Patrick James Kluesner

Patrick James Kluesner past away Sunday, July 27th, 2014 at his home in Elliston, MT. Celebration of life will be held Monday, August 4th at 4 p.m. at the High School gym in Elliston.

Notice from the City police Department

City police would like people be aware of what they believe to be a scam. There have been people going around lately door to door selling a variety of things or just asking for donations for teams that do not exist in this community. You may be well advised to ask for a name and number and check on who you are donating to before you give your hard earned money away.

Compounding pharmacy can tailor medications to the individual

As Reported to The Billings Gazette

As good as traditional pharmacies are at dispensing just what the doctor ordered, they can't always be exactly right.

There can be a "real art and science" to getting just the right medication or the right dosage for some people, said Colleen Baker, who owns and operates Morgan Creek Compounding Pharmacy in Billings.

If a person has a hard time swallowing pills, for example, their medication can be prepared in a syrup or a topical lotion. Some people are also more comfortable with more natural ingredients in their medications.

Baker also prepares medications for animals, including cats, dogs and once a pet salamander. The salamander needed an antibiotic. For humans, the dose would be 500 milligrams. For a sick salamander, the dose is closer to one milligram.

"That's something we do, we do what's right for the patient," said Baker.

Morgan Creek Compounding Pharmacy is at 71 25th St. W., Suite 2, and may be reached at 294-6227 or through its website, Morgancreekrx.com.

Exploring Montana's Pioneer Mountains

Leroy Friel, retired Montana Tech Engineering Professor, and explorer of the Pioneer Mountains will be signing copies of his book Saturday, August 2nd from 1:00-3:00 pm at The Bookstore.

"Exploring the Pioneer Mountains" is a labor of love for the author. Although he has been into several mountain ranges in Southwest Montana, he concentrated on hiking to every lake in the Pioneers. (and some of them ten to fifteen times)

This book provides you with the inside scoop on tips for the best fishing holes and hiking trails. You will also read about the best places to see wildflowers, wildlife, historic sites and the star of the show is Montana's magnificent scenery.

Friel's insights will be a welcome aid for those looking for a quiet getaway within an easy drive from Dillon, Butte, Bozeman, Helena and Missoula.

To reserve your copy or if you have any questions call The Bookstore 683-6807

OLD TIME BARN DANCE AT BANNACK

Saturday, August 2 at 7:00pm an assemblage of musicians, "The Best of Bannack", will play at the Group Use Shelter at Bannack. This talented group of musicians have been playing at Bannack Days for many years and will be performing old time dance music covering the period from 1862, the year gold was discovered on Grasshopper Creek, through the early 20th century. Dell's own Wally Congdon has brought together an incredible group of musicians including folks from "Packin' The Mail", Dan Seeley of River-ton, Wyoming via Salmon, Idaho, "Barbed Wire" with John Bacon of Dillon and Will Hensleigh of Colstrip, the Montana Lost Cowboy Band and the Gilmore City Council of Salmon, Idaho Falls and Ledore, and the Williams family band from Toston, MT. Some of the tunes they will be playing are; Listen to the Mocking Bird, Buf-falo Gals, Hometown Jubilee, Soldier's Joy and a myriad of others. Dance, listen or visit by lantern light to the acoustic sound of fiddle, banjo, mandolin, mouth harp, bass, vocals and guitars.

Participants are encouraged to dress in 1800's style clothing. The Bannack Association will be providing refreshments. To get to the dance turn right at the sign to the campgrounds and park in the Group Use parking lot. Dust off your hat, shine your boots and join us for an evening of great old time music and dancing.

This program is sponsored by the Bannack Association. All Saturday programs are free, out of state vehicles pay a $5.00 park admission fee. Park hours are 8 a.m. to 9 p.m. every day. For more information call the park at 834-3413.

Bronze Star Medal awarded to Dillon man

As Reported to the Montana Standard

An area man has been awarded the Bronze Star Medal for exceptional and meritorious service during Operation Enduring Freedom.

Air Force Staff Sgt. Derek S. Butori's dedication to duty during combat operations in Afghanistan contributed to the success of the command's mission, a news release said.

The Bronze Star Medal is the fourth-highest individual military award and the ninth-highest by order of precedence in the U.S. military. It may be awarded for acts of heroism, acts of merit, or meritorious service in a combat zone.

During his second deployment to Afghanistan, Butori, 4th Infantry Division, served as an ammunitions adviser to the Afghan National Army, Kandahar province, from May 2013 to May 2014. During this time, he was responsible for training ANA southern region soldiers to become completely self-sustaining with weapons and vehicle maintenance.

Butori, of Dillon, also received the Army Achievement Medal for outstanding achievement as Class V Munitions Advisor Regional Support Command South.

Butori was deployed from the 31st Munitions Squadron, Aviano Air Base, Italy. He advised the ANA on the use of more than $30 million in ammunition, ANA weapons accountability and counter explosive ordnance disposal training. He was deployed to Operation Enduring Freedom in JET status to conduct non-traditional Air Force missions with joint-service partners throughout Afghanistan.

Butori is married to Holly (Hansen), also of Dillon, and has two children, Alexandria and Caden. He is the son of Mary Clague and Carter and Lori Butori.

REGISTRATION OPEN FOR BUTTE WOLF TRAPPER CERTIFICATION CLASS

Montana Fish, Wildlife & Parks will hold a Wolf Trapping Certification class in Butte at the La Quinta Inn and Suites on September 6 from 8 a.m. to noon. Certification is required for all would-be wolf trappers in the state of Montana. Individuals that have been certified in years past do not need to take the class again.

Online registration is required for all participants. This course, and others scheduled around the state, can be found at fwp.mt.gov under the "Education" tab. Classes are also scheduled for Bozeman on August 16, and in Missoula on August 23, September 28, and October 18.

Classes are taught by FWP staff and experienced wolf trappers. In addition to specifics on equipment and techniques, participants will learn about the history, ethics, management, regulations and requirements of wolves and wolf trapping.

IMPROVEMENTS SET TO BEGIN AT GREYCLIFF FAS AUGUST 4

Montana Fish, Wildlife & Parks will temporarily close the south campground at Greycliff Fishing Access Site on the Madison River south of Three Forks during an improvement project aimed at upgrading campsites beginning August 4.

Upgrading the campsites will mean creating more defined spaces and adding pull-throughs for larger campers and trailers.

The five campsites on the north end of the site will remain open during the construction work.

The entire site is projected to reopen within 30 days.

FWP asks that the public avoid work areas and appreciates the patience of our recreating community.
