ASTRONOMY PROGRAM AT BANNACK

Tom Satterly, Craig Zaspel, and Sheila Roberts will be on hand to describe the beautiful sights in the Bannack night sky. Learn to identify stars, planets and various constellations with these representatives of the Southwest Montana Sidewalk Astronomers. The program will begin at dusk in the main parking lot. Get out of the haze in town, bundle up the family, bring along your lawn chairs, binoculars and telescopes and enjoy the heavens at Bannack State Park where light pollution is never a problem.

Butte native Tom Satterly and crew will bring several telescopes for visitors to use including a homemade 10 inch Dobsonian telescope and a 12 inch Newtonian that provide incredible views of the heavens. Tom works in the Environmental Sciences Department at the University of Montana Western in Dillon, where Craig Zaspel is a professor of Physics and Sheila Roberts is a professor of Geology.

All Saturday programs are free, out of state vehicles pay a $5.00 park admission fee. Park hours are 8 a.m. to 9 p.m. every day. For more information call the park at 834-3413.

Study Commission Applicants:

By: MJ

Those who have signed up and will have their names on the ballot for the "Study Commission" are:

CITY: Craig Cornell, Edith Fletcher, Paul Pilgrim, Lawrence Leith, Richard Miller, Robert M. (Mike) Miller, Britney Kailey, Jean Bergeson and Shannon Manness.
COUNTY: Craig Cooper, Mitch Staley, Scott Marsh, Stacey Reynolds and Jim Carpita.

NOTE: Scott Marsh and Jim Carpita are employed by the county with the commissioners being their supervisors.

Question: Would the positioning of these applicants on the Study Commission be in conflict of the "Due Process Clause?"

"Due Process" deals with the administration of justice and provides procedural safeguards against arbitrary deprecation. A property interest is more than personal belongings and real estate; it is any benefit to which the person has a legitimate claim or entitlement. At a basic level, procedural due process is essentially based on the concept of "fundamental fairness."

Would it be a fair process for two employees of the county, receiving their livelihoods (paychecks) to be an active participant on a board that will be making decisions on the kind of legislative system that will be representing the taxpayers in the future of Beaverhead County -- or not?

American Legion Post 20 Meeting

Meeting will be held on Wednesday, September 3rd at the Legion hall on 437 E Glendale St with a social hour 6:15- 7:00 followed by dinner at 7:00 p.m. and meeting at 8:00 Chef Mitchell Lundberg will be cooking. Veterans & Members are invited. Wives & Sweethearts Invited!!

MONTANA HIGH TECH BUSINESS ALLIANCE LAUNCHES JOBS PORTAL FOR HIGH TECH MONTANA JOBS TO INCREASE HIGH TECH JOB RECRUITMENT AND RETENTION

The Montana High Tech Business Alliance (The Alliance) is announcing the launch of its new web-based jobs portal that will connect Montanans to available high tech and manufacturing jobs across the state and help the Alliance's 90 member firms with employee recruiting. Internship and apprenticeship opportunities for students will also be listed on the site.

"In the communities I visit around the state, many of the young people have had to move away to find gainful employment," said Greg Gianforte, founder of RightNow Technologies in Bozeman and board chair of the Alliance. "This online jobs portal is one way we can keep our kids in Montana and help high tech companies find the talent they need to grow, and will also give Montana tech firms the resource to recruit interns, who often become full-time employees. We hope the jobs portal will be the go-to place for people seeking high-wage Montana jobs."

The portal will meet the growing need in Montana to connect our high tech graduates with employment in Montana. At one state university this past spring, 100% of the computer science graduates took jobs out of state. The Montana High Tech Business Alliance's 90-strong membership proves that this drain on graduate retention isn't due to the lack of high tech positions in Montana. The Alliance's jobs portal will be an asset that allows Montana's high tech firms to compete with the larger recruiting arms of out-of-state firms. The Alliance will work with Montana colleges, alumni associations and other partners to promote the portal around the state and to Montana graduates who have already moved away.

"Our members consistently name employee recruiting as one of their biggest challenges," said Christina Henderson, Executive Director of the Montana High Tech Business Alliance. "High tech and manufacturing jobs are high-paying jobs, and companies need a variety of workers; from welders and engineers to sales reps, marketers and c-level executives. By listing these jobs in one centralized location, we hope to make it easier for Alliance members and job seekers to find the perfect match in Montana."

The Montana High Tech Business Alliance jobs portal can be found at: www.MTHighTech.org/jobs

More information on the Montana High Tech Business Alliance can be found at: www.MTHighTech.org.

Letter to the Editor

Re: 8/27/14 Letter by Mr. Richard Turner

Dear Editor:

While I understand Mr. Richard Turner's contrary views on the subject, I vehemently reject his characterization of my July 22nd, 2014 legal opinion to the Judiciary Committee as nothing more than a "legalistic smoke screen" and "excuses" for the Judiciary Committee's August 18th, 2014 unanimous decision to not recommend to the Dillon City Council that it write a Non-Discrimination Ordinance (NDO). As outlined in my apparently widely circulated opinion letter, I cited numerous legal quagmires concerning the adoption of such an ordinance by a chartered city government, and distinctly recall advising the Judiciary Committee that like any attorney's advice to a client, it was indeed free to reject my advice in the exercise of their legislative authority. They chose not to do so as was their prerogative.

Like the adage says, "Where there's smoke, there's fire", and that fire manifested itself this very week in the form of a lawsuit filed under the Uniform Declaratory Judgment Act by five citizens against the City of Bozeman, its Mayor, Deputy Mayor and three members of Bozeman's City Commission over their enactment of an NDO similar to the one Mr. Turner proposed. As that Act allows, those citizens seek to have Bozeman's NDO declared invalid as a matter of law, and be awarded costs and attorney's fees. I directly and specifically cautioned the Judiciary Committee in my July 22nd, 2014 opinion that enactment of such an NDO may exceed the scope of authority granted to the City of Dillon, and that as a result, such a lawsuit under the UDJA could be filed against the City as was just done in Bozeman.

Regardless of the varied citizen views on the NDO issue, it is my duty to render candid advice to the City of Dillon. I fully accept that my advice may be unpopular at times, but I can assure Mr. Turner that my "legalistic smoke screen" cost the taxpaying citizens of Dillon far less than defending the lawsuit the City of Bozeman now faces. I make no "excuses" for that.

Sincerely,

James P. Dolan, Esq.
 Dillon City Attorney

Thank you Mr. Leith

By: MJ

Thank you Mr. Leith for the well-expressed letters stating the facts you published in local papers. They are spot on.

The city council continues to prepare plans to spend millions of new dollars even though they had to draw money from the street and maintenance funds to make the second half payment for the 1.8 million dollar bond taken out to recreate Glendale, Walnut Street...

The recall petitions are not a personal attack on individuals but a grievance against council and their actions impacting the taxpayers of the city of Dillon - spending money the city does not have.

Thank you again - it is obvious you are a concerned taxpayer.
