Arley Clark McLaren

Dillon native and longtime resident Arley Clark McLaren passed away at Barrett Hospital and HealthCare August 16th, 2014 at age 86.

Born May 8th, 1928 to John H. and Gladys (Rhodes) McLaren, Arley was part of a large and boisterous family, well known throughout the Beaverhead. He graduated from BCHS in 1947 where he lettered in basketball and football and was a member of the state class "B" Championship basketball team of '46. When he wasn't on the court or on the field he could be found helping his brothers and father in the Blacksmith shop. Some of his fondness memories were of the summers he spent haying and working horses on Dwight Harrison's ranch.

He married Carol Giudici in 1950, a year later they moved to Pocatello, ID where he began his apprenticeship and later becoming a journeyman plumber. He worked on various jobs throughout the area including the A.E.C facility at Arco. They returned to Dillon to be closer to family following the death of his father. For several years he ran the Dillon-Wisdom Stage route, often accompanied by his wife and youngest daughters. In 1975 he purchased Hignight Plumbing with a partner. He eventually became sole owner, which he renamed McLaren Plumbing. He continued to run McLaren Plumbing for 25 years until his retirement in 2004.

His family enjoyed his colorfully worded tales of hunting, fishing, mining and logging camp, almost as much as he enjoyed telling them. He loved his wife, family, bowling and watching bull riding with his sister Cleo, horses, dogs, coffee, whiskey, steak, candy, Montana high school and college sports, and John Wayne movies.

He served as a Master Mason in good standing of Dillon Lodge No. 16.

He is survived by: his high school sweetheart and wife of 64 years, Carol (Giudici) McLaren; daughter, Susan McLaren and her children, Kimberly (JC) Youngquist and Eric (Jordan) Dolan; son, Richard (Charee) McLaren and their daughters, Summer Bourassa and Serena (Steve) Zareski; daughter, Christine (Robert Kailey) McLaren; daughter, Amanda (Dennis) Morton and their daughter, Morgan; brother, Clyde McLaren; sister, Nellie (Ray) Quilici; brother-in-law, Phillip

CHAMBER CALLS FOR MEMBER BUSINESS MARKETING MATERIALS FOR VISITOR CENTER DISPLAY

The Beaverhead Chamber of Commerce and Agriculture announces brochure rack and business card display for member business information in visitor center.

The Beaverhead Chamber of Commerce and Agriculture is happy to announce the placement of a new brochure rack and business card display in the Chamber office and Visitor Center that is dedicated to member business' materials. Chamber members are invited to deliver or mail their brochures and business cards to the Chamber office at 10 W. Reeder or to P.O. Box 425 Dillon, MT 59725.

The brochure rack is for tri-fold brochures, but any appropriately sized materials brought to the Chamber by member businesses will be made available to the public and visitors.

The Beaverhead Chamber of Commerce and Agriculture represents all of Beaverhead County and is continuing to build a service-oriented Chamber of Commerce and Agriculture for Beaverhead County businesses and organizations. The Chamber office and Visitor Center is trafficked by dozens of visiting and local information seekers weekly.

Community Blood Drive

A Dillon community blood drive will be held on Tuesday, August 26, 2014 from 1:00 PM to 6:00 PM at the Elks Lodge (27 East Center Street). The drive is coordinated by United Blood Services and sponsored by the Presbyterian Church. Appointments can be made by calling 683-3696, or log on to www.bloodhero.com and use the sponsor code "Dillon". Walk-ins are welcome.

A critical number of voluntary donations are required every day to meet the need for blood. Blood can only be stored for 42 days, so it is essential that collection is ongoing. Donors are especially needed during the summer months when many regular donors are on vacation. Giving blood takes less than one hour, is virtually painless and safe. Most of all, it saves lives!

To donate blood, volunteers must be at least 17 years old (16 with parental approval), weigh at least 110 pounds and be in good health. A donor must not have donated within the last eight weeks. Please bring your United Blood Services Donor card or a photo ID.

Join us this summer and be a hero!

Griz DT Rehm enjoying breakout preseason camp

As reported by The Missoulian

Trevor Rehm likes that old-time outlaw country.

Give him some Waylon Jennings and Johnny Cash and get out your black shirt and cowboy hat. It fits with the rowdy approach he's taken into preseason camp for the Montana football team.

Listed as a back-up two weeks ago, the senior defensive tackle from Dillon has come on like a freight train. In doing so he has created a wonderful dilemma for the UM coaching staff.

"Where on paper I would have just assumed Caleb (Kidder) would have been the guy, Trevor has worked his tail off to put himself in real contention for that starting job," Montana defensive coordinator Ty Gregorak said after Tuesday's practice at the Riverbowl.

"We're in the last week of camp and moving into game week here and boy, they're neck-and-neck."

Regardless of which guy takes the field first, both will see plenty of action when Montana opens at Wyoming next week. Together with senior Tonga Takai, Montana's interior defensive line should hold up nicely against the FBS Cowboys.

"I'm really happy the entire D-line obviously," Gregorak said, alluding to the fact Montana boasts the Big Sky Conference preseason defensive MVP in end Zack Wagenmann.

"But the way the interior line is playing, I'm really thrilled. More often than not I'm stopping film in linebacker meetings saying, 'Watch the D-line practice.' And a lot of it has been Trevor Rehm. It's like the ball is 20 yards down the field and Trevor is chasing and I'm saying, 'Watch him chase this play.' "

Rehm's career at Montana has been a remarkable example of persistence. He arrived on campus as a walk-on linebacker in 2010 and was moved to D-line in 2011. He had four tackles in 2012 and 24 last year.

Now he's bigger, stronger and faster than ever at 6-foot-3, 265 pounds.

"We have to credit that a lot to our new strength training coach, coach (Mike) Gerber," said Rehm, echoing the words of many of his teammates. "The lifts he had us do, they were tough. They were intense. He really got us in shape.

"This deep into camp, for my legs to feel this good, I think you can really tell we were doing the right things this summer."

Rehm was one reason the Griz defense looked so good in Saturday's second and final preseason scrimmage. He had a quarterback sack and helped stuff Montana's run game all morning.

"I feel like we have the best coach in the nation," Rehm said of defensive line guru Legi Suiaunoa. "Doing what he teaches us to do, he really drills us down well.

"Then playing with some really good players, we're always on the same page. I know where they're going to be. They flush a lot of plays to me. It makes it easy for me."

Asked why he's such a country music fan, Rehm said "we keep it pretty country down in Dillon, and appreciate Montana things definitely."

Trevor's defensive coordinator appreciates his senior leadership by example.

"He's a real quiet guy, doesn't say much," Gregorak said. "But just that steady-eddie, come-to-work-every-day, lunch-pail type guy. It's awesome for the defense to have."

I Count each moment.

Jane Wise is one strong woman, despite her small stature and soft voice. Jane lives her life to the fullest and believes that strength means finding balance and peace within– no matter what life throws in your path. During her diagnosis of ovarian cancer, Jane found a compassionate group of people who shared their encouragement, time and services to help navigate her diagnosis.

Cancer Survivor Support Group is offered the 3rd Thursday of each month, 12:00-1:00pm at Barrett Hospital & HealthCare. Available free of charge for people diagnosed with cancer.
