Rumor on the Street - Complaint Filed

By: MJ

There are rumblings on the street concerning the legalities of a local campaign and a complaint that has been filed with Political Practices in Helena. The complaint states it is a typical case where abuse of office is apparent.

FACT: There was a complaint filed with State of MT Political Practices stating that Mr. Hansen may have abused his "color of authority" by printing advertisements using his title, the official titles of Under Sheriff, Deputies, Dispatchers, the County Attorney, Deputy County Attorney... CITIZENS: The avenue or normal procedure for citizens to follow when having concerns and want to file a complaint would be to go to the county attorney however; it appears via the ads that Mr. Fitch is no longer a neutral party. RUMORS: People are expressing their concerns about their fear of paybacks or repercussions for other residents and employees of Beaverhead County by those in positions of authority. Continued rumors speak of a person over-hearing phone calls made to another county employee from a supervisor, harassing him to endorse Sheriff Hansen with his signature for ads. Asking employees to sign the letter violates the secrecy of ballot ensured to citizens of Montana. (Article 5, Section 1 of the Montana Constitution.

I read the complaint and it does appear that the rumors on the street have weight.

RESEARCH: Find out for yourself - don't listen to rumors. Read the complaint in its entirety. In your search engine type in; Mt political practice/hansen and fitch and then click on the complaint.

"COLOR OF LAW": It is a federal crime for anyone acting under "color of law" willfully to deprive or conspire to deprive a person of a right protected by the Constitution of U.S. law. "Color of law" simply put, means that the person is using authority given to him or her by local, state, or federal government agency.

MOOSE SHOT, LEFT TO WASTE NORTH OF BUTTE

Montana Fish, Wildlife & Parks received numerous reports of a dead moose off Lowland Road near Maney Lake in the Elk Park area north of Butte Wednesday.

FWP game wardens investigated and found a cow moose that had been shot in its chest and left to waste. The moose's calf was nearby and unharmed. This moose was later identified by an ear tag as a cow that had been moved from a location in Butte in 2010.

FWP is now looking to the public for help. Anyone with information related to the incident should call (800) TIP-MONT. Callers may remain anonymous and may be eligible for a reward.

There are no cow moose hunting permits in this area.

Bulldogs come back and win on senior day

The University of Montana Western's football team hosted College of Idaho on Saturday afternoon and won 30-27 in the home finale of the 2014 season for the Bulldogs.

Montana Western continues to come through in the clutch and walk away with victories. The Bulldogs hosted the Yotes' from the College of Idaho on Saturday afternoon and made senior day a memorable one. With the forecast showing rain and worsening weather UMW came back and scored with just over two minutes remaining to take a three point lead and the defense came through with a big interception to secure the victory.

Late in the fourth quarter the Bulldog offense took possession at midfield. Dylan Kramer began the drive with a modest five yard gain and Sam Rutherford followed with another five yards for a Bulldog first down. Senior quarterback Tyler Hulse then scampered to his right and down the sideline for a 31 yard gain to the Yotes' nine yard line. UMW was turned away the series before falling short on a fourth and one from the two trailing by four. Montana Western made good on this trip and scored the go ahead touchdown. Sophomore running back Sam Rutherford took the handoff and started left and cut it back to score to give the Bulldogs a 30-27 lead.

College of Idaho had one last possession to either tie or take the lead. UMW's defense stepped up and made a key stop for the third consecutive game. On the Yotes' first down play quarterback TeeJay Gordon slung a pass that was broken up by a diving Dakota Wainwright. Gordon's second down pass did not find its' mark and fell harmlessly to the ground. College of Idaho faced a third and ten from their own 34 yard line and dropped back to pass. The pass was tipped and found the waiting hands of senior defensive back Jesse McCloud. The Churchill, Mont., native returned the ball to the Yotes' 15 yard line where the offense took over. With a minute and a half remaining and C of I having one timeout in their pocket the UMW offense needed one first down to secure the win. On fourth and one senior running back Michael Lake gained the first down and the celebration began.

