaconda which also take veterans to medical appointments. If the Dillon van is already scheduled and you give enough lead time, they may be able to help.

There are 10 drivers currently active in the Dillon group. If you are in reasonable health and would like to become a driver, please call 660-1294. I'll explain the system and give you the paperwork necessary to start your application. There is something very satisfying about driving a veteran to a medical appointment and back home.
