Joyce Caraker

Joyce Caraker passed away on August 25, in Dillon, Montana after a lengthy illness, with loved ones by her side.

She was born in Teton Idaho on July 6, 1928 to Cecil and Mable Gardner McKinlay. She grew up in Teton, Driggs and Idaho Falls attending schools there. Being part of a farming family, she learned to love that life style, especially riding horses which she ever enjoyed.

In 1945, she married Ray Stocks and moved to Montana which quickly became home to her. They had one son, Ray, they later divorced. In 1957, she married Carl Caraker. Rex and Deana soon joined the happy family who later moved to Wisdom.

With the passing of Carl, she moved to the Brookside Apartments where she resided until ill health forced her to move where she could have around the clock care.

She was a good wife, mother, grandmother, auntie and loyal friend. She loved working puzzles, walking with friends and helping those in need. She had a cheerful disposition and a quick wit. Her greatest love was her family. She will be missed by those who know and love her, no doubt.

She was preceded in death by her parents, husband Carl, brothers Max, Burke, and Gordon, sisters Klea and Anena.

She is survived by her brother, Garry McKinlay of Dillon, sons Ray (Melanie) Stocks, Bozeman, Rex Caraker, Wisdom, daughter Deana (Joe) Harrison, Dillon, stepson Gene (Polly) Caraker, step daughter in law Audrey Caraker, of Bellingham, WA, 5 grandchildren, 5 step grandchildren, 1 great granddaughter and several nieces and nephews.

There is a visitation scheduled for Thursday, Aug 28th at Brundage Chapel from 7-8:30 with funeral services the following day at 10:00 at Brundage. Interment will be in the Teton-Newdale Cemetery at 3:30 on Friday, Aug. 29th. A guestbook is available online at www.brundagefuneralhome.com.

Allan Roy Perry, 77

Allan Roy Perry, 77 of Dillon, Montana passed away at St. Patrick's Hospital in Missoula on August 24th, 2014. He was born in Missoula, Montana on April 15, 1937 to Donald and Mildred Perry. There is a vigil and rosary service scheduled for Friday, August 29th at 7 PM at St. Rose of Lima Catholic Church and Funeral Mass is scheduled for Saturday, August 30th at 11 AM. A guestbook is available online at www.brundagefuneralhome.com. A full obituary will follow.

ALLAN ROY PERRY

Allan (Al) Roy Perry died Sunday, August 24, in Missoula, Montana of an abdominal aortic aneurism. He was born April 15, 1937 in Missoula, MT as the second son to Donald and Marion (Clinkingbeard) Perry. He grew up in the Puyallup/Tacoma area with brother, Gordon and sister, Carole. He moved back to Montana in 1976 where he met his bride of 37 years, MaryJo Egan.

Al and MaryJo raised their family between Missoula, Huson, Stevensville and Dillon. During that time Al worked as a boiler operator for Community Hospital of Missoula, Stevensville Public Schools and U of M - Western in Dillon. He was an avid outdoorsman, reasonably good photographer, loyal friend, and great diver & swimmer. His personal mantra was "Gotta take care of my family"; therefore, they always had a warm home, healthy meat in the freezer, and bills paid on time.

He was preceded in death by his parents, brother, sister and three sons: Allan II, Isaac and Nathan. He is survived by his wife, MaryJo, son, Mathieu (Maribeth) Perry; daughters Janine Vowell, AnnellaJo Perry. Cheline (John) Winegart and Renne (Will) Harp. His 5 grandsons and 6 granddaughters along with 3 great grandchildren and nephews and nieces will miss his silly humor, teasing nature and big hugs. He also leaves a huge band of Egan in-laws and a wealth of incredible friends behind.

Rosary and Vigil are scheduled for Friday, August 29 at 7:00 PM at St. Rose of Lima Church. His Funeral Mass will be held at St. Rose on Saturday, August 30 at 11:00 AM.

Kyle Fadness and his grandfather Wade Hansen continued their annual mountain climbing quest of the Pioneer Mountains by climbing two they previously had not climbed:

Tent Mountain and the 10,500 Foot high unnamed mountain between Deerhead
Lake and Tweedy Mountain.

Kyle, now 17
years old, has been climbing the Pioneer mountains with his grandfather since he was 5 years old.

Wade's niece Katie Klamm climbed Tent Mountain with them, and Kyle's dad Jeremy Fadness climbed the other one with them.

There are 17 named mountains over 10,000 feet in the Pioneers and Wade and Kyle have climbed 13 of them, some of them twice.

Letter to the Editor

Despite much contradictory evidence, I am convinced that there is an innate sense of decency in almost everyone. Obvious exceptions are sociopaths and psychopaths such as Jeffrey Dahmer, Ted Bundy, and other serial killers, and a number of narcissists who are sure that they are infallible regardless of public opinion to the contrary. On a national level Barack and Michelle Obama, and Bill and Hillary Clinton come immediately to mind. Richard Nixon and Joe McCarthy would also have qualified.

However, I do hope we have no such characters in Dillon.

