A Final Farewell to a Good Friend...

By Chuck Dishno

Roz and I moved to Dillon, 25 years ago and I transferred my membership in Kiwanis to the Kiwanis Club of Dillon. One of the first Kiwanis members to greet and welcome me was Dick Kennedy. We immediately hit it off and we became fast friends. I realized from the start what a true gentleman Dick was. It was very obvious he was deeply in love with his wife, Alice as he talked about her at every opportunity. I never tried to shut him up or change the subject because he was so sincere in his devotion. They lived 3 blocks down Washington from us and we would see them often, usually out on his back deck where we would share a small drink. It was obvious that the love flowed both ways.

The saddest day in Dick's life came about 10 years ago when Alice succumbed to that dreadful cancer. They had been married many and had five children. All were a very close knit family.

After Alice died, Dick would come over to my house with a stack of Alice's pictures and ask me if I could scan them suitable for framing. I would do my best and Dick was always pleased. He would sit on the end of my bed and begin to cry as the picture materialized on my computer screen. I had a Seal Point Siamese cat, Max, who would see Dick crying, then jump up on his lap, stare him in the face and in his very loud Siamese voice cry right along with Dick. Max knew something was wrong and wanted to help all he could.

As Halloween is just around the corner, I can't help thinking of Dick and his devotion to passing out apples at the annual Chamber Halloween party. He did this in the name of Kiwanis, one of his other true loves. He will be missed this year at the Chamber party, a position he held for over 15 years.

Knowing Dick and his fondness for the perfect apple, I worry about meeting Eve, in Heaven, and her offering one to Dick. I can just see him taking a bite and commenting on the quality.

A few years ago when Dick was feeling so low, I invited him to join a few of us for coffee each morning. Dick took me up on the offer and it became a morning ritual and his contribution to our stories/lies became legendary.

The last time I spoke to Dick was when he was in Billings recovering from hip surgery. He said he couldn't wait to return to Dillon where the two of us could stand in the middle of Washington Street and have a good old fashioned butt kicking contest. We may have to put it off now until we meet on one of those Heavenly streets. A friendly contest of course.

There are few people who can be listed as a true friend and Dick certainly fit into that coveted position. Thank you, Dick, for entering my life and becoming one of my true and devoted friends. Until we meet again in that Heavenly Coffee Club, no lies allowed though.

I love you.

Letter to the Editor

I had the opportunity to work with and supervise both candidates for Sheriff for many years while I was the Beaverhead County Sheriff. Without any reservations I am casting my vote on November 4th for the only qualified candidate, Sheriff Jay Hansen. I respect and trust the way Jay does his job. Jay is experienced, honest, and trustworthy. I know firsthand that in the position of Sheriff you have to make very important and difficult decisions that affect many people, and may impact you personally. Sheriff is not just a title, but a responsibility. I trust Jay to continue protecting our county. Please join me and vote for the qualified, experienced, and trustworthy candidate.

It is Election Time

By: MJ

Is the taxpayers hearing the truth? Local, state and federal candidates are trying to convince you they are the outstanding and most qualified person for the job by supporting the media with an abundance of ads and speeches. Sometimes the taxpayers wait for the book the politicians write and publish to learn the truth.

NOTE: Without you the taxpayer, the politicians would not have a job and the government would not exist. It is you that pays for; 1) the highways candidates drive on, 2) the police protecting them while speaking in a community, 3) the streets they park on, the street lights that light their path...

Candidate: When a candidate makes an ad or has an ad done for them all you hear or read is how they are the perfect person for the job and what an exceptional job they will do or have been doing for you. They tell you what an outstanding, faultless, truthful, impeccable and skilled person they are. They probably won't tell you about all the opportunities they have had that they botched. They will tell they are for or against the hot issues that touch the emotions of people. Like: Health Care, Health Insurance, Gun Control, Public Lands, Endangered Species...

Opponents: From the opponents side you hear how the candidate is irresponsible, deceitful, false-hearted, mistaken, misguided, without skills... Enough to make a person throw their hands up in the air and say "why even bother with voting."

"When you want "top help" people you tell them the truth.
When you want to "help yourself", you tell them what they want to hear." Dr. Thomas Sowell

Logging Begins Near Georgetown Lake

The Pintler Ranger District is advising travelers in the Georgetown Lake area that log removal from the "Lodgepole Salvage" project will begin south of Philipsburg adjacent to the Lodgepole Campground. Travelers to this area are advised to drive cautiously because of log truck traffic and machinery through February 2015. Expect short delays along Forest Service road #65 (Echo Lake road) and log trucks entering Highway 1.

For additional information contact the Pintler Ranger District in Philipsburg at (406) 859-3211.

Letter to the Editor

A complaint has been filed with the State of Montana Commissioner of Political Practices regarding a possible violation in election actions which may have compromised "the secrecy of the ballot". This complaint is in regards to advertising which was made by or on behalf of Jay Hansen's campaign. This complaint was not filed at the request of any person. I have filed this complaint based on advertising actions I have seen or heard and have requested a review of these advertisements.

A call to action for those persons interested in community veteran support

The Women's Resource/Community Support Center is committed to providing opportunities to enrich the quality of all people's lives in Beaverhead and Madison counties.

As such, we are seeking to establish a Joining Community Forces Advisory Council in order to help facilitate community cooperation among resource providers.

This is the type of community cooperation which allowed the 2014 Patriot's Day Stand Down to be such a successful event, connecting veterans with available community resources in very tangible ways, from haircuts to mental health to getting signed up for health care. The epitome of the day was watching two veterans walk away with jobs. This is the potential of community cooperation, the power to make lasting and meaningful impacts on the lives of citizens, specifically veterans, in our area.

While our emphasis here at the Community Support Center is on domestic violence, children, and sexual assault survivors, we know that you as community leaders have specialties in complementary areas such as mental and physical health services, faith organizations, food and clothing, education and job services, among others.

Our vision is based on the idea that such an Advisory Council, comprised of members with various resource specialties, would be capable of providing veteran support and leading the charge for such events as the Stand Down. The other benefit we foresee by having a council of this sort is that veterans' assistance would not be relegated to a singular annual event, but rather providing support of a perpetual nature, ensuring that veterans in need do not go without.

If you, or someone you know is interested in joining this type of Advisory Council, we'd like to know...

- Who you are
- Your available time commitment
- Why you are interested in helping veterans

We will be having an open meeting regarding this potential Council on November 6th from noon until 1:00pm, upstairs at State Bank. We are asking for an RSVP if you plan on attending.

Lunch will be provided. Please call 406-683-6106 to RSVP

COMMUNITY CALL TO PRAYER

Saturday, November 1st is a community Call to Prayer at Our Saviors Lutheran Church, 715 Bannack Street. Anyone & everyone is invited to come & pray for our community, state & national 9 am. to 9 pm. Just come in and pray as long as you choose. Worship throughout --- all are welcome.

Letter to the Editor

My 2015 taxes for the Bvhd Animal Shelter comes to a grand total of 96 cents. I invite anyone to come to the shelter & spend the morning with me & I will show them where my 96 cents goes. The shelter also produces an annual report that is public record. I spend time & money at the shelter on a regular basis & soon it will not be a "privately run" shelter. I support the mill. Let's increase what the shelter gets now so we aren't hit hard later.
