Roy Alvin Love

Roy Alvin Love, Syracuse, Utah, died on July 31, 2014 of complications following knee replacement surgery. He was born on the family ranch in Ennis, Montana, on August 26, 1934, to Earl Noble Love and Pearl Cassidy Love. He always called the Madison Valley "home". The cowboy loved hunting, fishing, rodeo, and his horses. In 1956, Roy won the Montana Amateur Rodeo Association and the Montana Rodeo Association calf roping title. He finished in the top five several other years. He also steer wrestled and rode bareback horses.

Roy married his high school sweetheart, Sharlene Wootton, on May 24, 1954, in Bozeman, Montana. Roy and Sharlene moved to Bountiful, Utah, in 1959, later settling in Farmington, Utah, where they raised two children, ran a successful home-building business, and made many lifelong friends. Roy took pride in his work and worked hard to provide for his family. No one loved his family more than Roy. He had a special gift and way with children, and was so proud of his kids and grandkids.

He is survived by his wife of 60 years, Sharlene; his children, Shirley Harper (Scott), and Richard Love (Cindy) all of Farmington; nine grandchildren; 24 great-grandchildren; sister, Jessie Clark of Dillon, Montana; and sister-in-law Kathy Wootton, Sacramento, California. Surviving relatives include cousin Vivian Womack; nieces and nephews Sandy Jennings (Steve), Ron Clark (Mary), Gary Love (Cathi), Casey Love (Maris), Jeff Love (Angie), all of Dillon; as well as numerous other nieces, nephews, and cousins.

Roy was predeceased by his parents, brother Earl and wife Carole Love, sister Zada and husband Ward Haukap, and brothers-in-law Bob Clark and Jay Wootton.

Funeral services were held in Kaysville, Utah, on Tuesday, August 5th. Due to Roy's love of children, in lieu of flowers, the family requests donations to the Primary Children's Hospital, 100 Mario Capecchi Dr. Salt Lake City, UT 84113. Online guestbook: www.russonmortuary.com

John Louis Corman Jr.

Media Release

Possible Homicide

Bryant Creek Campground
Wise River, Montana

On August 9, 2014, at 12:36 p.m., Beaverhead County 911received a call from the Wise River Club in Wise River, Montana from a male adult stating he and his cousin had located a deceased adult in the camp area known as Bryant Creek Campground in Beaverhead County. Sheriff personnel responded to the campground and arrived around 2:00 p.m.

The deceased adult male appeared to be approximately 60-65 years of age and was located in the willows adjacent to the camp area. The identification of the deceased was not known at that time. Beaverhead County Coroner Ron Briggs arrived shortly after law enforcement completed an initial investigation and immediately transported the deceased to the Montana State Crime Lab for an autopsy. The autopsy was completed on Monday, August 11, and relatives of the deceased have not been notified.

Initial investigation indicated an altercation had taken place in and around a non-designated campground. Further investigation indicated multiple campers were involved with a large amount of camping equipment stacked aside. Due to the large crime area and unpredictable weather, authorities requested the assistance of the Montana Division of Criminal Investigation. Agents arrived on scene later in the afternoon.

County and State personnel worked through the afternoon and into the next morning and by then investigators had identified two persons of interest. Further inquiry resulted in the descriptions of motor vehicles possibly involved in the incident. Investigators working on the case are interested in the vehicles described as:

1983 Establishment Motorhome (Ford chassis), Creme in color, MT Plate/127766A or WA/861XVT.

1997, Ford Explorer, White in color, WA Plate/201ZRN

Should the public have any information related to this incident, please contact your local law enforcement agency.

My Mother's Brave Fight

"Team Tammy"

On June 20, 2014 my mother was diagnosed with triple negative breast cancer. Our heads bowed as we cleared the path for her to take, walking with her every step of the way. This will be a long and hard journey but we will keep our faith and have a great attitude. My mother is the strongest woman my heart knows. She is brave, stubborn (in a good way ☺) and willing to fight for her life.

If you are able to donate, the High Peaks Federal Credit Union has an account set up or you can go to team-tammy@facebook.com. Donations will go toward medical expenses and traveling for chemo treatments.

We thank you for your prayers and thoughts.

Join team Tammy and be a part of our team!

Thank you for your support.

My mom, my hero, together we will win!

With Love

RECALL PETITIONS REJECTED

The people that filed the recall petitions with 300 plus signatures that were verified have been sent a letter from Debbie Scott, Beaverhead County Clerk and Recorder that she was rejecting the petitions upon the advice of Beaverhead County Attorney Jed Fitch. She stated that she agrees with Mr. Fitch that the violations claimed in the recall petitions do not constitute a violation of the oath of office.

We have included a complete copy of the letter from the County Attorney on the white insert in today's paper.

Re: Recall Petitions

Dear Ms. Scott:

You asked me to review the recall petitions submitted to your office, that had received a qualifying number of verified signatures, for Dillon City Councilpersons Nils Troedsson, David Spehar, and Derek Gore.

