What's Happening at the Dillon Farmers' Market?

By Katie Bump

The Dillon Farmers' Market enters week three of the season on July 12. How are all those sunflowers growing? Are you one of the 62 people who planted the seeds for the Summer Sunflower Celebration? Are they knee-high, waist-high, or shoulder-high? Get 'em growin' - only nine weeks until the September 6 showdown, where three champions will be crowned.

This Saturday at the Kids Corner there will be finger painting for kids of all ages, thanks to volunteers from UM Western's Campus Community Garden. (Yes, there will be wash water and towels available.) You can still buy a bright yellow Farmers' Market shopping bag for $5.00 - the perfect fashionable shopper's accessory. What's in YOUR bag?

Garden produce is coming on. In the last two weeks we had early-season greens, like rhubarb, lettuce, spinach, chives, garlic scapes, and even some asparagus and beets. In week three and beyond we expect a much wider selection. In addition to our local produce vendors, the market welcomes Don Heffner's Volcanic Farms of Emmett, ID again this year. Other items of culinary interest are spice blends by Mary Ann Wofford, Bump's powdered garlic, Smoked meat, sausage and that great jalapeño-cheese dip from G.O.'s Jerky Barn, a variety of jelly and jam and baked goods of all kinds. Keep an eye out for those ranch fresh eggs - they sell out fast!

If you like homemade pie, be sure to stop by Karen Chandler's Happy Hen table, and sign up for a chance to win a free pie. After making more than 4,000 pies Karen is celebrating 10 years of happiness by giving away a pie each week this year. Adding up all those 9-inch pies, Karen has produced 3,000 feet of pies for us. End-to-end, the line of pies would be as long as a football field! Her mom and grandma, who taught how to make a pie, would be SO proud. Lori Dubois and Victoria Tomaryn each won a pie of their choice in the last two weeks. You could be a winner, too - there are twelve more market weekends!

There is such a variety of items at the market, made by your neighbors and friends, you will want to grab a cup of Montana Morning Coffee and browse all the tables. Whether you are looking for something for yourself, or a Montana-made gift, you'll have choices in jewelry, soap, items sewn, embroidered, crochet, or knitted, pho-

Montana East-West Shrine Game

The 68TH Annual Montana East-West Shrine Game will be played July 19, 2014 in Laurel, MT. The Montana Shrine Game is the premier all-star game in Montana and has a long history of distinguished players and coaches. It is one of the oldest high school all-star football games in the United States. Every year since 1947, Montana high schools' finest players are selected to compete in a game to raise money and to help make the public aware of the expert orthopedic and burn care available at the Shriner's Hospital for Children in Spokane, Washington. In recent years, the Montana game has become one of the top Shrine Games in the nation for hospital donations. The 2013 Montana Shrine Game raised $146,000, the top donation in the United States to date.

This year's game will have an international flavor. Two players from Calgary, Alberta have been selected to participate in the game and showcase their talents against the best of Montana. One gridder will play for each Montana team.

Troy Purcell has been selected as head coach of the East Team. He's been the head coach for Bozeman High since 2005. Troy is a Helena Capital High graduate and played football for Carroll College. Prior to moving to Bozeman. This is his third stint as head coach for the Shrine Game, winning for the East in 2005 and the West in 2011.

Rick Nordahl of Beaverhead County High School in Dillon is the selection for the West Team. Rick is a first year head coach in Dillon, winning the state A championship this year. He is also a Helena Capital High graduate and attended U of M Western where he was a standout in wrestling and rodeo for the Bulldogs. Prior to taking the helm at Dillon, Rick was assistant coach there for 23 years. He coached in the Shrine game four times prior to accepting the head position this year. Coach Steve Vezina will be assisting Rick.

Players were nominated by their schools and coaches across the state, and finally selected as the "best of the best" to participate in the 68th Montana Shrine Game. They join an elite fraternity of players, many of whom have gone on to distinguished collegiate and professional careers.
