Media Release
August 12, 2014

Bryant Creek Campground

On August 9, 2014, Beaverhead County Sheriff's Office initiated an investigation into a possible homicide in the Wise River area north of Dillon, Montana. Investigators with Beaverhead County and the Montana Division of Criminal Investigation worked diligently through the weekend and into Tuesday night, August 12th, ultimately locating and taking into custody two individuals of interest.

Missoula Police Department assisted by taking into custody Sandra Lee Ann Cantrell and Christopher Lee Stiles both of Butte, Montana. Cantrell is being held on a felony Beaverhead County warrant while Stiles is being held on a felony warrant out of Weber County Utah. Additional warrants from the Beaverhead County Sheriff's Office are forthcoming.

The deceased in this matter has been identified as Mark Robert Mullen of Butte, Montana.

The Beaverhead County Sheriff's and Coroner's Offices are very appreciative of the following law enforcement agencies assistance with this investigation:

- Montana Division of Criminal Investigation
- Butte-Silver Bow Law Enforcement
- Missoula Police Department
- Montana Highway Patrol
- Montana Crime Lab
- Bureau of Land Management
- United States Forest Service

FIRE AT THE FAIRGROUNDS

4:30 Saturday afternoon the Dillon Volunteer Fire Department was called for smoke coming out of the ceiling of the new bathroom facility on the south side of the grounds. It appears to have electrical, maybe the motion light overheated and caused the fire. There was no way into the rafters, the fin was buckling so they got equipment and took the roof off and made sure the fire was out. It is a cinder block building.

An adjuster is coming to look at it and determine if it can be fixed with the wiring and roof being replaced. The county is hoping they can get it fixed before the fair if they get the go ahead according to commissioner Mike McGinley.

SCHOOL SUPPLY DRIVE

The annual KDBM-KBEV School Supply Drive has started for this year, 2014. Please help the kids and schools by purchasing some much needed items for all the grade schools in Beaverhead County plus Twin bridges and Sheridan. We have school supply deposit boxes at the following locations. Kings, State Bank & Trust, Pioneer Federal Savings & Loan, Stockman Bank, Womack's Printing and at KDBM-KBEV Radio Stations. You'll find a list of required items on each box. All supplies will be delivered to the schools in early September. You can also donate money and KDBM-KBEV will do the shopping if you don't have the time or opportunity to do so.

Thank you again this year for your help.

BARRETT HOSPITAL EXPANDS SURGICAL COVERAGE

Barrett Hospital & HealthCare is pleased to announce that Dr. Shafi Shafaieh will be expanding his regularly scheduled surgery days and that Dr. John Pickens, general surgeon, has joined the staff of the hospital.

Dr. Shafaieh has provided general surgery services in Dillon for more than 30 years. As a private practice physician, he has held privileges at the hospital, and has been responsible for general surgery conducted at the hospital. Beginning September 1st, Dr. Shafaieh will continue to hold office hours at the clinic while expanding to three-regularly scheduled days in the operating room. Dr. John Pickens will begin seeing patients at the clinic and will also be scheduling surgery days at the Hospital starting in September. Dr. Pickens is a graduate of the University of Washington School of Medicine, and was residency trained at the University of New Mexico. He has been a board-certified surgeon since 2004 and practiced in Butte, MT for three years.

The expansion of Dr. Shafaieh's practice and the addition of Dr. Pickens to the medical staff will allow the Hospital to provide surgical coverage approximately 80% of the time. In addition, having two general surgeons at the Hospital will provide follow-up coverage for patients who have undergone surgery and need to be closely monitored.

People with questions about surgical services at Barrett Hospital & HealthCare should call Provider Services Director, Cynthia White at 683-3078.

Madison Fire detected North of Delmoe Lake

On Sunday afternoon August 10, smoke from a lightning caused fire was detected between Delmoe Lake and Whitetail Reservoir on the Jefferson Ranger District, Beaverhead Deerlodge NF. The fire was evaluated by fire officials and determined to be unsafe for firefighters due to its remote location, continuous dead fuels and lack of safety zones. The Madison fire named after nearby Madison Peak is one acre in size and burning in a steep rocky area, and beetle-killed dead Lodgepole pine. Due to the extremely difficult terrain, fire managers will monitor the fire through the use of overflights surveying the area for other fires and from employees patrolling the area from the ground.

"It's not a safe situation for firefighters at this time," said Butte / Jefferson District Ranger Dave Sabo. "We will continue to evaluate the fire daily to determine the best course of action."

For more information, contact the Forest Service in Butte at (406) 494-0250 or Whitehall (406) 287-3223.

REMINDER: WOLF STAMP HEARING
THURSDAY IN BOZEMAN

Montana Fish, Wildlife & Parks will hold a public hearing on a proposal to establish a wolf management stamp on Thursday, Aug. 14 at 6 pm at its Region Three headquarters in Bozeman (1400 S. 19th Ave.).

Under this proposed rule, FWP would create a wolf stamp to be issued in return for a $20 donation toward wolf management. Residents and non-residents could donate towards multiple stamps.

Money received from the sale of wolf management stamps would first be used to pay for the cost of administering the stamp program and the remainder would be equally distributed between livestock loss reduction program grants, wolf monitoring, habitat projects, scientific research, public education and outreach, and law enforcement.