Therefore, I am appealing to the innate sense of decency in the council members whose names appeared on the recall petitions to do the decent thing and resign right now to avoid both creating further expense to and further animosity among the voters of Dillon. Three of the four were definitively rejected by the voters based on the number of signatures on the recall petitions, and a fourth was apparently saved by the illness of the person circulating the petition in that ward.

Obviously only insensitive boors stay where they are manifestly not wanted, even if they cannot be legally evicted. And I certainly hope and believe that no such people are serving on our city council.

It is equally obvious that this effort to recall three of them will not go away. Despite the County Clerk's rejection of the petition, an appeal has been made to the District Court for a writ of mandamus to force the County clerk to forward the recall petition to the voters. If this writ is rejected by the District Court, an appeal to the State Supreme Court will surely follow. Such actions can only increase the animosity toward the named council members. The fourth member could perform a desirable public service by resigning also in the interest of restoring cooperation within the city council.

It is noteworthy that the fourth member filed a sworn affidavit, later proved to be false, in which she recklessly impugned the integrity of both a fellow council member and a member of the public circulating one of the recall petitions. I am emphatically not an attorney. But it seems to me that swearing under oath to something that is not so constitutes perjury. And recklessly impugning a person's reputation without regard to whether the charge is true or not constitutes libel.

Much of the animosity toward the four council members will, I should think, dissipate if they resign quietly and honorably in the interest of public harmony.

PLAYER OF THE WEEK

The Frontier Conference announced the players of the week following last weekend's scheduled games. Montana Western's senior safety, Jesse McCloud, earned the honor following his performance in week one versus Montana Tech.

McCloud is a 6' 0" 196 pound senior defensive back from Manhattan, Mont. He had two interceptions, five tackles, and one assisted tackle from his free safety position in the Bulldogs' 38-6 victory over conference rival Montana Tech.

Montana Western Volleyball goes 3-2 in opening tournament

The University of Montana Western volleyball team returned from their season opening tournament in Spokane, Wash. winning three matches and dropping two. The Bulldogs swept all three games in their victories and lost two matches by scores of 1-3.

UMW opened the 2014 season with a match versus Evergreen State College and were handed the loss by a score of 1-3. Emily Erickson and Breanne Kelley had 11 and 10 kills during the match, while Paige Latimer had 38 assists. Kendra Mendicino contributed 17 digs. In their next match the Bulldogs came out and beat Simpson in straight games. The first two games were won with scores of 25-21, while the third game was taken with a 25-17 score.

On Friday the ladies took to the court for two more matches and swept both. They beat Walla Walla in the morning and then swept Northwest with scores of 25-19, 25-20, and 25-19. Emily Erickson led the team with 16 kills during the second match, while Mendicino and Latimer had 16 and 14 digs. In addition to her defensive efforts, Latimer added 32 assists on the afternoon. The Bulldogs wrapped the tournament up with a 1-3 defeat to Eastern Oregon.

Montana Western will have this week off and will return to the court in Hastings, Neb., for a four game tournament. The Hastings tournament will begin Sept. 5 when the Bulldogs will open with two matches on Friday and then wrap the tournament with two matches on Saturday.

Illness prevention associated with live animals at animal exhibits

Exhibits such as petting zoos and fairs allow children of all ages to have the thrilling experience of coming face-to-face with animals. This interaction allows people to learn more about animals and helps to build an important human-animal bond.

Sometimes, animals at petting zoos and fairs can carry organisms that make people sick. Especially young children and persons who are immunocompromised are at greatest risk for infection and complications from illnesses caused by Salmonella, Ecoli O157:H7, but also influenza A (H3N2), rabies and others.

According to the National Association of State Public Health Veterinarians, bacteria and parasites pose the highest risk for human disease from animals in public settings, but many illnesses can be prevented if visitors wash their hands with soap and water after touching animals and before eating and drinking as well as have knowledge about the risk of illness associated with animals.

Beaverhead County Public Health encourages Beaver-head County Fair goers to be aware of the possibility of contracting illnesses from fair animals and to adhere to good hand hygiene. Young children are especially vulnerable to these illnesses because they put their fingers in their months. Please ensure your safe and happy encounters with Beaverhead County's biggest week by washing your hands after touching animals and before eating all the wonderful fair food.

For more information, please contact Beaverhead County Public Health at 683-4771.

Quote of the Century

Some possess the vocabulary to sum things up in a way we can understand. This is a quote from the former premier of the Czech Republic, Vaclav Klaus.

"The danger to America is not Barack Obama, but a citizenry capable of entrusting a man like him with the Presidency. It will be far easier to limit and undo the follies of an Obama presidency than to restore the necessary common sense and good judgment to a depraved electorate willing to have such a man for their president. The problem is much deeper and far more serious than Mr. Obama, who is a mere symptom of what ails America. Blaming the prince of fools should not blind anyone to the vast confederacy of fools that made him their prince. The Republic can survive a Barack Obama, who is, after all, merely a fool. It is less likely to survive a multitude of fools such as those who made him their president."
