State Bank & Trust Changes Name SB&T Becomes the Dillon Branch of The Bank of Commerce

A little over two years ago, on July 14, 2012, The Bank of Commerce acquired State Bank & Trust. To ease the transition, the original name of the bank was not immediately changed. Now, two years later, the name will officially change to The Bank of Commerce.

Although the name is changing, the friendly staff and bank services customers have come to appreciate at State Bank & Trust will remain the same. As always, customers are top priority and providing exceptional customer service is the number one mission at the bank.

State Bank & Trust and The Bank of Commerce are a complementary fit because of a mutual expertise in agricultural and small business lending and a strong commitment to community partnerships.

The Bank of Commerce is a full-service community bank headquartered in Idaho Falls, Idaho, and has been serving southeastern Idaho and southwest Montana since 1959. The Bank has 16 branch locations and over $950 million in assets.

On September 10, 2014, the bank will hold an Open House from 1pm - 3pm to commemorate the name change. A ribbon cutting ceremony will take place at 1:30pm.

Mike Ferris, Dillon Branch Manager, states "We would like to invite all our present, past and future customers to come and help us celebrate this event to show our gratitude."

Tom Romrell, Bank President & CEO, adds, "We appreciate all of our valued banking customers and want to thank you for making us your bank of a lifetime."

Letter to the EditorQuestions for Mr. Turner:

1. How are homosexual or trans-sexual people identified by potential landlords and potential employers?

They are obviously not required by law to wear a sign on their outer garments as the Jews in Warsaw ghettos were by Hitler's regime, nor, as lepers were in the middle ages, do they have to wear a neck-to-ankle garment and ring a large hand bell and call out "Unclean! Unclean!" when approaching a habitation. How, then are they identified?

2. Are there any documented cases of homosexuals being discriminated against in Dillon housing or job markets? If so, would you cite the specifics?

3. If not, why did you introduce this proposed ordinance?

In your first letter to the editor, you implied that the City Attorney was fabricating an excuse ("a legalistic smoke screen") to advocate against the passing of your ordinance. His open reply to you in the Dillonite Daily (August 29, 2014) refuted that charge.

In your next letter you implied that he was being faint-hearted. And, ostensibly mimicking him, said, in what was obviously meant to be a falsetto voice "Oh, dear, what if we pass an NDO and someone sues us?" (Dillonite Daily Sept. 1, 2014). Thus deliberately misconstruing both the one of Mr. Dolan's letter and the spirit in which it was written.

You then demolish your own straw man and in your best macho voice admit, Well, yes, it could happen. So what? "... If they want to sue us, 'I say, bring it on.'"

A nice macho response. YOU are prepared to fight a lawsuit with OUR money.

at this point a line from Romeo and Juliet is appropriate: "He jests at scars who never felt a wound."

You admit in this same letter that if Dillon passes such an NDO, it will most likely be sued by "a well-funded bunch of homophobes" who you later identify as the Montana Family Foundation. You then express the hope that City Attorney Dolan "will have the courage to follow the example of Bozeman's city attorney, Greg Sullivan.

Is it really necessary to make a disparaging comparison between the two attorneys by implying that Mr. Dolan has less courage than Mr. Sullivan? Especially since Mr. Sullivan has no other option than to "defend the City of Bozeman vigorously against the lawsuit". It is his city that is being sued.

You reduce a complex issue to a simplistic dichotomy by implying that anyone who opposes your ordinance is either a bigot, a homophobe, or both.

That is emphatically not the case, Mr. Turner.

It is entirely possible to be a vegan vegetarian without wanting to picket McDonald's or Burger King or Chick Filet for for that matter, slandering cattlemen, sheep men or dairy farmers. And WITHOUT URGING EVERYONE ELSE TO BECOME A VEGAN VEGETARIAN.

It is likewise possible to abstain from alcohol for any reason whatsoever without, like Carry Nation, taking a hatchet and smashing up liquor bottles in public saloons; and also WITHOUT INSISTING THAT EVERYONE ELSE STOP DRINKING ALCOHOL.

Does this make such people bigots, or phobics?

President George Herbert Bush hated broccoli and gave orders to the White House kitchen that it was not to be served in the dining room while he was president.

Does this make him a broccoli-phobe?

Why, then, do you characterize anyone who refuses to vote on a city ordinance YOU have drawn up for the whole City of Dillon, as homophobes and bigots?

Is it your belief that anyone who does not believe as you believe is either a bigot or a homophobe, or both?

And do you consider character assassination by innuendo an essential element of persuasion?

Where Have All the Flowers Gone?

The Dillon Farmers' Market is wondering...where are all those sunflowers we planted four months ago? On Saturday September 6, Edna Montgomery claimed top honors in the market's Senior Sunflower contest among growers over age 18. Here is a photo of Edna with her prize-winning flower (at left) with market President Catherine Cain. Congratulations, Edna!

