Martha E. Griffis, 97

Martha E. Griffis, 97 died peacefully in her sleep at Meadow Lark Manor in Whitehall, MT on November 22nd. She was born November 28, 1916 in Nassau, Minnesota to August H. and Gretsie M. Heiller.

Mardy was a friendly person, she would talk and visit with many friends and always had her coffee pot on and home baked goodies ready to serve to anyone that stopped by. She loved to garden and work with the soil. Her gardens were productive and the vegetables she didn't can were given away to those people who needed them.

She was preceded in death by her husband Donald L Griffis who passed away on May 21, 1990. She is survived by her children; Donald L (Kathy) Griffis, Patricia A (Bill) Mason, Curtis G (Sally) Griffis, Harold P (Beatrice) Griffis, numerous grandchildren and great-grandchildren and great-great grandchildren.

She made life fun and always told stories and jokes, her sense of humor will be missed by the residents of Meadow Lark Manor and by all those who knew her. A funeral service is scheduled for Wednesday, November 26th at 1:30 PM at Brundage Funeral Home. A guestbook is available online at www.brundagefuneralhome.com.

THANK YOU

To the unknown person who placed my wallet on my windshield Friday, 11/21 Thank You for your honesty.

Dave Moss.

SENIOR CITIZENS CHRISTMAS BAZAAR

December 6, 2014. Going forward, the committee will consider nominations from the public.

The Hall of Fame was created to honor individuals, both living and posthumous, who made significant and lasting contributions to the restoration and conservation of Montana's wildlife and wild places. The focus of the awards is not only to recognize Montana's historical and contemporary conservation leaders, but also to capture the stories of these individuals in an effort to contribute to public awareness and education.

Jim Posewitz, the planning-committee chair, had the idea after attending a Wyoming Outdoor Hall of Fame banquet as a guest speaker. When he returned to Montana, he approached various organizations, The Montana Historical Society and Montana Department of Fish, Wildlife and Parks to create an Outdoor Hall of Fame for Montana.

The first batch of inductees to the Hall of Fame will cover a wide range of figures, some public historical figures and some who worked quietly for conservation in Montana.

Besides the Outdoor Legacy Foundation and MDFWP, other partners involved in the Hall of Fame include Montana Historical Society, Montana Wildlife Federation, Montana Wilderness Association, Montana Trout Unlimited, Montana Fish, Wildlife and Parks, and the Cinnabar Foundation.

The induction awards and ceremony will be held at the Great Northern Hotel in Helena December 6.

Individual reservations can be purchased for $50 online at mtoutdoorlegacy.org or by calling Montana's Outdoor Legacy Foundation at (406) 444-6759. Groups can also reserve tables at the event for $800.

Women's Resource Center / Community Support Center

- There will be no Boy's or Girl's middle school groups this Wednesday due to the early out.
- We are still accepting gift cards to distribute to families in need during the holiday season. Gift cards to any of our grocery stores, gas stations or King's and ALCO in $25 increments will give families access to food, fuel, and clothing. Gift card donations can be dropped off at the Women's Resource/Community Support Center and your gifts are greatly appreciated!
- The Resource Center will be closed this Thursday & Friday for Thanksgiving and will reopen Monday Dec.

from the Dillonite - Can you believe it!

• Did you know "listen" and "silent" use the same letters? • Do you know that the words "race car" spelled backwards still spells "race car" ?

• Do you know that "eat" is the only word that if you take the first letter and move it to the last, it spells its past tense "ate"?

of trouble. (And in case the pardon doesn't come through, there's some chick who wants to marry the turkey.)

- Dissidents and People In The Wrong Place At The Wrong Time are thankful that the decades have not been kind to middle-aged North Korean despot Kim Jong-un. ("Now whom did I walk into the room to execute? Oh, well — I'll just have a sandwich instead.")

- Those who struggle to maintain the religious significance of the holiday by humbling themselves and offering heartfelt thanks to a Higher Power must worry not only about reprisals from the secular world but also about an eerily casual voice from above dismissing them with "Not a problem."

- Retail employees need no longer worry about preparation for their noon Thanksgiving Day meals being thwarted by the need to get an early start on Black Friday sales. No, they have to be worried about their hiding of Easter eggs being thwarted by the need to get an early start on Black Friday sales.

- The Macy's Thanksgiving Day Parade is rerouted to the Himalayas to appease those who keep predicting calamitously rising sea levels. ("Squint real hard and you can see it! Take off those ear muffs and listen to me, people!")

- Savvy investors are thankful that they can choose among fat-free bitcoin, antimicrobial bitcoin, hypoallergenic bitcoin...

- Landing probes on comets 317 million miles away, traveling 80,000 miles per hour becomes commonplace. As do probe greetings of "We hear those mean old Tea Party people have been trying to keep you from registering to vote."

- Nation rejoices as cloning breakthroughs mean fewer celebrity "baby bump" photos for paparazzi to snap.

- The floundering cable TV business is saved by a spate of popular new channels containing nothing but government consultants stupid enough to give speeches crowing about how stupid the American public is.

- The move toward genetically modified foods continues unabated. When shoppers seek a Tyson turkey, they must specify a "Tyson Foods" turkey or a turkey built like MIKE Tyson.

Make a Plan for the Most Dangerous Weekend of the Year

Black Wednesday is one of the biggest drinking nights of the year. With nearly everyone off on Thursday, and old friends and family reuniting from far-flung reaches, it's a time many choose to celebrate with alcoholic beverages.

Unfortunately, too many people do so without thinking ahead. Black Wednesday and Thanksgiving weekend has become one of the deadliest weekends of the year to be on the road.

- Mothers Against Drunk Driving (MADD) published statistics saying that 40% of all highway deaths on Thanksgiving Eve are alcohol related.
- In 4 of the past 5 years for which data is available, Thanksgiving weekend surpassed even New Year's in terms of alcohol-related driving fatalities, according to the National Highway Traffic Safety Association (NHTSA).

Keep your loved ones safe this year, plan ahead for safe rides home!

Thanksgiving 2034: Your Sneak Peek

Tyrades! By Danny Tyree

There is no shortage of pundits who could do a worthy job of waxing philosophical about the things we should or shouldn't be thankful for at Thanksgiving 2014.

Rather than get lost in the shuffle of those traditional analyses, I'm going to take a different approach. Employing the latest computer models, I shall extrapolate from current trends and predict the way things will be 20 years in the future, at Thanksgiving 2034:

- Many people are thankful that ALL 49 STATES now have legalized marijuana. ("Dude! I TOLD you that was a real thermonuclear device you were messing around with in North Dakota! They're still talking about that explosion way over in Dorito-flavored Connecticut.")

- Technology makes simple dinner table questions quite complex. ("Do I want the pumpkin pie or the cranberry sauce, Aunt Jane? Um, er...I know I've got that information out on the cloud somewhere...")

- The time-honored tradition of presidential pardoning of a turkey? The National Guard has to be called out first, just in case
