Jani Olsen was appointed as an ex-officio member of the Study Commission board. Mayor Klakken explained that Ms. Olsen will be a non-voting member function as a liaison between the city and board.

Director of Operations J.S. Turner listed zoning compliance certificates for: Lee Hiniker Construction/Don Dingley @ 16 E Clark St. and Montana Candle Works @ 435 S. Atlantic, St. for a sign.

Police Chief reported that the city would look for a replacement officer when they receive final resignation form Mr. Kluesner. Mr. Franklin Kluesner was the winner of the vote recount for sheriff & it appears he will be resigning his position as a city officer.

Mr. Straus, City Treasurer reported that the audit company will be doing the year end audit for the city starting the first part of December. Completion of the audit will take approximately a month to complete.

Councilman Troedsson then went on to verbally report (with a written report) on the School District #10 board held Nov. 11, 2014 that he attended where the Splash Pad location was discussed. Mayor Klakken explained to the council that Mr. Troedsson's presentation was not on the agenda and there would be no decisions made.

Monthly Revenue, Bank Reconciliations, Police Report and Fire Department reports were presented. Mr. Straus presented a brief Treasurer's Report Summary for month of October, 2014 that was to the point and easy to understand.

Letter to the Editor

It's time to get on my soapbox again. Snow removal is very important to me. I walk my dog when weather and temperature allow and I also do a number of errands for my job all of which require using the sidewalks. The City of Dillon can correct me if I'm wrong but I believe each business and individual is responsible for clearing the sidewalks that are associated with their location. I live on a corner lot so I shovel the sidewalks in front of my home as well as the side walkway. Also, I believe the City is responsible for the sidewalks that surround their place of business which means they are responsible for all 4 walkways that border their building. King's is also responsible for the sidewalks that border their business AND their parking lot. I recently brought my mother home from Parkview and I found myself shoveling the sidewalk to allow her a safe path from the door to my car. What was previously the Creston has sidewalks that are not cleared. If you own a home and rent it to someone else I am guessing as the homeowner you are responsible for the snow removal. To my knowledge if someone falls and gets hurt the owner is responsible for the liability. There are a number of people that use the sidewalks and they should be able to do so without having to wade through snow and ice. WALK ON THE SIDE OF THE STREET BECAUSE IT IS SAFE. I am hoping the City of Dillon will begin to enforce the ordinance that dictates snow removal. I realize there are people unable to shovel their walks due to physical limitations, I understand that but at the very least business buildings should be fined if they don't clear their sidewalks.

Diane Armstrong

City of Dillon Snow Removal Ordinance

City of Dillon Ordinance 12.40.040 requires that all sidewalks in the Central Business District be freed from the night's accumulation of snow before 10:00 a.m. of the same day. All other areas of the city must be kept clean of snow and not be allowed to remain on the sidewalks for a period longer than 12 hours.

Any person convicted of violating the provisions of this title shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and shall pay a fine of not less than twenty-five dollars and not more than one hundred dollars. Any questions contact JS Turner, Director of Operations at 683-4245.
