Mid-July Weekend Programs at Lewis & Clark Caverns State Park - July 17, 18, & 19

Join us-Montana State Parks (stateparks.mt.gov) for a variety of Summer Weekend Program offerings at Lewis & Clark State Park on July 17, 18, and 19.

Thursday, July 17 at 8pm. As summer progresses we still have some fantastic offerings at Lewis & Clark Caverns State Park. This week our programs start with a chance to see "Cave Rocks in a New Light." Montana State Parks Ranger Tom Forwood will give visitors a chance to have a hands-on interaction with some formations (Speleothems), which is forbidden in the actual cave. Visitors will learn how they form and what makes them grow in different ways and with different colors. This is a fantastic program for park visitors of all ages to experience cave formations as you never have before.

What: Cave Rocks in a New Light

When: Thursday, July 17 at 8pm

Where: Campground Amphitheater, Lewis & Clark Caverns State Park

Friday, July 18 at 8pm. let your voice be heard loud and clear while singing tunes in the London Hills. Janet Zimmerman from Pony, Montana returns to Lewis & Clark Caverns State Park to share her vocal talents and inspire others to sing along with "Songs We Used to Sing." Song selections vary from folksongs to gospel, patriotic to secular. Complimentary songbooks are provided.

What: Songs We Used to Sing

When: Friday, July 18 at 8pm

Where: Campground Amphitheater, Lewis & Clark Caverns State Park

Saturday, July 19 at 9pm. Ever wonder what's behind Cave Mountain? Join Park Ranger Tom Forwood for a hike up an old fire road for a view into the undeveloped area of the park behind Cave Mountain. This hike will cover less than two miles through mostly forested terrain. Some sections are steep so good footwear and water is recommended. As always sunscreen, camera and binoculars suggested as we never know what we might see. We will meet at the Main Visitor Center at 9AM and drive to the trailhead from there. Please be sure to have some form of transportation.

What: Old Fire Road Hike

When: Saturday, July 19 at 9am

Where: Meet at the Park's Main (lower) Visitor Center, drive from there to the trailhead.

For directions or more information about Lewis & Clark Caverns State Park visit:

These programs are free to Montana residents and those registered to camp that evening in the park's campground. There is a $5 per vehicle entrance fee for any non-residents

BANNACK DAYS TO BE HELD JULY 19 and 20

Each year during the third weekend in July the old ghost town of Bannack comes alive in a celebration of pioneer life. This year, the annual Bannack Days Festival will be held on July 19 and 20. Activities will begin 9 a.m. Saturday and run until 5 p.m., then from 9 a.m. until 4:30 p.m. Sunday. Some of those activities include: horse and wagon rides, shootouts, gold panning and candle making. Plus, guests can enjoy cowboy poetry and old time music throughout both days. Visitors can also check out a mountain men camp, blacksmith shop, surveyor's camp, the Great Debate on women's suffrage, and a 1800s U. S. Cavalry camp. There is something for everyone, along with plenty of tasty food and drink.

The stagecoach from Virginia City will be arriving at 1 p.m. on Sunday. Rumor has it that Governor Edgerton and other dignitaries will be aboard along with a big gold shipment. Road Agent activity has been noted recently along the Bannack to Virginia City road. The Vigilantes have issued notice that anyone caught engaging in criminal activity will be the guest of honor at a necktie party! Sunday is a great day to visit as the crowds are smaller and the old time church services and the stage holdup are on Sunday only.

Wiser with Age?

By: MJ

Do we get wiser as we get older? Everyone has their own opinion on this. Following is some of my thoughts and a borrowed one from Mayo Angelou.

Mayo Angelou said once that she learned as she aged that you could tell a lot about people by watching them interact with several sets of tangled Christmas tree lights, how they handle a rainy day and lost luggage. I have learned that she is right on the money.

Life has taught me that: 1) I don't have to win every argument. 2) To cry with someone because it's more healing than crying alone. 3) It is futile to resist chocolate. 4) I have learned not to compare my life to others because having not walked in their shoes I have no idea what their life is or has been like (could be a whole lot worse than mine). 5) I have learned to burn the candles, use the nice sheets, set table with the china and wear the fancy lingerie... 6) Everything about your life can change in the blink of an eye so over prepare, then go with the flow.

Chose life, chose to forgive and laugh. Time heals everything so take the time to allow the healing process. No matter how you feel; Get up, Get dressed, and Show up.

BRINGING HOPE

"And a good time was had by all!" the cancer survivor dinner was awesome from start to finish. The food was delicious, the service was great and the love and care was everywhere! Thank you Russ and Judy for a wonderful evening. You and all your helpers made all of us feel so special. Thanks to each survivor and care giver who came and helped make the evening special. Next is the relay on July 25 & 26 - come on out Dillon folks and join us for an evening of fun and support for all those with cancer and in memory of those whose journey has ended - Let's show how Dillon supports its own!