Other major communities around the state will also hold hearings on August 14, and comments on the proposal will be taken through Friday, Aug. 22.

To see the complete list of hearing locations and to view the proposed rules and comment, visit the FWP website at fwp.mt.gov. Click Public Notices. Or write to: Wolf Stamp Comments; Montana Fish, Wildlife & Parks; Communication Education Division; P.O. Box 200701, Helena, MT 59620-0701. Email comments to fwp-wld@mt.gov; or Fax to 406-444-4952.

Bulldogs wrap camp with scrimmage Friday

The University of Montana Western football players reported to campus and football pre-season practice on August 2nd. The team hit the field August 4th and after nearly two weeks the 2014 "two-a-day" practices will come to a close on Friday when the Bulldogs will take to Vigilante field for a scrimmage and a final tune-up before their season opener.

For the past two weeks the Bulldogs have practiced and met daily for the annual football pre-season "camp." The scrimmage will start at 6 p.m. at Vigilante Field. Friday will mark the end of this year's pre-season practices and will give the coaches a final look at their squad before heading into the first game week of the season.

"Looking forward to Bulldog nation getting a sneak peak of the 83rd team in Montana Western football history at this Friday nights scrimmage," said head coach BJ Robertson. "I believe it will be easy for fans to see the work and commitment our guys have put in since last November. I am very proud of the position these guys have put themselves in going into the 2014 season."

The Bulldog offense is under new leadership with Bruce Carpenter joining the staff in the spring. He will lead an offense that returns two all-conference performers in junior offensive lineman Will Thacker and sophomore running back Sam Rutherford who both earned second team honors. The offense also returns junior running back from Laurel, Mont., Dylan Kramer, Helena product and senior quarterback Tyler Hulse, senior H-back Tony Wilson, and a host of other Bulldogs looking to make an impact in the Frontier conference.

VIA HAND DELIVERY

RE: City of Dillon
Local Government Study Commission

Dear Editor,

Being a member of the State Bar of Montana, the Rules of Professional Responsibility suggest that Montana's attorneys aspire to render pro bono service to the public. As Dillon's City Attorney, I can think of no better way for me to discharge some of this responsibility at present than to write an editorial to the public as an activity ". . .for improving the law, the legal system or the legal profession" concerning the recent passage by Dillon voters for the creation and formation of a local government review commission. See Rule 6.1(b)(3) M.R.P.C.

Despite August 6th's Dillon Tribune story concerning such a commission being approved by nearly 61%, or two-thirds of Dillon voters on June 3rd, 2014, and such voters publically registering their dissatisfaction with City government, ". . .no citizen had filed for election to the City of Dillon Government Review Commission" as of that date. Over the past six months of service as your City Attorney, I have met many fine Dillon residents of varied backgrounds with varied opinions concerning the direction of City of Dillon government. These citizens may not always agree with each other, and some clearly express varying degrees of view towards city government. While I may not necessarily always agree with their suggestions, I come away with the unshakable conviction that citizens truly want responsiveness from their government. It is frequently appropriate to write an editorial or attend a Dillon City Council meeting and express displeasure; yet harder still is rationally discussing how we feel with our friends and neighbors and deciding to follow constructive paths of direct involvement in addressing perceived local governmental deficiencies.

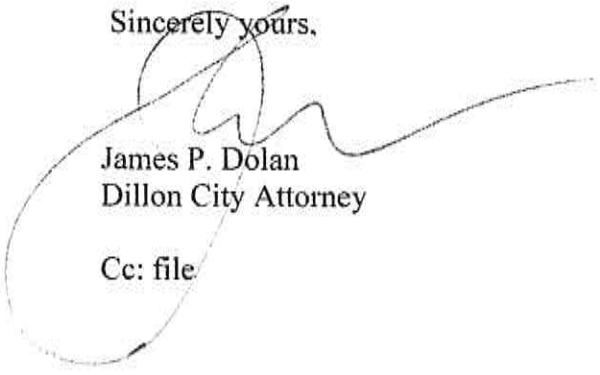

Put bluntly, the vote to approve the establishment and funding of a local government study commission is more than simply a referendum upon ill feelings towards Dillon's City government; it is an meaningful opportunity for "we the people" to evaluate, review and effect local governmental change if deemed necessary. Most importantly, this right is expressly afforded to us under the Montana Constitution. Indeed, one citizen approached me recently and suggested the creation of a ninth "at large" non-voting member on the Dillon City Council to represent the interests of those who own taxpaying businesses within Dillon yet reside outside of city limits. While I express no view on the propriety of this citizen's suggestion, the passage and funding of the local government study commission by constituents presents a real opportunity to weigh such proposals and effect review and potential change in City government.

As of Monday afternoon, August 11th, my call to the Beaverhead County Clerk & Recorder indicated that no citizens within the City of Dillon had filed for election to the five member commission. Given the filing deadline of August 21st, 2014, I find this somewhat troubling when 61% of the public voted for the commission's creation and funding. I thus urge those of you who feel they have something to offer to your fellow citizens to run for a seat on the study commission. It is time for those concerned about Dillon's direction to get constructive and engage with their government.

Although I am rather a busy fellow, I would be more than happy to make time to visit with members of the public who have interest in contributing to local government in this fashion. It is, after all, your government!

Sincerely yours,

James P. Dolan
Dillon City Attorney
