MY FAVORITE SENATOR CANDIDATE

Today I ran into an old friend mentioned in passing "I see you lost your favorite senator candidate" which was obviously true: but, I still think Sen. Walsh was the best candidate. In the recent past Sen. Walsh has clearly shown a willingness to prioritize the welfare of his troops ahead of his own welfare. As a senator, his troops are all the citizens of Montana. On the other hand Rep. Daines has worked for several years with exported badly needed industrial jobs to China, something that is in nobodies interest.

I have all ways said that my own political leanings were center-right. While I would only guess that Sen. Walsh's politcal leanings are center-left while Rep. Daines, leanings appear to be extreme right.

It also appears to me that when people make their political decisions they most often do so from a micro-economic standpoint, looking after their own economic interests; but, it seems to me they should make their choices based on a macor-economic standpoint, prioritizing the interests of the country as a whole. Also, in the science of economics there is a theory that states that for every new industrial job that is created in any location you get about 3 more additional jobs within the same location. While this theory has proven to be quite correct, the opposite is also correct, that for every industrial job you export to China you lose 3 more jobs (and customers) from the local economy. It appears obvious then that exporting jobs is probably the worst thing you can do for your local economy, as well as for your own company.

I think that many American capitalists have now come to realize that exporting jobs was really a catastrophy for their own interests, in that it had such a devastating effect on their own local markets, and many have now started re-importing industries.

But, when you have somebody, like Rep. Dains, who had invested so much of his life towards exporting good, well paid, American industrial jobs, can you really trust him when he says he has changed his stripes???

Letter to the Editor

On August 6, 2014, I sat through the City Council meeting and heard the various reports including some that the Council Members had serious discussion about. I heard a member of the Main Street committee ask the Council to be placed on the Street and Alley Committee agenda after making reference to two grant applications that she had completed that needed to be signed. This is the group working hard to improve the looks of the downtown area.

At the very end of the meeting Councilman Derek Gore delivered a vitriolic tirade against the current administration and some of the Council actions meanwhile pounding on the notebook apparently containing the City Charter and Ordinances. He had the gall to say that the people of Dillon just did not care, after presumably hearing from a group who is working hard to improve the area. He concluded his statement by saying that the recall petitions were just the end and that he resigned!

The Mayor informed Mr. Gore that he had seventy-two hours in which to rescind his resignation, but that if he did that he needed to bring a witness.

On Friday, the 8th about noon, just before it became common knowledge that the word had come down from the County Attorney to the Clerk and Recorder that the recall should not be allowed to go forward, Mr. Gore, accompanied by his fellow representative of Ward 4, Swede Troedsson, appeared at the Mayor's office and rescinded his resignation.

Coincidence? I think not. However, the whole incident reveals the true character of Councilman Gore. That is of little comfort to those of us in Ward 4 who sit through these council meetings and watch his petulant attitude and his never making a positive contribution to the proceedings.

Sincerely,
Lynn Giles

ment to all.

Due to profound artistry, cellist Amit Peled is one of the most exciting instrumentalists on the concert stage. On Thursday, December 11, 2014, he will charismatically promote and share classical music.

The up and coming American operatic tenor Ben Gulley is scheduled for Tuesday, March 10, 2015. His seamless voice has propelled him into nationwide touring and prestigious appearances abroad.

Utilizing a diverse arsenal of style and entertainment, Six Appeal swears off instruments to take its audience on an a cappella journey spanning decades of music. Join them on Tuesday, April 21, 2015.

The purchase of a season ticket provides membership in the Dillon Concert Association and admittance to the 2014-15 performances. All tickets will be mailed prior to the first concert. Season ticket, or membership, fees are as follows: Adult - $40; College Student - $10; Student/Youth - $6.

As a bonus, the Butte and Anaconda Community Concert Associations will grant admission into their concerts upon showing a current Dillon Concert Association membership card.

If you are interested in purchasing a Dillon Concert Association membership/season ticket, requesting a concert series flyer, being a volunteer, and/or knowing about the Butte and Anaconda concert series, please contact Chris Kloker at 406-865-0076.

Letter to the Editor

Recall the County Attorney.

After reading the letter from Mr. Fitch, I would believe that Mr. Fitch had a long standing wish to block the recall petitions if he could. I remember in the Montana Standard he indicated that he would do so.

HAPPY BIRTHDAY AND WISH HER WELL

An open invitation is extended to all those women (and men) who have enjoyed Donna Morrison's exercise and dance classes over her many years her in Dillon, to come together to say good-bye. Yes, Donna is moving to the Midwest in a few short weeks, and so we are having a party Tuesday, August 19 at noon to 2:00 m at the Elks Lodge to celebrate her birthday and to wish her God speed.

A $5 salad buffet will be provided, but feel free to bring anything else (card, gift, memories to share) for Donna.

For a head count for lunch, please email or phone Toni Sullivan by this Friday 8/15 at bar-os@zipmt.com or 865-0081.

DILLON BEAVER CROSS COUNTRY

The Dillon Beaver Cross Country practice will start Friday, August 15th at 7:30 pm. Meet in the seminar room.

THANK YOU

The Women's Resource/Community Support Center would like to thank the community of Dillon for donating to and participating in our 4th Annual Fly Fishing Classic. It was a huge success because of you.

We would also like to announce the winners of our contests and raffle drawings!

Belt buckle winners for the guide contest that weekend were:1st place Bernard Kailey, 2nd place Thane Riordon, & 3rd place Jack Bergeson.

Tonya Shellnutt won the R. L. Winston rod, Tim Tollett won the Sweetgrass Rods bamboo fly rod, and Gary Lorenzen won the Lodge at Eagle Rock trip.
