PLEASE HELP

Many of you may know that my husband has lived with type 1 diabetes longer than most anyone that you know. He was diagnosed at the age of five and has managed very well for 53 years. Over time it becomes evident that an engine that is working without all of its parts is going to start to have issues. We decided to try to find some answers to problems that we were experiencing and were lead to a place called Trina Health in Arizona where they do what is called an artificial pancreas treatment. The treatment was developed by a father who's 2 year old child was diagnosed and not given a very good outlook on life. She is now 34 health, happy and has five children. She has been on the treatment that her father developed for over 25 years.

There are 9 Trina Health Clinics in the United States, all in the southern part of the country. When we first looked into it there were 5 clinics and in a matter of 4 months there are now 9. We would like to bring this treatment to our area as it has made a tremendous difference in Ron's life, the treatment tricks the liver into thinking that the pancreas is working and the liver starts to function normally. It is working for Ron and we have come to realize that it is necessary for his well being.

I would like to ask you to contact the people at Trina Health at 1-844-692-6324 and let them know that you support us getting a clinic in our community, either for Ron or if you know anyone that could benefit from the treatment, I feel that it could make life easier for many people with diabetes. If you are interested in the story and getting information on the treatment go to <http://www.trinahealth.com/>. Thank you in advance for your support.

Sincerely, Julie Briggs

Letter to the Editor

My wife & I moved to Dillon in 1970, and spent our first 14 years on Thomsen Ave. The numbers of stray and unwanted dogs and cats bordered on ridiculous. Far too many pet owners thought it unnecessary to fence or neuter their dogs and cats. When litters were born (especially kittens), it was easy to just drive a couple miles from town, dump them upon those who lived in the area, and race back to town. No problem, and no guilt! Some of the lucky dogs & cats were rescued, fed, and loved by new owners. However, many suffered hunger, illness, and even death. Many were shot, poisoned, or destroyed by other means. In 1984, we moved a couple miles from town, and still reside on Hwy. 91 South. For the first few years we witnessed people dumping their unwanted litters near our home, and even in our driveway. We own both cats and dogs, love & appreciate them dearly. Believe me, I know the expenses involved. There is the feeding, neutering fees, vet fees, and a list of other unexpected costs. However, we feel we are justified and rewarded by all of our pets, and all of them came from the local animal shelter.

After the local Animal Shelter was established in Dillon, several thousand dogs and cats have found safety, food, and even homes where they are actually wanted! I accepted a position on the board several years ago, and find it very satisfying to know these animals are finally being treated humanely. These animals are professionally neutered before being adopted out to new owners. I wish to strongly request that the residence of Dillon and Beaverhead County will support the mill levy being requested this year. Our animal shelter workers strive every single year to balance the books and pay the bills for these homeless animals. Several of the biggest supporters of the shelter have moved, and others are forced to cut back on their donations. Let us all share the costs that are necessary in keeping our local shelter alive and well. Then visit the shelter and see for yourself what these workers face every single day. Thanks for caring!

DIAMOND ENCRUSTED METEORITE

I suppose it was inevitable that we would get a debate as to whether this was really a meteorite or not, but I guess that's normal and perhaps good. I told Sequoia that it might be a good idea to get a second opinion so she went to another local geologist for whom I have a lot of respect. I won't mention the persons name because they may not want to enter the public debate about the subject.

But the other geologist felt fairly sure it wasn't a meteorite because it was composed of limestone, it wasn't black and it appeared to have some fossils on the surface.

But, in reply:

1. I agree that the meteorite is probably composed of limestone: but, there have been limestone meteorites recorded previously and, in the end, every rock on earth came from space at some time. In the last year or so there have been two near-miss asteroids that passed within about 60,000 miles of the earth. One exploded over a Russian city and injured over a thousand people. So, there was plenty of space debris around to make a few meteorites here and there.
2. The meteorite wasn't black because it was probably limestone. You can burn limestone all day long and it will not turn black. It turns white, which is lime, which was also encrusted onto the meteorite.
3. The crystals on the meteorite are diamonds. When I tested one it readily cut glass. Diamonds are not known to be formed from limestone but it is theoretically possible. The other crystal that's known to be formed from limestone is calcite which, with a hardness of only 3, could never cut glass. No other crystal forms are known to be formed from limestone.
4. The "fossils" do not appear to be any fossil form that is known on earth. If they are fossils, they may have been something that fused to the red hot meteorite when it struck the earth. It is also theoretically possible that the "fossils" are something that came from space. Perhaps they're just some of the lime that was formed by burning the limestone on entry into the atmosphere.
5. But, I am certain that the greatest evidence that it is a meteorite is that Sequoia Smith says she saw it fall from the sky, burning through the atmosphere and striking the ground not far from her feet. We have no reason to doubt what she says and I think it is very disrespectful to assume that she is lying.

It is a diamond encrusted meteorite.

It seems nothing changes...Submitted by Chuck Dishno

"We still find the greedy hand of government thrusting itself into every corner and crevice of industry, and grasping the spoil of the multitude. Invention is continually exercised, to furnish new pretenses for revenues and taxation. It watches prosperity as its prey and permits none to escape without tribute."

Antelope Hunting Outlook

Things are looking up for Montana antelope with populations continuing to recover from previous years' winter mortality and reduced recruitment in central and eastern Montana.

This year, there are even a few more special licenses available reflecting that reduced but improving status.

Successful antelope license applicants may recognize increased fawn production in many areas as populations respond to generally favorable weather and habitat conditions in 2014.

Montana's antelope archery season will close Oct. 10 and the general rifle season for antelope will run Oct. 11-Nov. 9.