The claim in the recall petitions, identical in all three, is that the respective City Councilpersons had violated their oath of office by signing a letter requesting that the District Court not dismiss pending civil cases involving the City of Dillon. Apparently, these Councilpersons were concerned that the then newly elected Mayor of Dillon, Mike Klakken, would dismiss these cases without the Council's input. In retrospect, it appears that those concerns were unfounded.

The Oath of Office for elected officials appears in the Montana Constitution, at Article III, Section 3. That oath is as follows: "I do solemnly swear (or affirm) that I will support, protect and defend the constitution of the United States, and the constitution of the state of Montana, and that I will discharge the duties of my office with fidelity (so help me God)."

Some facts are relevant here. The letter in question was apparently drafted by the then City Attorney, Duke Gilbert. The Councilpersons that signed the letter, seven in all, apparently believed they were acting under an emergency of some sort. The letter was nearly immediately delivered to the Court and contemporaneously printed in the Daily Dillonite. A copy was provided to Mayor Klakken. Every effort was made to publicize this, after the fact. No attempt was made to keep their actions secret, or to obscure their actions from the public.

These actions, and this letter itself, may have in fact violated the Montana Open Meeting laws. There are specific remedies in statute for violating those requirements, such as the undoing of an action taken at a meeting which is not properly posted. It is certainly arguable that this passing around of a letter for each Councilperson to review and sign constituted a meeting, and thus should have been properly and timely posted. It was not. However, it does not then necessarily follow that a violation of the oath of office has occurred. Was a mistake made? Possibly. Was it an intentional act of not supporting the Montana Constitution – and thus a violation of the oath of office? Unlikely.

The question before you, as Election Administrator of Beaverhead Administrator of Beaverhead County is not whether the City Council, or these Councilpersons specifically, have behaved badly in relation to the election of a new Mayor. By most standards of behavior and decorum, they have. But bad behavior is not a basis for recall.

The only question you must answer for yourself, in making the decision to accept the recall petitions, is whether the claimed violation, if true, would amount to a violation of the oath of office. I do not believe that it does, because there was no intent to fail to "support, protect and defend" the Montana Constitution's open meeting requirements.

The Montana Supreme Court has conservatively interpreted the Montana Recall Act, and rightly so. Recall is intended for blatant and intentional violations of the oath of office, for felony crimes, and for official misconduct. That has not occurred here. Further, the Supreme Court has held that the open meeting laws were not designed to "create[] a difficult labyrinth for public servants and threaten[] to turn any Saturday night at the county rodeo into a board meeting that must be noticed. We decline to formulate such strictures when none exist in the statute." Monitor v. Jefferson High School Dist. No. 1, 373 Mont. 212, 316 P.3d 848 (2014).

Recently, in Gallatin County, a recall election was held for members of the Bridger Canyon Fire Trustees. That was a much different scenario than that which is presented to you. There, multiple, and intentional, private meetings were held by the trustees, without public notice, on purpose. The volunteer firefighters resigned en masse. Again, the question for you is simply, did signing this letter to the Court, and that act alone, constitute a violation of the oath of office.

While personal feelings and moral guidance may lead one to believe and conclude that these City Councilpersons should be recalled – as is indicated by the collection of hundreds of signatures to that end – the question is not one of feelings or morals. Rather, it is a legal question, and the answer to that question, under the law, in my opinion is "no." It is my advice that you decline to accept the Recall Petition, and not advance it to the ballot.

If you follow my recommendation, then, the Petitioners are specifically permitted, pursuant to §2-16-615(2) MCA, to proceed with a request for a Writ of Mandamus in District Court. That should be expected. The Court could force you to accept the Petitions and move forward with a recall election, or it could concur with your decision and not issue a Writ.

Ironically, if you choose to accept the Petitions and move forward, you should expect that the elected officials, subject to the recall, will file an action with the District Court to stop any recall election. Thus, you will likely be involved in litigation regardless of your decision.

Finally, I will address a philosophical point. Regardless of your decision, and regardless of the outcome of this exercise, whether the election occurs and whether the Councilpersons are recalled, this episode serves as a stark reminder that elections have consequences, and that local government requires citizen action and involvement. No opponents filed for most of the Council seats. No one filed at all for at least one seat. Yet, here we are, within months of the election looking at a potential recall. More involvement on the front-end would have prevented all of this difficulty on the back-end. An ounce of prevention really is worth a pound of cure.

In summary, this matter is a question of politics. Politics, and certainly local politics, is often not pleasant. Here, it has been downright ugly. But this is still a political matter, to be decided at the ballot box, and not by way of a recall. I recommend that you, as Election Administrator, not accept the Recall Petitions, and notify each of the Petitioners of the same.

Please contact me if you have any questions.

Sincerely,

Jed C. Fitch
