Frankie Stratton

Our mother, grandmother, great-grandmother and good friend, Frankie Stratton left us peacefully at Heritage Homes in Kalispell, on September 16, 2014..

She was born to Rev Frank B Hillis and Alice Hillis in Kalispell, Mt on August 1, 1921.

As a "preachers daughter" Frankie spent much of her youth traveling around north west Montana, singing, playing the piano and helping with church services. She also excelled in music at Flathead County High School, earning many honors.

On Nov 27, 11942, she married Ellwood (Al) Stratton in Seattle, WA where he was working during WWII. After the war, they returned to the Flathead Valley, and after living in various "cabins" and a tent., they built their log house with logs from their sawmill.

Frankie was a stay at home Mom all her life, with many interests. Playing the piano and organ., seamstress, church leader and teacher, and artist. She sold many paintings of Indians and scenery over the years, and in 1970 was featured with other artists, in the publication "Montana's Own".

Frankie and Al moved around Montana following road construction from 1961-1977. In 1977 they settled in Dillon. Keenly aware of those in need, they helped form "Helping Hands", quietly gathering clothes, food, funds and emotional support for many people. She lived her convictions in her everyday life, and always took a stand for right.

Frankie worked side by side with Al for 67 years, raising their daughters—always there to lend a hand, a shoulder, or an ear to their family, friends, and a large extended family.

She was preceded in death by her husband Al, parents, and sister Jane. The memories of Frankie will always be remembered by those who survive: her daughters Susan(Fred) Rebish, Dillon; Mary(John) Semmens, Polson; grandchildren Tracey(Kendra) Rebish, Missoula, Katherine(Bob) Hupp, Dillon, Jason Semmens, and Rachael(Myles) Heivilin; Colorado, six great-grandchildren; numerous nieces and nephews including Jean(Ron) Levang, Norma Williams, Sandy Lovell; a friend since childhood, Dale Keller(Joan) and a former neighbor, Donn Bolog, Bothel, WA. -all considered family.

Frankie was a feisty, loving mother, grandmother and friend who you could call on any time day or night. Her passing leaves a huge void in our lives, but a wonderful model to follow.

Memorial service at a later date.

Letter to the Editor

Some of you may remember me. My name is Jake Heinecke and I lived in Dillon for twenty-two years. During that time I spent fifteen years with the Beaverhead County Sheriff's Office. While I was with the Sheriff's Office, I was a deputy in the Bighole and Dillon. I eventually was appointed to the position of Undersheriff by Sheriff Jay Hansen.

Two and a half years ago, my wife Jamie and I left Beaverhead County and moved to Lewistown. Since that time I have stayed in regular contact with many of my friends and former co-workers. I have heard a considerable number of rumors as to my reasons for leaving the Beaverhead County Sheriff's Office and the community of Dillon. The only reason that my family and I left Dillon can be summed up with one word. FAMILY. Simply put, my wife's family needed our help maintaining and operating their ranch and we felt obligated to help them. I was very fortunate at the time of my leaving in that the Sheriff's Office in my new home town happened to be hiring and the Sheriff there was gracious enough to give me the opportunity to go to work for him.

As I stated earlier, since my leaving I have heard a number of rumors as to why I left. The basis for these rumors all hinge on one general subject, that being that I was unable, unwilling or otherwise disillusioned with working for Jay Hansen. Nothing could be further from the truth! Jay Hansen and I worked very closely together for my entire career with the Beaverhead County Sheriff's Office. I consider Jay a very good friend and a mentor. Jay has been and will continue to be the kind of leader that will put the needs of the county and its residents first. Jay has always strived to continue pursuing as much formal leadership education as possible to be able to best serve the citizens of Beaverhead County.

Having had the opportunity to work under four elected Sheriff's and numerous interim Sheriff's while at Beaverhead County, as well as another elected Sheriff where I currently reside, I can say that Jay Hansen truly has the knowledge, skill and expertise citizens of Beaverhead County deserve. After all, the office of the Sheriff belongs to you the voters of Beaverhead County.

