Grace (Piazzola) Helming, 79

Grace (Piazzola) Helming, 79, passed away Saturday afternoon, Nov. 8, 2014.

She was born Feb. 24, 1935, to Pete and Agness (Moseley) Piazzola of Wise River. Her father, an Italian immigrant, was the Wise River District Forest Ranger and was transferred to Dillon soon after her birth. She attended Dillon schools and landed a job as a telephone operator at Mountain Bell during high school, an unusual accomplishment. She liked sharing humorous stories of the duties of a telephone operator in those days -- from taking grocery orders for the elderly to dispatching the police and fire departments. She graduated from Beaverhead County High School, Dillon, in 1953.

She attended Missoula Business College and then worked various secretarial and clerk jobs for the Missoula Mercantile, Northern Pacific Railway, BLM and USFS. She married Bruce Helming on April 29, 1961, in Dillon & began a life in Wisdom.

Grace was always on the lookout for something to get involved in. She was very active in the local PTA while her sons were in school, and served many years as clerk of the Wisdom School Board and Wisdom Sewer District.

Grace's grandparents were significant figures in the early mining history of Rochester, Melrose, Glendale, and Dewey. She began researching the history of that area, and published two books on the subject. In the process, she uncovered and published stories of numerous figures of that area, including George "Wild Man of Wise River" Pettingill, the Vipond Brothers, Henry Knippenberg, Professor Phillip Knabe, and "Sporting Lady turned Samaritan" Good Hearted Grinny. In the early 90s, Grace was honored by The Montana Historical Society for her work revealing that the namesake of Powell County was a local mountain man turned early-day sheriff of Dewey.

Grace spent her last years visiting with locals and people who traveled through Wisdom, over coffee at the Antler Saloon. Her quick wit, engaging personality, and unique knowledge of area history made for great conversations; something for which she will be sorely missed. Her love for animals was notorious and her homemade confections tantalized many an area sweet tooth.

Grace is survived by her sons, Gary (Cecelia) of Butte and Jay (Sue) of Bellevue Neb.; grandchildren, Andrew and Kate Helming of Bozeman, Alyssa (Chris) Nelson of Omaha, Neb., and Jordan (Lura Lynn); and great-grandchild, Josiah Helming of Sioux Center, Iowa.

At her request, no funeral services are planned. A luncheon to celebrate her life, will be announced at a later date -- after the long Big Hole winter. Memorials may be directed to the Wisdom Fire Dept.

Randall (Randy) Robert Witt

Randall (Randy) Robert Witt, of Sheridan, died early Nov. 8, 2014, at St. Patrick Hospital due to a head injury suffered from a fall at work.

He was born to Robert and Carleen Witt on June 3, 1959, in Arcadia, Calif. Randy completed his early education in Temple City, Calif., graduating high school in 1977. Shortly after graduation Randy entered the U.S. Air Force with Basic Training in San Antonio, Texas, followed by loadmaster training in Wichita Falls, Texas. Upon graduation from training he received his survival training in Spokane, before being stationed to Little Rock AFB, Ark. Randy loved the flying that his job provided even if he wasn't in the pilot's seat. He had already earned his private pilot's license as a teen-ager and flying was his first love.

Randy met his wife in the Air Force, marrying March 1, 1980. Julie Pedersen was also stationed at Little Rock AFB and the couple met in the shared dormitory. After being discharged the couple lived in Temple City for three years (his home) until moving to Montana in 1985 (her home). A son, Mark was born in 1987. Sheridan became Randy's home in 1990, where he enjoyed camping, riding motorcycles and four-wheelers, and of course, flying. Randy was employed by Kenworthy Electric in Sheridan as a Master Electrician for many years, a job in which he excelled and loved.

Randy and Julie had recently traveled to Cancun, Mexico, for the marriage of their son to Jennifer Duprau.

Congrats to the winners and thank you to Mr. Williams for running such fun lunchtime tournaments.

The boys' basketball A teams traveled to Montana City for a tournament. Both teams finished in 3rd place. The 8th grade lost 29 to 27 to the 1st place team, East Valley Middle School. They beat Butte Central 37 to 15 and Deer Lodge 55 to 33. 7th grade beat Deer Lodge and Montana City, but lost to Butte Central.

The boys' basketball B teams traveled to Deer Lodge last Tuesday. Neither team was able to pull off a win, but both teams are improving with each game. This week boys' basketball is busy. Today, Monday, DMS hosts Anaconda. 7th plays in the DMS gym, while 8th grade plays in the new gym. B teams play at 4:30, followed by A teams at 5:30.

Tomorrow, Tuesday, November 17th, the teams travel to Butte East. The bus leaves at 2:00 pm. 7B plays at 3:30, followed by 7A at 4:30, 8B at 5:30, and 8A at 6:30. The tournament scheduled for Saturday, November 22nd, has been cancelled.

This week the girls participating in cross training will be traveling to the college for racquetball. Monday and Tuesday will be for 7th grade and Thursday and Friday will be for 8th grade. Parents should pick up their children by 5:00 outside the UMW gymnasium, except for Friday when 4:00 will be the pickup time.

A big thank you to all students that entered sunflower art to be displayed at this years' 2014 Southwest Montana Arts Council Art Walk. Justus Peterson won "People's Choice". Monika de los Rios was awarded 1st place. And second place winners were Ellie Towery, Erica Bugni, Katelyn Pape, and Taylor Wilson. Thank you, Mrs. Bartlome, for facilitating this opportunity.

Attention all you book lovers. A new competition is brewing at DMS. Gather a team of 2 to 5 members, read some amazing books, and compete against other teams for a chance to win $100. See Mrs. Telling for more details.

Election:

By MJ

It was refreshing to see 62+/- percent of the people in Beaverhead County taking the time to cast a vote for the candidate of their choice. The large turnout of electorates shows people are interested in how the people they elect are doing the job and spending their tax dollars.

The local candidates are to be applauded for the positive campaigns. Numerous citizens supported their candidates of choice openly via media, advertisements...

Elections are a challenging way to ask for a job, knowing that in the end you may not be the winner, forfeit your job and probably have a battered self-esteem. It can be an emotional journey we don't realize, until the ballots are counted.

No matter how you wrap the package when it comes to seeking an elected position it is probably one of the most difficult ways to apply for a job. Imagine applying for a job by asking hundreds/thousands of people to hire you. Voters will make judgments about you that will have nothing to do with the job you are seeking. People will cast their vote around who your friends are, who your partner is, your past life, whether you're female or male, something they heard from a friend or at the coffee shop, whether you knocked on their door or not...

Every voter has a say and an opinion. You will only get to talk on a personal basis with a view that will cast a ballot. It is rare when someone will tell you they are not going to vote for you and give you the reason. I was fortunate as one time when I ran for an office a person told me I was the best candidate however; he had spent too many years drinking at a bar with my opponent and he had to vote for him. I appreciated his honesty even though I didn't agree...

THANK YOU to each candidate that put their name out there.
