WINDEN FAMILY REQUESTS MEMORIALS BE GIVEN FOR VERY SPECIAL REQUEST

During their father, Lloyd's, stay at Barrett Hospital, the Winden family realized that there were often many people spending time in the double-occupancy Hospice room but one thing was lacking - background music. A lover of music throughout his life, Lloyd inspired his children and their spouses to talk about what they as a family could do to remedy this issue. Certain that many other families noticed the same thing and could benefit from the comfort of hearing well-loved music, Lloyd's daughter, Jennifer Hanson, approached Barrett Hospital Foundation after Lloyd's passing about earmarking memorials made in memory of Lloyd for a specific purpose.

Many memorials were received for this well-loved and respected community member, and subsequently, the Foundation was able to purchase a sound system that had the capability to receive hundreds of channels of Internet radio music. In addition to the sound system, a plaque was made to honor

MARK TWAIN TO SPEAK AT BANNACK
 Saturday, July 26 at 2:00 pm in the Old Church at Bannack the legendary humorist and lecturer Mark Twain, as portrayed by Michael Delaney, will appear. This first person presentation is sure to please you. In Mark Twain's day, the public lecture was the most popular form of entertainment and Mark Twain was arguably the most popular practitioner of the art. In this living history presentation, Michael Delaney presents Mark Twain and his recollections of the five city "lecture raid" Twain made on the state in 1895. As Twain he also recounts the chance encounter, some thirty years before the Montana lecture tour, with the notorious Virginia City desperado "Bad" Jack Slade. While largely biographical, the discourse reflects Twain's conviction that the facts should never trespass unnecessarily on a good story.

In addition to working in theaters and two years as the village Mark Twain in the Hannibal, Missouri, historical district, Michael Delaney has appeared as Twain in conventions, riverboat landings, celebrations, school programs, the 160th anniversary of the newspaper where young Sam Clemens apprenticed, museums, testimonials, frog jumping contests, and music festivals.

Park hours are from 8:00am until dusk every day. The Visitor Center is open 9:00 am until 7:00 pm daily. Bannack State Park is located 25 miles southwest of Dillon, just 4 miles off Highway 278. If you would like more information please call the park at 834-3413.

MONTANA SHAKESPEARE IN THE PARKS IN DILLON JULY 27

Montana Shakespeare in the Parks will perform "As You Like It" in Dillon's Jaycee Park on Sunday, July 27 at 6 p.m.

"It is an immense honor to have the opportunity to serve the Rocky Mountain community in our continued tradition of providing excellence in theatre for the variety of rural communities across the region," said Kevin Asselin, MSIP's new artistic director.

Asselin, who has been with MSIP in various roles for 12 years as tour actor, educator, fight choreographer and director, now heads the company and will direct this year's production of "As You Like It." Asselin will set the play in Butte, Mont., during the tumultuous years of the Copper Kings and union conflicts.

This is the 42nd season for the touring company, whose performances have become a summer tradition and seasonal highlight for many rural communities around the state. This year the troupe expects to carry out 75 performances in 59 communities in the region.

A complete schedule of the 10-week tour can be found at www.montana.edu/shakespeare. All performances of Montana Shakespeare in the Parks (MSIP), with the exception of those at Bozeman's Sweet Pea Festival, are free and tickets are not needed for admission. Audiences are encouraged to show up prior to the appointed curtain time with chairs, blankets, a picnic supper, and friends and family to enjoy the evening.

Montana Shakespeare in the Parks is an outreach program of Montana State University's College of Arts and Architecture. This season's major sponsors include: the Paul G. Allen Family Foundation, Subaru, NorthWestern Energy, the Gianforte Family Foundation, ADOUR, Stillwater Mining, The Dennis and Phyllis Washington Foundation, Barnard Construction, Elise Donohue Double D Ranch, KBZK, Yellowstone Public Radio, Treacy Foundation, Montana Cultural Trust, the Montana Arts Council, and the Gilhousen Family Foundation.
