Betty Tindall Obituary

Betty Lou Marie (Downen) Tindall passed away peacefully Tuesday, August 26th in her home surrounded by family. Betty was born on July 4, 1930 in Canova, South Dakota to David and Nellie (Daniel) Downen. She graduated from Meade High School in Spokane, WA. Following high school her Dad was transferred to Lewistown, MT where she worked at the Bon Ton and met the love of her life, Herb Tindall. They were married at St. Leo's Catholic Church in Lewistown on August 8, 1948. She spent her life in Lewistown raising three daughters until in 2007 when Herb died. She then moved to Iowa to live with Sue. They returned to Montana in 2011 so Betty could be closer to her daughter Nancy and her grandchildren and great grandchildren whom she adored.

Betty was active in Eastern Star. She was Worthy Matron of Marie Chapter # 36, she served as the Worthy Grand Matron of Montana Order of the Eastern Star. Betty was also active in Daughters of the Nile, serving as Queen of Bath Zabbia Temple No. 21. Later in life she began her own formal attire business, Betty T's, which she greatly enjoyed and it allowed her to travel all around the state and Canada.

She was an avid Trap shooter, loved doing genealogy and she traced her and her husband's family lineage back to the 12th century. She loved feeding people and always saw that anyone who went hunting with Herb or worked with him ate a hearty breakfast and had a lunch to take with them. The reward for a good hunt was always a family recipe Butterscotch pie. In her later years she loved Facebook and playing Words with Friends. Most recently she had a wonderful group of friends who came and played games with her weekly.

She is survived by her daughters, Nancy Bunn and Sue Eades, a Son-in-law Roy Bunn (who was truly like a son to her); 8 grandchildren: Angela (Bunn) Woolet (Randy), Jennifer (Bunn) Brown (Tony), Elizabeth (Bunn) Bruchez (Matt), Troy Eades (Vickie), Brent Eades (Mandi), Jaimie (Marshall) Sanderson (Tyson), Chris Marshall, Katie (Marshall) Lanini (Chris); 18 Great Grandchildren & 5 Great Great Grandchildren.

She was preceded in death by her parents, her beloved husband Herb & her youngest daughter, Debbie (Tindall) Marshall.

There will be two services held to Celebrate her life. Tuesday, September 2nd at 11:00 am at St. James Episcopal Church in Dillon—where she finished her journey in faith. There will also be a Celebration of Life in Lewistown on Thursday, September 4th at 1:00 pm at St. James Episcopal Church, Lewistown.

Memorials may be made to the Hospice program in your own community or the COPD Foundation.

WARDENS INVESTIGATE ELK POACHING NEAR CANYON CREEK

Montana Fish, Wildlife & Parks wardens are investigating the recent poaching of a bull elk near Canyon Creek northwest of Helena. The animal was discovered about a quarter of a mile off Lincoln Road in an alfalfa field. Apparently, it had been shot and left to waste, with neither antlers nor meat salvaged.

"Unfortunately, similar activity has happened here in the past," says Warden Justin Hawkaluk. "Late in the summer as the country dries up, the elk will come down out of the hills and cross the highway to get to the alfalfa fields or water and it can make them easy targets for a poacher."

Hawkaluk is asking the public to help put an end to poaching in the area by reporting any tips on this case and others to (800) TIP-MONT. Callers may be eligible for a reward and may remain anonymous.

Letter to the Editor

Mr. Dolan's letter in last Friday's Dillonite argues that the City of Dillon shouldn't pass a non-discrimination ordinance protecting gay people against unfair treatment in their housing, employment, and in public accommodations because someone might sue the city.

I'd like to remind Mr. Dolan of something I'm sure he already knows: This is America, and anyone has the right to sue anyone. This is a fact that our city council, of all people, should know full well by now. This doesn't mean, of course, that anyone can successfully sue anyone.

But Mr. Dolan warns us that because a lawsuit has been brought against Bozeman's NDO we in Dillon should be very, very afraid! Oh Dear, what if we pass an NDO and someone sues us?

Well, yes, it could happen. So what? This is America. If the City of Dillon is sued by a bunch of well-funded homophobes after passing an NDO protecting gay folks, I hope our city attorney will have the courage to follow the example of Bozeman's city attorney Greg Sullivan. Sullivan has vowed to defend the city of Bozeman vigorously against the lawsuit.

By "well-funded homophobes" I mean, of course, the Montana Family Foundation. They're who's really behind the Bozeman suit. Despite their warm and fuzzy name, this group's main focus is on fighting against gay rights by spreading lies and stirring up fear.

Their president, Greg Laszloffy, makes a good living (he took $80,000 from his foundation in 2011 and no doubt earns a lot more now) traveling around Montana sponsoring anti-gay events like the "Chick-fil-A Appreciation Day" gathering in Laurel in 2012. His group was celebrating this Atlanta-based food chain for their public opposition to gay marriage.

If Dillon passes an NDO, Laszloffy will almost certainly get involved. He'll bring his considerable financial resources, most of it provided by out-of-state right-wing organizations like ALEC and some of it from in-state bigots like the Gianfortes, to bear against our city.

I say, bring it on. I've always been taught that it's right to stand up for minority rights and it's wrong to run away from bullies like Jeff Laszloffy.

Todays Humor - well maybe

Walking on the Grass

The room was full of pregnant women with their husbands. The instructor said, "Ladies, remember that exercise is good for you. Walking is especially beneficial. It strengthens the pelvic muscles and will make delivery that much easier. Just pace yourself, make plenty of stops and try to stay on a soft surface like grass or a path."

"Gentlemen, remember -- you're in this together. It wouldn't hurt you to go walking with her. In fact, that shared experience would be good for you both."

The room suddenly became very quiet as the men absorbed this information.

After a few moments a man, name unknown, at the back of the room, slowly raised his hand.

"Yes?" said the Instructor.

"I was just wondering if it would be all right, if she carries a golf bag while we walk?"

Brings a tear to your eye, doesn't it? This level of sensitivity can't be taught.

We Count each day.

We just celebrated our 25th wedding anniversary, a milestone I wasn't sure we would make after Glenn was diagnosed with prostate cancer. I was scared, depressed and completely alone. Thankfully, we discovered the wonderful services provided by Cancer Support Community. Their support and encouragement allowed us to once again enjoy each day—and each other.

Caregiver Support Group is offered the 1st Thursday of each month, 12:00-1:00pm at Barrett Hospital & Health-Care. Available free of charge to caregivers of people diagnosed with cancer.