During my time in law enforcement I have had many opportunities to reflect back on leadership and what makes a Sheriff effective. I have seen both good and bad leaders and I have seen poor leaders make good decisions and great leaders make poor decisions. The Mission Statement on the Sheriff's Office wall states, "Do the right thing, the right way, for the right reasons." I can assure you that Jay Hansen asks himself that question every day.

I'd like to close this letter by reminding you, the voters of Beaverhead County, that to be an effective leader you have to have had the opportunity to lead. There is far more to the job of Sheriff than just a law enforcement background. Being an effective Sheriff requires continuing and pertinent education. Jay is always seeking more education for himself and is always pushing his deputies that serve you to continue their education as well.

Thank you for your time and for allowing me to have served you.

Respectfully yours;

Jake Heinecke

CO-WORKER AND FRIEND NEED HELP

Donations for: David Gleason and Helen Sorel

David Gleason, friend and co-worker, has been diagnosed with terminal cancer. He has been placed on the hospice list and his mother Helen Sorel is helping to take care of him. David has been given 6 months or less to live. Helen is going to be unable to work during this time and we are collecting donations to help her and David in this time of need.

Both Helen and David worked in Dillon and the Grasshopper Valley for years, and are two of the finest people I have gotten to know while working with them at the Klondike. They are hardworking, honest people who need our help. There will be other benefits in Dillon to help out also. Please think of them in their time of grief and need.

If any additional information is needed please call Jodi Skradski at 660-0488 or Kathy Smith 660-1250. Any donations can be dropped off at A & O Sheet Metal or the Klondike.

Patriot's Day Stand Down

The Women's Resource Center/Community Support Center would like to thank everyone who was involved in making the 2014 Patriot's Day Stand Down event here in Dillon a great success.

The event facilitated outreach opportunities to over 300 veterans, connecting them with resources in our state and in our community. Whether getting them signed up for health care, help with writing a claim, housing, jobs, getting a haircut, to food and entertainment, our community rallied behind our veterans and showed genuine interest in serving those who serve.

To all of the local businesses who donated items for the raffle and silent auction, all the people involved in organizing the event, and to all of our service men and women, we thank you very much. Our big winners this year include:

- A guided hunt provided by Mr. Bill Kempf of Montana Bucks and Ducks & Mr. Cal Erb, with special thanks to landowners Cal and Brooke Erb.

Winner - Jaydee Poirier of Twin Bridges

- A guided fly fishing trip provided by Jon and Brad at Anderson & Platt Outfitters.

Winner - Don Kennedy of Dillon

Special thanks to Mr. Kennedy for choosing to donate his trip to a couple of young veterans who've never had the chance to experience a float trip.

- Ray Honey of Dillon won a great Kershaw knife provided by Gary Hoggatt at NAPA in addition to a chance to win a fully outfitted rifle package. Good Luck Ray!

ALLIANCE BRASS QUINTET

An exciting young brass quintet – The Alliance Brass – will grace the stage at the Beier Auditorium Thursday, September 25, at 7:30 p.m. This infectious and enthusiastic quintet is being brought to Dillon by the Dillon Concert Association as part of their 2014-15 concert series and is sponsored by the family of Richard Kaiser and McIsaac Appraisals.

Dazzling audiences with a repertoire ranging from the early Renaissance to jazz and beyond, the Alliance Brass is poised to become one of the world's finest brass ensembles. They have shared the stage with orchestras and other brass quintets all over the world.

The ensemble is also dedicated to the education of the next generation of musicians, and members of ABQ have served on faculty at some of the top music institutions. Beyond their teaching efforts, the ensemble also offers a wide range of programs designed to fit school music programs.

Whether through performances, clinics, or workshops, the ABQ has an infectious enthusiasm they use to inspire a passion for music wherever they go.

Membership in the Dillon Concert Association grants admission to all 2014-15 musical events. Single event tickets will be sold at the door: Adults $15; College $10; Student/Youth $6.

For further information and/or interest in one of the limited number of free single event tickets, please contact Chris Kloker at 865-0076.
