Michael Donald Richardson

Michael Donald Richardson passed unexpectedly in the early morning hours of July 24, 2014 in Dillon, Montana. He was born to Donald and Norita Richardson in Deer Lodge, amidst a wild Montana evening thunderstorm, on July 13, 1957. Mike was a modern renaissance man with a boundless curiosity and enthusiasm for life. He utilized every minute he had available to him as fully as he could.

In his youth, Mike loved to work the family's Rock Creek Lake mine with his Grandpa Pitman. By the age of 8, he was driving vehicles, operating heavy equipment, and mastering the use of handguns and rifles; those early skills formed the foundation for Mike's entire work and recreational lives. Mike loved the outdoors. He got away every chance he could to ride his dirt bike up in the mountains, whether alone or with one of his several lifelong friends. He also enjoyed his road bike, his inventions, and his many vehicular projects, and was an avid reader and lifelong autodidact.

Mike joined the Army in 1976 as a Military Policeman. He served in Heidelberg, Germany, and was honorably discharged in 1979. He then served a stint in the Montana National Guard, simply because he wanted to play at driving tanks. He returned to Deer Lodge and spent some time as a correctional officer at Montana State Prison. He then spent a little time working for the Montana Forestry Division and as a log truck driver. Mike saw the entire continental USA through the windshields of 18 wheelers; he was very proud of his nearly 4 million accident free miles. Mike owned an ammunition company for several years; he was a first rate gunsmith, and was a certified weapons instructor. He spent many years as a heavy equipment operator across the western U.S. and as a proud partner in an underground construction company; if you gave him an hour with any piece of equipment, Mike would be running it like a pro. He gave credit to his uncle, Harley Pitman, for his skill with trucks and equipment, and to his father for his vast knowledge of all things gun related and his exceptional abilities as a mechanic. At the time of his death, Mike was happily employed as an outside plant inspector at Heberly and Associates in Havre.

In 1984, Mike met his once-in-a-lifetime love, Eileen Hellie Smith. He married her and her daughter Jill on September 13, 1986. He was overjoyed at the birth of his son Colton in 1993. Michael believed that the true measure of a man is made through the eyes of his family. Consequently, he worked very hard to be a great husband, father, son, brother, uncle and friend, to great effect and with tremendous success. He was a giant of a man with a heart and spirit to match his physical size. We're sure going to miss him.

Mike was preceded in death by his grandparents, Harley and Nora Pitman and Philip and Katherine Richardson, his Uncles Gene, Robert, and Charles Richardson and Aunt Lou-

Goat Flats Wildflower Heaven
 On Saturday, August 2, 2014, Calypso Chapter of the Montana Native Plants Society will sponsor a hike into Goat Flats above Storm Lake, west of Anaconda, led by chapter member Sherry Vogel. We're headed for an alpine jewel-meadows with an incredible variety of wildflowers not seen at lower elevations. This is a moderately difficult, seven mile round trip with switchbacks and some altitude gain. Bring layered clothing/rain gear, water, lunch, and snacks for a full-day outing. Meet at Storm Lake at 9:30 AM. Car-pooling will be available at 8:00 AM at the Montana Tech parking lot beside the library. Drive through Anaconda on Highway 1, turn left (south) at the Storm Lake sign. Follow the road for 9 miles, bearing left at all forks in the road. It is slow going, so give yourself lots of time to get to the trail head by 9:30. The last part of the road is rough and best suited to high-clearance vehicles. If coming from the West and wanting to carpool, contact Sherry. Info and to RSVP: Sherry Vogel (406) 560-6184 or sherryv@ncat.org.

Logging Begins Near Philipsburg, Montana

The Pintler Ranger District is advising travelers in the East Fork Reservoir area that log removal from the "Spillway Salvage" project - in the Spillway Campground - will begin southwest of Philipsburg on Forest Service road #672 (East Fork Road) and road #5154 (Meadow Creek Road). Travelers to this area are advised to drive cautiously because of log truck traffic and machinery and to expect short delays along road #5154 through December 2014.

Maggie Magee Montana State Old Time Junior Champion Fiddler

For the second year running, Maggie Magee, daughter of Beth Sullivan and Jim Magee, won the title of Montana State Old Time Junior Champion Fiddler at the state-wide contest held in Choteau, Montana on June 26th. In addition to defending her Montana title successfully, Magee received the National Certified Junior Fanciest Fiddler award for 2014 earlier this summer in Weiser, Idaho. In order to qualify to be in the certified division at the national contest, a contestant must have won a qualified championship the previous year. This means that the outgoing, vivacious fifteen year old will be eligible to compete again in the certified division next year at nationals.

Magee, a 7 year member of the Dillon Junior Fiddlers organization, says she practices approximately 3 hours a day in preparation for a contest. She prefers performing and jamming to contesting, in spite of her successes. Perfecting her ability to play her fiddle while twirling a hula-hoop has delighted local and national audiences. She designed this skill to surprise her local fiddle teacher, Sandy James, at the annual Dillon Fiddle Contest in 2013. Magee currently studies with Megan Lynch Chowning of Nashville, Tennessee, utilizing online teaching opportunities. She recently attended the Fiddle Star Youth Camp in Tennessee studying with Lynch-Chowning in person. She will participate in the Grand Targhee Music Camp later this summer. Magee credits her fiddling successes to "getting to play with my friends at jams and my lessons with Sandy and Megan". Considering a career in Music Education, Magee is a sophomore at Beaverhead County High School where she will be a Teen Tone, plays volleyball, and tennis, and is a member of the Speech and Drama Team.

Also a Dillon Junior Fiddler member, Daniel Kadrmas, son of Amy and Brad Kadrmas, received the third place Pee-wee Division award at the Choteau contest. The eight year old endeared himself to contest organizers by making friends with other young people in his division and then asking, ten year old Hayden Farnes of Kalispell to help accompany him on guitar for his final round. Fred Buckley, President of the Montana Old-Time Fiddlers Association, said, "This is why we have a contest. What better way to insure the perpetuation of our folk music than to enjoy playing together at such a young age."
