Letter to the Editor

Cheers to LaVon Brillhart for his insightful letter about bullying in last Friday's paper. He was inspired in pointing out that the king was wearing no clothes. I so agree that we have a sad history of bullying in this country, and that it's almost systemic. I also agree that it needn't be left to 'others' to turn the tide. We all have ways to ask better of our legislators, our coaches, our schools and our families, but that won't happen without the awareness that precedes action. Good for you LaVon.

Val Neeley

Barrett Hospital Foundation and the Southwestern Montana Mammography Program are pleased to announce several upcoming events to recognize October as Breast Cancer Awareness Month.

October 17th is Passionately Pink Day, where community members are asked to wear pink in honor of all people affected by breast cancer.

October 18th is the Pink Balloon Walk at 10:00 AM at the Barrett Hospital Kennedy Walking Trail. For those interested, the walk will be followed by a tailgate party at the UMW Bulldogs game at Vigilante Field beginning at 11:00 AM, and then in conjunction with half-time during the Bulldog game there will be a hike to the W and a pink balloon release.

November 2nd is the date of the drawing for the pink Polaris Outlaw Youth ATV Game of Chance at Safeway at Noon. The Outlaw was generously donated by Chris & Kim Tomlinson of Adventure Cycle & Sled.

Don't forget to wear pink to these activities to show your support of Breast Cancer Awareness and the Southwestern Montana Mammography Program. For information please contact Lesli Cottom at 683-3232 or Jim Gleason at 683-6737.

Youth-Only Deer Hunt Comes a Week Early, Oct. 16-17

The two-day special season is open to properly licensed youngsters ages 12 to 15 who've passed a hunter safety course. Additionally, 11-year-olds who passed hunter safety may hunt if they'll be 12 by Jan. 16, 2015.

The youth hunt is typically scheduled during the public schools' two-day vacation in October, which is scheduled for Oct. 16-17 this year. This puts youth rifle hunters in the field during the final days of Montana's archery season.

"Archers and our young hunters need to be aware of the overlapping seasons and plan accordingly," Aasheim said.

Young hunters must wear hunter orange and follow all hunting district regulations.

To participate, youth hunters must be accompanied by a non-hunting adult 18 years of age or older.