"We were thrilled with Edna's sunflower, said Catherine Cain, "Yet we missed our younger growers who didn't bring in their flowers." The contest has been extended for the younger growers. If you are 17 or younger you have a nice big sunflower growing from special seeds you planted in May, there is still time to bring in your flower head to be measured at the Dillon Farmers' Market on Saturday, September 13. Prizes for the biggest Sunny Sunflower (growers under 11) and Super Sunflower (ages 12-17) are waiting to be claimed. The prize in each category is a certificate for ten "Sticky Dollars," good for any purchase at the Dillon Farmers' Market.

Beaverhead-Deerlodge NF to Spray for Bark Beetles at Reservoir Lake Campground

The Forest Service has scheduled the application of insecticide for September 8 and 9 at Reservoir Lake Campground on the Beaverhead-Deerlodge National Forest. The site will be closed to public use from 6 a.m. on Mon., September 8, till 6 a.m. on Wed., September 10. The need for this is driven by the current mountain pine beetle epidemic, which has heavily affected many areas throughout southwest Montana. Depending on weather, the period of closure may be extended. A Forest Service contract crew will be spraying Carbaryl to protect individual pine trees from mountain pine beetles.

Application of insecticide began in late June with individual tree treatments in campgrounds, day-use areas and trailheads. In order to be effective the green trees must be treated late summer before the beetles fly again next summer. In addition, users may notice packets stapled to trees. These 2"x 2" packets are Verbenone and/or MCH and are used to ward off bark beetles in areas that cannot be sprayed with the Carbaryl pesticide because of being too close to water. Please leave these packets in place to protect the trees.

For more information, contact the Forest Service in Dillon at (406) 683-3900.

Beaver Head Hunters Genealogical Society

The next meeting of the Beaver Head Hunters Genealogical Society will be Tuesday, September 16 at 7:00 pm in the Museum Research Room. We will begin with a brief business meeting, followed by a presentation by Clay Edwards. Clay will primarily be talking about how the partnership of the Orr and Poindexter families started, and how they came to the valley. As always, the public is invited.

Paint the Town Blue and Yellow

Paint the town blue and yellow to support National Suicide Prevention Week September 8th through the 14th. You can paint your windows, put up streamers, or even decorate with balloons. Then on Wednesday, September 10th everyone is encouraged to wear blue and yellow. Also, on September 10th, there is a free community program presenting Tom Thelen, a motivational speaker focused on anti-bullying sponsored by Dillon Girl Scout Jaydyn Child.

PATRIOTS DAY AT THE ARMORY

September 13, 8am to 4pm. Public welcomed and Veterans are strongly encourage to come. We hope to see you there.

ATTENTION MIDDLE SCHOOL BOYS & GIRLS:

All middle school girls and boys are encouraged to join us on Wednesday's right after school! The girls meet in the Common Room; boys meet in the Skills Lab room. The Women's Resource/Community Support Center facilitates both groups (boys' group is facilitated by a man) in an effort to empower young people by cultivating self-respect and connecting them with others. Groups are not run like a class, but rather a club that works together on social issues. Examples of group work might include: identifying societal pressures and gender expectations, critiquing the media and the impact of such in the lives of youth, and describing similarities and differences between families. Girls' Group and Boys' Group promote equality, independence, and safety through activities and discussion groups. For more information, please contact Melainya Ryan @ 683-6106. We hope to see you there!

Madison Fire Becomes More Active Due to Warmer Temps

The lightning caused Madison Fire detected Sunday afternoon Aug. 10, became more active late Saturday afternoon as temperatures increased and relative humidity lowered. Smoke was seen from Interstate 90 between Homestake pass and the Pipestone exit as well as from Delmoe Lake. The fire is now estimated at five acres. The fire had shown little activity due to cooler temperatures earlier in the week. "As expected with temperatures raising the fire came back to life", reported Butte/Jefferson District Ranger Dave Sabo. "Temperatures are expected to be warm on Sunday and Monday before a cooling trend comes into the area. We will continue to see increased smoke with these warm temperatures."

Due to its remote location, steep slopes, rocky terrain, continuous dead fuels and lack of safety areas for firefighters, fire officials decided to monitor the fire rather than place firefighters on the scene. The fire will continue to be patrolled from the air and from a distance on the ground.

The Dillon Dispatch Center is aware of the fire as they continue to coordinate management of this fire with firefighters. Additional information or questions can be directed to the Forest Service in Butte at (406) 494-0250 or Whitehall (406) 287-3223, or go online to www.inciweb.nwcg.gov.

Suicide Prevention Quilt Drawing

Did you buy a ticket on the lovely quilt made by the Methodist Church ladies? Perhaps you remember seeing that beautiful quilt on display at Farmer's Market this summer? Well, the winner of this quilt will be drawn this Wednesday evening (Sept. 10) which just happens to be World Suicide Prevention Day. You do not need to be present to win, but if you are not there.....then you are missing out on an interesting program by youth motivational speaker, Tom Thelen from Michigan. Tom will be speaking about bullying and victim proofing against bullying. Program will be at the BCHS Auditorium at 7:00 pm Wednesday evening.
