Prevent Equipment Caused Wildfires

Haying and crop harvesting are under way across Montana. Your local firefighters are asking you to be cautious while operating equipment this summer.

To avoid starting a wildfire: Inspect and maintain equipment. Avoid parking or driving in tall grass. Make certain you have water, a fire extinguisher and shovel with you.

If a fire does get out of control call 911 immediately.

This message is brought to you by the Montana Department of Natural Resources & Conservation, Bureau of Land Management, and Forest Service.

BOUNCY HOUSE

The organizers of the Summer Sizzler are sorry to announce that the Bouncy House has been cancelled. They received a letter from the City yesterday that said the city's insurance would not allow the bouncy house on city property. They are sorry for the late notice and for the lose of this event for the children.

Letter to the Editor

Mr. Dishno, in regards to the so called, "good old day's". Yes, I remember the old days, but I am not sure they were "good." When I was a kid gasoline was 19 cents a gallon and then I remember gas being 25 cents for a long time. When I was in high school I worked for 75 cents an hour. My first teaching position I received $2,500 for the entire year.

But Mr. Dishno I don't know where you got your information about gas prices. When George W. Bush took office, gas was $1.60 a gallon. When George W. Bush left office it was $4.40 a gallon. That was an increase of 275%. By the way who controls the price of oil and gas?

You also mention that President Obama acts like a spoiled Brat! Are you referring that he is intelligent? That he can speak in complete sentences? He is willing to work with all people? Are you referring he has brought us out of two illegal wars that cost thousands of lives and over $2 trillion dollars of tax money?

You mention Social Security. You are just half right!! Both the Democrats and the Republicans have "borrowed" money from the Social Security funds and spent it on whatever!

You also mention about the illegal's coming to this country. Do you remember what group created this problem many years ago? Oh, yes, the Republicans and their rich friends so they could have cheap labor.

Mr. Dishno, you always sound like I don't think you are an "American." I have never questioned you Patriotism.! I have never said that you were not an American. I just don't like the fact that most of your facts are not factual!!

Best wishes for the "gold old days."

A PLACE CALLED PALESTINE

For some time now I've enjoyed occasionally watching the French News Channel, which gives a much more European image of the world debate. Having spent about half of my life in Europe I have an appreciation of European attitudes.

Today I was watching a debate about the situation again blowing up in Israel. At one point an Israeli commentator mentioned that in 1948 there was no nation state called Palestine. At that time the UN declared that Great Britain should create a space in the region of Palestine to create the Jewish national state of Israel. He went on to say that since there was no national state called Palestine at the time (1948) there was no basis for a call for Israel to return to pre-1967 borders because there were really no Palestinian borders.

While that may be somewhat true it goes nowhere towards solving the present problems in the Middle East.

Prior to WWI there were no national states in the whole Middle East. The whole area was just a part of the Ottoman Empire. After WWI the area was divided up between Great Britain and France creating the present borders. Prior to 1948 there was neither an area of land nor a nation state called Israel; but there was a place called Palestine, inhabited almost solely by Palestinians. The State of Israel had not existed for almost 2000 years and the Jews had been scattered throughout the know world.

If there is ever going to be any chance for peace in the Middle East the Jews are going to have to recognize that there was a place called Palestine.

Johannes Soyland, Ph.D.