UMW rushed for 300 yards on 47 carries. Sophomore Sam Ruthford led the attack gaining 131 yards and two touchdowns on 20 carries. Helena High School product Tyler Hulse rushed for 53 yards on nine attempts with a long of 31 yards. Hulse threw for 168 yards and two touchdowns with zero interceptions. His favorite target was Beau Brekke who hauled in six receptions for 106 yards and two touchdowns.

Defensively the Bulldogs received a big game from Jesse McCloud. The senior in addition to the key interception recorded seven unassisted tackles and finished the day with 13 total tackles. Linebacker Dakota Wainwright came up with the diving pass break up and when not defending the pass registered a sack, a tackle for loss, and eight total tackles. Junior Joe Coker had a tackle for loss and made seven total stops on the day.

The Bulldogs have won three games in a row. The win over College of Idaho came on the heels of victories over then-No. 15 Eastern Oregon and then-No. 13 Rocky Mountain. UMW will travel to Havre to take on Montana State-Northern on Saturday Nov. 8 at 12 pm in the season finale. The Bulldogs look to continue their hot streak and finish the regular season with a 6-4 Frontier Conference record.

Letter to the Editor

I would like to put my support behind Brenda Womack and Lawrence Leith and the Dillon Tribune for printing the true facts on the recall petitions being blocked by the county attorney.

Dillon and Beaverhead County is lucky to have both the Dillonite and Dillon Tribune to be the best of a free press. Working hard to print the truth and not be bias in reporting.

I also support a petition to gather all information that the county attorney has stated in the Montana Standard and other newspapers that he would block the recall petitions, even as they were being collected.

The information should be sent to the Montana Bar Association and Judicial Watch for review.

Letter to the Editor

Over the last 40 years, I have trained and coached 4-H and FFA Judging Teams in the areas of meats, livestock and horses. It is a process of evaluation in certain areas and comparisons with objective reasons to back up your choice for your placings.

When selecting a candidate for office, I use the same method of selection. In the sheriff's race, I am looking for experience, training, stability and professionalism. All of these can be measured in some way.

In the area of experience, my research found that Jay Hansen has served in Law Enforcement for 30 years compared to 18-20 for his opponent.

In the training category, Jay has received far more training in all areas including Leadership. His opponent has not received this training. I personally have taken CPR and First Aid training from Jay and he is above and beyond any other instructor I ever took these classes from. I had to renew every year for CPR and every 3 years for First Aid.

Jay exhibits great stability in his family, church and job history. He has been married to one wife, Sue, for 30 years. Jay has been a member of one church community his entire life. His job history speaks for itself, 30 years in Law Enforcement.

In the arena of professionalism, since I was a therapeutic foster parent, there were times when I needed to work with the sheriff's office. Jay always handled the situations in a very professional manner. Also when I was an Early Childhood teacher and ran the Head Start program, he was there in a flash for emergencies and presentations of programs. If he needed to talk to a parent, he did it in a very private setting. I had an experience at another preschool where an officer came into the preschool lunchtime with two other staff and arrested a mother. The children and my staff were very alarmed.

Jay is a serious person. He has a serious job to do. He is energetic, caring and truthful. For these reasons, I placed Jay Hansen 1st in this race for sheriff.

No one should consider unsubstantiated allegations against him.

Re-Elect Jay Hansen For Sheriff

I had the opportunity to work with and supervise both candidates for Sheriff for many years, while I was the Beaverhead County Sheriff. Without any reservations,

I am casting my vote on November 4th for the only qualified candidate, Sheriff Jay Hansen. I respect and trust the way Jay does his job. Jay is experienced, honest, and trustworthy. I know firsthand that in the position of Sheriff you have to make important and difficult decisions that affect many people, and may impact you personally. Sheriff is not just a title, but a responsibility. I trust Jay to continue protecting our county. Please join me and vote for the qualified, experienced, and trustworthy candidate.
